

COST $10,338,509 IN 1920 TO ELECT CHIEF MAGISTRATE

Of This Amount $8,100,000 Was Spent By The Republicans—
Sum of $2,237,770 Was Spent By Democratic Party in Unsuccessful
Fight

Washington, Mar. 1.—Campaign costs of electing a President of the United States in 1920 were $10,338,509 as estimated by a special senate committee created to investigate them which today filed its report with Congress. Of this amount Republican conditions and campaign organizations spent $8,100,000 while Democratic expenditures were $2,237,770. The committee compilation took into account the expenditures made by or in behalf of all candidates for the Republican and Democratic presidential nomination and of national, state, Congressional and senatorial committee of both these parties, neglecting amounts spent by candidates and organizations on minor political parties.

Senators Kenyon, Iowa, Edge, New Jersey and Spencer, Missouri, Republicans; and Pomerene, Ohio and Reed, Missouri, Democrats, signed the report, which was unanimous. While stating their conclusion that "the expenditures of these vast sums is present and growing menace to the nation," no recommendations for Congressional action were made except that the suggestion was made that elections committees of the next Congress should consider the question. Constitutional difficulties may intervene to prevent legislation on the subject, the report said but Congress should "take proper steps to submit," a constitutional amendment dealing with the difficulty, "if it is found necessary."

While the largest sums of the campaign expenditures found were those of the national organizations, which the committee said was $5,312,729 for the Republican party and $1,318,274 for the Democrats, candidates who sought presidential nominations from the conventions accounted for a total of $2,980,038.

General Leonard Wood's efforts to secure the Republican nomination involved expenditure of $1,773,303, the committee found, while for Frank O. Lowden the total was $414,000; for Senator Johnson, of California, $194,000; for Herbert Hoover, $173,000 and for President-elect Harding $113,000. Expenditures noted in behalf of other Republican candidates were $77,000 for Senator Poindexter, Washington; $68,000 for Vice-President elect Coolidge, and $40,000 for Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of New York.

Attorney General Palmer led Democratic candidates in expenditures, the amount being fixed at $59,000, while Governor Cox, who secured the nomination spent $22,000. James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany was listed at $14,000 and Senator Owen, Oklahoma at $8,595. Two candidates in behalf of whom no money was found to have been spent were William G. McAdoo, Democrat and Senator France, Republican, Maryland.

WAR TIME LAWS GO IN DISCARD

House Resolution Passed By Senate
—Now in Conference

Washington, Mar. 1.—The house resolution providing for general repeal of war time laws was adopted tonight by the senate and sent to conference.

Virtually all laws passed during the war will be repealed by the resolution except a few given special exemption, including the trading with the enemy act, liberty bond act and the act creating the war finance cooperation.

Among the laws which the legislation would repeal are the Lever food and fuel act, parts of which were declared unconstitutional today by the supreme court. The senate judiciary committee had recommended that the Lever law stand but the senate tonight adopted an amendment by Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri including the food and fuel law among those to be repealed.

The senate also adopted a resolution by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, providing that prosecutions brought under laws which the resolution would repeal should not be affected by the repealer.

The resolution would restore the original espionage act of 1917, repealing the amendatory statute of 1918. The latter was regarded as much more stringent than the original act.

Another provision of the resolution declares that it shall not operate to prevent prosecutions of army and navy deserters or persons charged with violating the selective service law.

$265,260,000 DECLINE IN NATIONAL BANK LOANS

Washington, Feb. 24.—Loans and discounts, excepting rediscounts of the national banks of the country outside of New York City, decreased $265,260,000 between last November 15, and last December 25. Comptroller Williams of the treasury, announced tonight in making known the results of the bank call of the latter date. In New York the loans increased $49,041,000 during the same period.

Savings bank deposits increased in the period the comptroller reported, although other bank deposits decreased. Capital, surplus and profits also increased to $2,787,941,000 which Mr. Williams said was the highest amount ever reported.

Net reduction of loans, allowing for the increase in New York, was $216,219,000 and the only cities outside of New York, showing loan increases were: St. Louis, Baltimore, Atlanta, Louisville, Cleveland, Detroit and Minneapolis. The only states whose country banks showed increases in loans were West Virginia, Florida, Kentucky, Montana, California and Utah. Nearly every other state and city, Mr. Williams says, shows a material decrease in loans and discounts.

Resources of all the national banks on December 29, amounted to $21,367,799,000 which is a reduction of $714,114,000 since the call of November 15. Total deposits were $16,277,757,000 a reduction of $683,945,000 as compared with November 15.

PICTURESQUE ARE NAMES OF TEAMS

Atlanta, Mar. 1.—Students of Southern universities and colleges delight in attaching to their football and baseball teams some picturesque nick-names. The reason for some of these names is easily fathomable but for others cannot be determined except that they have been used for years.

The list of nick-names and some of the reasons for them, include:

The Praying Colonels, Centre College, Danville, Ky., because they pray before entering contests and because they come from Kentucky where colonels abound.

The Flying Cadets, Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va., because they are military cadets and have a fast team.

The Generals, Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., because their university was named for Generals Washington and Lee.

The Fighting Volunteers, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn., because of the title of the volunteer State earned by Tennessee in the Mexican war.

The Commodores, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., because their institution was named after Commodore Vanderbilt.

The Hatchettes, George Washington University, Washington, D. C., because of the little episode George Washington with a hatchet and a cherry tree, according to popular story.

The Indians, William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va. because the institution is situated on the plains of Alabama.

The Hilltoppers, Georgetown University, Washington D. C., because the university stands on the top of a hill.

The Golden Tornado, Georgia Polytechnic Institute, Atlanta, Ga., because of its swiftness of its team and its school colors.

The Purple Hurricane, Furman University, Greenville, S. C., because of its university colors and its fast team.

The Crimson Tide, University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Ala., because of its colors and the faith in its team's strength. Also called The Thin Red line in other years when its team was not so strong.

The Maroons, Mississippi A. and M. College, Agricultural College, Miss., because of its colors.

Ferocious and other animals are favorite nick-names as will be seen from the following list:

The Tigers, Clemson College, Clemson, S. C.

The Wildcats, Davidson College, Davidson, N. C.

The Alligators, University of Florida, Gainesville, Fla., because Florida is noted for its alligators.

The Gamecocks, University of South Carolina, Columbia, S. C.

The Horned Frogs, Texas Christian University.

The Bulldogs, The Citadel, Charleston, S. C.

The Spiders, University of Richmond, Richmond, Va.

The Gobblers, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Va.,

The Jackrabbits, Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va.

The Yellow Jackets, Hampden-Sidney College, Hampden-Sidney, Va.

The Stormy Petrels, Oglethorpe University, Atlanta, Ga.

The Tigers, University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn.

The Moccasins, University of Chattanooga, Chattanooga, Tenn.

The denominational institutions' teams usually take on the name of their religion:

The Presbyterians, Presbyterian College of South Carolina, Clinton, S. C.

The Methodists, Trinity College, Durham, N. C.

The Baptists, Mercer University, Macon, Ga.

The Catholics, Catholic University Washington, D. C.

The State universities without nicknames usually are called by their State names except these two:

The Tarheels, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Ole Miss, University of Mississippi University, Miss.

The Terriers, Wofford College, Spartanburg, S. C.

The Seceders, Erskine College, Due West, S. C.

The Indians, Newberry College, Newberry, S. C.

The Bulldogs, University of Georgia, Athens, Ga.

'GOING AWAY' GIFT FOR TOM MARSHALL

Senate Presents Silver Loving Cup and Expresses Regrets

Washington, Mar. 1.—A large silver loving cup was presented to vice president Marshall today by the senate as a "going away" gift. Meeting this morning in the senate chamber, Republican and Democratic senators joined in an expression of regret over the loss of their presiding officer who retires next Friday. The Republican and Democratic leaders Senators Lodge, of Massachusetts and Underwood, of Alabama, in presenting the cup, made possible by subscriptions of the senators, expressed the esteem and good wishes of the membership. The loving cup, suitably inscribed was more than two feet tall. In addition, the vice president was given a gold eyeglass case, a cigar holder and a box of cigars.

Mr. Marshall will leave Washington March 5 for a six weeks chautauqua lecture which will take him from coast to coast. After visiting Mrs. Marshall's mother in Arizona, the vice president will sail for Europe May 14 with Mrs. Marshall. He will first visit Switzerland in company with others representing the northern jurisdiction of the Scottish Rite Masons at a world conference at Luzanne. Afterward the vice president will tour Europe returning to America about the middle of August.

DEMOCRAT LOSES SEAT IN CONGRESS

Washington, Feb. 26.—Patrick McLane of Scranton, Democrat representative from the Tenth Pennsylvania district was unseated by the house late tonight on charges of violation of the corrupt practices act and because of election frauds. Immediately after taking this action the house adopted a report by the committee on election declaring John R. Farr, Republican also of Scranton, duly elected and entitled to McLane's seat. The vote to put McLane out was 161 to 121.

Charges by the committee that liquor dealers and brewers stood behind McLane threw the house into an intensely bitter wrangle. The committee held McLane should be unseated for violating the corrupt practice act and because of wholesale election frauds. Its report was unanimous.

Representatives Bland, Democrat Virginia, member of the committee declared the case was one where Republicans and Democrats stood on common ground and that McLane had been put forward as a candidate against Farr because the latter had voted in congress for the prohibition amendment and for restriction of immigration.

USE YELLOW POWDER AND WEAR MONOCLES

Paris, Feb. 25.—Monocle wearing is the new fashion craze in Nice. A number of women now appear with a dark glass monocle screwed in their eye.

The ecru face powder in use of late has resulted in curious anomaly. Many women using it have become indifferent to exposure to the sunshine and walk out unprotected, while their men companions shade their faces from the burning rays with many hued parasols.

EVER BILIOUS?

Charleston, Miss.—Mrs. R. V. Heins, of this place, says: "I have never had to use very much medicine, because if I felt headache, dizziness, or colds, bad taste in the mouth, which comes from torpid liver, I would take a dose or more of Black-Draught, and it would straighten me out and make me feel as good as new. We have used in our family for years and it certainly is the best liver medicine I ever saw. It has not only saved me money, it has helped keep my system in shape, and has never weakened me as so many physics do. I recommend it to my friends and am glad to do so." Black-Draught is the old, reliable liver medicine which you have doubtless heard much about. When you feel badly all over, stomach not right, bad taste in your mouth, bilious, or have a headache, try Thedford's Black-Draught. At all Druggists.

BLACK-DRAUGHT
