THE REASON WHY

"Webbie" Barksdale is the envy of all his boy friends for he has to his credit a bag of one hundred and five partridges killed during the hunting season. One young envious friend advances the argument that Webbie is a good hunter because Frank Hodges takes him out and shows him how while another argues that "Webbie's" father keeps a store and he gets his shells for "nuthin'."

SOCIETY

HAIGLER-HARMON

The following announcement has been received in Abbeville:

Mr. Charles Adolphus Haigler has the honor of announcing the marriage of his daughter Mary Holland to Mr. Wister Harmon on Wednesday, the eighth of March One thousand, nine hundred and twenty-two at Johnson City, Tennessee.

The marriage was solemnized in the presence of friends at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Reedy, of Johnson City at 3:15 p. m., by the Rev. Dr. McMillan of the First Presbyterian Church. Immediately after the ceremony, with the best wishes and congratulations of friends the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Florida. The bride is much loved and admired in Abbeville, having lived here all of her life. She is the second daughter of Mr. C. A. Haigler, an alumnae of Coker College, and taught school last year at McCormick, and is very popular with the young social set, who will regret that her marriage will take her away from Abbeville.

Mr. Harmon is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harmon of McCormick, and is associated with his father in the mercantile business at that place. He is a graduate of Wofford College, and saw service as a Lieutenant in the late World War. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon will make their home in McCormick.

Mrs. Milford served a delightful sweet course after the business meeting.

"Soap and Suds" Peers.

London—Tre list of peerages recently announced was immediately christened the "Soap and Suds" list because King George conferred titles upon a prominent soap manufacturer and a distiller.

DONALDS

Donalds, March 9.—The eighty-second anniversary of the birthday of one of our venerable and esteemed citizens took place at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Seawright on last Saturday when forty-six of her children, grandchildren and relatives met at the old home to offer her sincere congratulations on that auspicious occasion. A splendid dinner was served to all the guests of the good things that nourish the body, the table being loaded with all the delicacies of the season. After dinner the guests retired to the parlor where excellent music was enjoyed, two of her fine sons being excellent musicians. Mrs. Seawright is a dear old lady greatly beloved by all who know her. She is in fine health and as hale and hearty as a woman of fifty. She is the mother of twelve children most of whom are living and the grandmother of a very large number of our citizens. Mrs. Seawright received many gifts from her numerous offspring and the best of good wishes from all the townsfolk who admire and love her.

The lady teachers and some friends were entertained at the Manse last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. J. M. Dallas. The evening was very happily spent in social chat and in the serving of a salad course which was much enjoyed.
