

GLENN'S SPRINGS.

SPARTANBURG DISTRICT, S. C.
THIS HOTEL, twelve miles south of the Court House, will be opened this Summer for the reception of persons who may desire the benefits of the waters. The Proprietors deem it unnecessary to say any thing in commendation of these waters. Hundreds snatched from a premature grave, by their healing efficacy, can bear ample testimony of their virtues. The Proprietors have engaged the services of Mr. and Mrs. Murray, in the Hotel, who with one of the Proprietors, will always be present to contribute to the comforts of those who may visit the Springs.

We will sell Lots to persons who may wish to summer it, or live there permanently.
 There is a Stage Coach leaving Columbia every Tuesday and Friday morning, running direct to Glenn Springs.

Abbeville Mineral Springs.

THIS establishment is now open for the reception of visitors, under the superior and popular management of Mr. and Mrs. LAWSON. Having made arrangements to keep a constant supply of fresh Butter and fresh Meats, and Poultry, equal to any to be had in England, with first rate Cooks, the Directors can confidently promise as comfortable accommodations as any to be obtained at the most celebrated watering places in the United States. When to this they add the almost specific efficacy of the waters in Dyspepsia, and in all cases of disease in the Liver and Kidneys, they flatter themselves, that no higher attractions can be presented, except, perhaps, in these times of pressure, that their charges are believed to be lower than those of any similar institution in the North or South.

The Springs are situated near the Anderson line, in a hilly, romantic country, entirely exempt from our summer and autumnal fevers.

BOOK & JOB PRINTING
 Every description executed with neatness and dispatch, at the Office, of the Edgefield District.

To Physicians, Merchants, and Farmers.

THE subscriber living in the village of Danburg, Wilkes county, Georgia, equidistant from Petersburg, and Washington, intending to move west the ensuing winter, offers his possessions for sale, consisting of a spacious two story DWELLING, with eleven comfortable rooms, piazza full length above and below, a good Medical Office, and all necessary out buildings, with fifty acres of LAND attached to it.

Also, in said village, a large STORE HOUSE and another comfortable DWELLING, &c. I have occupied this stand sixteen years as a practicing Physician, and although the village is healthy, (being situated on a dividing ridge between creeks,) my practice has been worth to me, from two to three thousand dollars per year. I have also been selling goods six years—and my annual sales have been from twelve or fifteen thousand dollars.

My brother-in-law L. P. Tate, has an excellent Farm within one mile of the village, containing eight hundred acres, in a high state of cultivation, with three hundred acres cleared, and all necessary buildings, which he will sell, if desired by the purchaser or purchasers.

The terms on all the above property will be liberal, say, one third cash, when possession is given, and the balance in two annual instalments, or if preferred, longer payments can be given. In the practice of Medicine there is no competition, and in Merchandize the field will be entirely open to the purchaser, being no store nearer than ten miles. To any Physician and Merchant, (say two brothers or friends) desirous of seeking their fortunes in Georgia, I know of no location more desirable; and if they should wish to carry on a Farm, the one alluded to is as good as any in Wilkes. Letters of inquiry on the subject, addressed to me at Danburg, Wilkes county, Geo., shall meet with prompt attention. I would not object to taking a Physician, who may become the purchaser, as a partner for the balance of the year, or will give possession at any time.

EDGEFIELD C. H., S. C.
THE SUBSCRIBER having rented the establishment formerly occupied by Mr. A. B. Addison, has fitted it up for the accommodation of transient and permanent boarders. The Hotel is near the Courthouse, in a very pleasant situation, and he flatters himself that his table will bear a comparison with any in this section of the country. Good stabling and attentive servants are provided, and in fact every thing that can be done on his part to render travellers and boarders comfortable, will be attended to.

He is prepared to accommodate two or more families with board, and from the well known health and good society of this Village, families will find it a desirable summer residence. His charges in all instances will be made to correspond with the times.

Tan Bark Wanted.

THE Subscriber, living near Mount Vintage, respectfully informs the Farmers of Edgefield District that he wishes to purchase between fifty and one hundred cords of Tan Bark. He will pay in Cash, Leather, or Shoes, for good Red, White, or Spanish Oak Bark, $3 per cord, at the Farmer's plantation, if within seven miles of Edgefield Village; or $5 per cord, if delivered at his Tan Yard, Farmer's warehouse, or may be clearing lands, would find it to their interest to save all their Oak bark for him. A good hand can get a cord of bark per day, and two cords can be hauled at a load, if a frame is made to hold it. The bark should be covered every evening with boards or leaves, to prevent the rain from injuring it.

PROSPECTUS OF THE THIRD VOLUME OF The Hamburg Journal.

Published Weekly, at Hamburg, S. C.
 Terms—$3 per annum—invariably in advance.

Two years have nearly elapsed since the JOURNAL first made its appearance before the public, and asked only a small share of patronage from its friends, and the time should arrive when confidence could be placed in its success. The editor has now the pleasure of announcing that this desired period has arrived, and he now earnestly solicits a liberal support from the reading community, and the business portion of those, who may favor him with their support. The first number of the third volume will be issued on or before the first day of April next.

When the JOURNAL was about to be issued two years ago, promises were made by the publishers to the public, that they would exert efforts of their humble abilities to make their paper entertaining, useful and instructive. These things have been fulfilled; our time and money spent to sustain our promises, and bring out a paper every way worthy of the growing prosperity of Hamburg. And, now that these promises have been accomplished, and the JOURNAL passed the goal at which such enterprises, either fail or rise, may not a full share of support be expected by us from those who should give a helping hand?

Many believed that the JOURNAL was established for certain private, party purposes, and we have contented ourselves to let them remain in this belief, knowing that TRUTH will work its way and frown down every thing that seems to error. But, now that we have surmounted every difficulty and spread our pennant to the breeze, we fearlessly proclaim, that the good of Hamburg alone in every and any case, has been our earnest design. Her interest demands a public paper, and we have supplied her want. "Hear shall the Press the People's rights maintain."

Unwaved by influence, unbribed by gain; Here Patriot Truth its glorious precepts draw, Pledged to Religion, Liberty and Law."

Promises were likewise made by the publishers, that their columns should not be burdened with the partisan essays and speculations of the day. These promises have been adhered to, and although we have no great desire to launch out on the troubled sea of politics, we shall speak that which we may feel bound to do—condemn the wrong, and hold up light to the people. Let our words offend what party it may.

It is the duty of the press to watch over the liberties of our common country, and warn the people of every danger that is visible. We adhere to the Democracy of this country, yet if this party goes astray, we shall endeavor to bring it back by timely and vigorous reproof.

The duty of an editor is a distinct and lofty profession, exercising great influence over society. It is a power that has never been measured, and we shall endeavor to sustain and cherish the moral agencies which the functions of editorship holds among the world, and endeavor to persuade our contemporaries to improve the character of the Press, to rescue it from infidelity to itself, and from the indifference and contempt of the public; to assert its claims, vindicate its dignity, and exert it to the duty of a straight forward virtuous course! These admonitions we have learned from wise and experienced heads, and we will profit by them.

The columns of the JOURNAL are devoted to Foreign and Domestic News, the Markets, Literature, Science, &c. Our readers will be furnished with correct information in relation to passing events in every quarter of the globe—the state of the markets at home and abroad, and every description of business intelligence, besides a great variety of miscellaneous matter. The great increase of trade to Hamburg, her natural advantages for health and business, and her flourishing condition, renders a paper indispensably necessary here, as well to the citizens as the planters and others who trade to this place; all of whom should patronize a paper of correct information. Therefore, the editor of the JOURNAL knows that he can send out a weekly sheet as well worthy of patronage as any other now before the public. He respectfully solicits from a liberal and enlightened community, that increase of patronage which he believes his work deserves.

ALUM SPRING PILLS.

FOR THE CURE OF Dyspepsia, Scrophulous and Chronic Liver Diseases.

THESE PILLS are prepared by Dr. S. R. Campbell, from the water of the highly celebrated Mineral Springs, in Rockbridge county Va., called the Alum Springs. These waters in their effects upon the system are tonic, increasing the appetite, and promoting digestion; they are cathartic, evacuating the bowels, and they also effect a determination to the surface, increasing the perspiration. From the combination of all these effects upon the system, they are a great purifier of the blood, and equalizer of the circulation. The effect of the Pills, made from these waters, are in all respects, similar to the water itself, and each pill is equal to a common glass of water. For the cure of the above diseases, and all other chronic (or slow) diseases, perseverance in the use of these Pills, according to the directions given in the small bills, accompanying the pills, is all important; and if they are perseveringly used as directed, a cure may be more certainly expected, than under any other treatment heretofore discovered, except from the use of the water, from which, they are prepared either by an attendance at the Springs or otherwise. They very speedily cure diarrhoea attended with acidity of the stomach, and what is commonly called heart-burn; two or three pills may be taken at any time, when the stomach is troubled with acidity, with the happiest effect. These Pills have an excellent effect in preventing the attacks of nervous or sick-head-ache; from three to six pills should be taken at once, when the symptoms are felt.

These waters are an effectual remedy for all hemorrhages; and as the Pills have the same effect in other cases, it is believed they will also have the same effect in cases of hemorrhage. They cure dropsies in some cases but are not an infallible remedy in all cases of this disease.

From the efficacy of these waters and pills in purifying the blood, they are invaluable in the cure of all diseases of the skin, and all indolent sores, not disposed to a healthy action. In the use of them for such diseases, if the disease of the skin appears to be irritated at first, or if the ulcers become more inflamed and discharge more freely, let not this circumstance alarm any one, or deter him from persevering in their use. These are evidences of the good effects of the Pills in expelling the vitiated humors from the blood to the surface, and until the blood is purified, such disease cannot be cured. In scrophulous ulcers, the use of these waters and pills, invariably cause them to discharge more freely, and in a short time, of a more healthy appearance. They are a very useful remedy in Cholera Infantum or the summer bowel complaint in children; as also for expelling worms from children. They immediately give a good appetite, promote digestion, and will effectually correct and cure acidity of the stomach. From their cleansing and purifying effect upon the blood, and from the tone, vigour and energy which their operation imparts to the whole system, they will be found a great preventative of the fevers, which prevail in low and unhealthy regions; hence, persons living in such regions, will find it greatly to their advantage to use the pills, for a fortnight, at the commencement of every spring and fall season, as a preventative, and to build up constitutions broken down by previous attacks of fever.

These Pills are a valuable assistant to the use and efficacy of sulphurous and saline mineral waters, and three or four of them taken each day, at different times, which in attendance at other mineral springs, would add greatly to the curative effects of these waters.

These waters and pills are worthy of the notice of the Medical Faculty; and in their hands would be a valuable article in the treatment of many diseases, otherwise unmanageable. In amenorrhoea, dysmenorrhoea and leucorrhoea, the waters of the Alum Springs are peculiarly efficacious; and we believe the pills made from these waters, would have the same effect in the treatment of those diseases, that the water has; therefore, we would recommend a trial of them, by the Faculty, in those diseases. These Pills are easily taken, having no nauseous taste, are perfectly safe in all cases where active fever does not exist and do not sicken persons while using them.
