EXTRA—Century Wonder Dog Comedy, "THE KID'S PAL"

On the Wall of Dan Malloy's cell was something that brought hope to the doomed murderer across the Tier—that stilled the curses on his lips as he walked, unafraid, to the waiting gallows.

"Done Been" Has Right of Way

Aunt Mahalah, who comes to town every once and again and comforts her white friends with the assurance that she is "praying for them", and "Aunt" Leah, who is not long on prayer but is the right hand man of the aristocrats on Greenville street, met together one day this week and as is usual with old folks, discussed the young people and these degenerate times. They think the young people are too gay, they know too much and are not willing to take the advice of their elders. In fact, they are a perverse set for they think the times are all right which call forth from Aunt Mahalah the remark that "Done been ain't going to give away to just come."

TESTING HYDRANTS

Mr. E. F. Arnold, the newly elected chief, is learning the business right along.
