

The Speaker regarded the debate as irregular. He decided that the House must determine whether the proposition of Mr. Botts should be received as a privileged question. Mr. Granger was anxious to be heard. All eyes were turned on him as an ex-member of the Cabinet. The Speaker would not suffer him to proceed without general assent. Mr. Wise objected, unless he were permitted to reply.

Mr. Granger said, that considering the peculiar position of the gentleman as a friend of Mr. Tyler, he would take his seat under his (Mr. Wise's) objection. Mr. Wise exclaimed, however, that he courted a full discussion and intimated that a time would come for it.

The House, by a vote of 26 to 93, refused to receive the proposition of Mr. Botts.

Mr. Botts then remarked that he considered this vote as a declaration, on the part of the House, that they believed the charges in Mr. Spencer's letter to be untrue.

Mr. Everett's bill repealing the Bankrupt Act was introduced. Leave was granted by the overwhelming vote of 137 to 63.

This bill takes effect upon all proceedings not commenced before the 5th of December. It will pass the House by a vote of two-thirds.

The Senate were in session only one hour. Mr. Tallmadge's resolution calling for information as the operation of the Bankrupt Act was adopted, but so modified as to require the information to be laid before the Senate as soon as possible.

Mr. Graham gave notice, that he would offer an amendment to the bill repealing the Bankrupt Act, restricting the operation of the repeal to cases arising prior to the commencement of the present session.

From our Correspondent. COLUMBIA, Dec. 14, 1842.

I write you to inform you, that the present session of the Legislature will adjourn on Tuesday the 20th inst. Many Bills of importance are before us, but in consequence of the shortness of the session will be lost, many of them for want of time.

Yesterday we passed a bill limiting the power of the Legislature to contract debt, upon the faith of the State, which I am inclined to think one of the best bills that has engaged the attention of the Legislature for many years. The bill perhaps may be defective, but all must admit the principle to be a good one.

Mr. Henry of the Special Committee of five, upon a Petition from the District of Pendleton, made a sweeping report upon most of the salaries of the State, (so as to meet the present money standard of value.) The Committee deem it inexpedient as the present, to attempt to legislate on the fees of Sheriffs, Clerks of Court, Commissioners in Equity, Ordinaries, Clerks of Attorneys at Law, Assessors of Saint Philips and St. Michaels, Physicians fees, pay of Jurors, Keeper of the State House, the Salary of the Governor, and his Private Secretary. They also recommend the office of Messenger be abolished; and many others which will consume too much time to enumerate at this particular time of busy legislation. The Committee recommend the Legislature to reduce the salaries of a large number of Officers, which will no doubt be done, as this Legislature go upon the principle of reform and retrenchment.

We had quite a warm discussion to day upon the plan proposed by the Committee to the house, of laying off the Congressional Districts, the plan proposed, or rather agreed to by the House, throws Edgefield, Abbeville, Newberry and Laurens as our Congressional District, and no doubt the plan will be agreed to by the Senate.

A very warm discussion grew out of a Report of Mr. Roper's, on Agriculture, on the subject of an Agricultural Survey. After much discussion, the question was taken on each of the Resolutions and passed unanimously, with the exception of the last, which recommends the sum of two thousand dollars, be appropriated each year for two years, to carry out the Survey—upon a call for the eyes and noses, the resolution was carried by a few votes.

Mr. R. C. Griffin offered the following Resolution, which was lost.

Resolved, That in the event that a survey is not made in every neighborhood in the State, there shall be a forfeiture of the sum of $2,000.

We will go into the election of United States Senator; Pickens, Rhett, Davie, and Huger are the candidates. As soon as the result is known, I will write you.

The Committee, both from the Senate and House, have reported a bill in favor of allowing those persons who practice medicine upon the Thompsonian System, to collect a reasonable compensation for services rendered. I am inclined to think the bill will pass. The Committee have also reported in favor of dividing the District so as to cut off the Saluda Regiment a district to itself. I am however doubtful of its passage, as it is the only petition that has been before the Committee, but what was rejected by them.

I have sent you the Journals, and wish you to take such extracts as you may think will be of interest to our people. All the Petitions and matters placed into our hands, have been attended to punctually.

We have established a new place of election at Batt. Howard's, and also one at John Rochell's; and appointed Magistrates to fill all vacancies and otherwise.—Gov. Hammond gives us a levee to-morrow night; we expect quite a treat, and I have known doubt the company will be highly entertained, not only in a free interchange of opinions on matters and things in general, but in satisfying their appetites with the many good things before them; and that is not all, the Ladies will be there, which will add ten-fold to the interest of the occasion.

For the Advertiser. COLUMBIA, Dec. 17, 1842.

Mr. Editor.—According to promise, I again address you, to give you such of the news as I am able to procure. For the last week, things have gone on quietly, in comparison with the first week of the session; part of the office seekers have been satisfied by obtaining their wishes, and the remainder have gone to their respective homes, no doubt regretting their hard lots; but they have with them the consolation of having done the State "some service," in their "by-gone days," which they may, should they wait patiently, be remunerated for, upon the next turn of dame Fortune's wheel. My advice to those who have been disappointed, is not to "give up the ship," but to continue their "great services" to the government, and my word for it, they will meet their just deserts. A number of the applicants, I fear, have returned, as I shall, eased of the price of a couple of bags of first rate Cotton, as the landlords here are an unreasonable set of fellows, thinking nothing of charging a poor devil two dollars a day for his grub, and in proportion for his horses and servants. Should I ever be so fortunate as to be sent by my fellow citizens of Edgefield to the House of Delegates, (as I would never consent to come forward and oppose our present worthy Senator,) I will pledge myself to introduce a resolution either to establish a Boarding House and Livery Stables by the State, for the use of the members of the Legislature, and persons applying for office, or to move the seat of Government, to a part of the State where the people have some conscience.

The business of the week has been, with the exception of Districting the State, and electing a Senator, of a private nature. Our Congressional District is denominated the Fifth, and is to contain the Districts of Abbeville, Edgefield, Newberry, and Lexington, in which I understand there is at present three or four candidates.

Judge Huger has been elected United States Senator, in the place of the Hon. John C. Calhoun; this, I think was fair play, as our section of the State has the Hon. George McDuffie, in the place of the Hon. W. C. Preston. I was not in the House at the time of the election, but presume there was heavy electioneering.

The Ex Governor delivered a handsome valedictory, and the Governor elect a neat and appropriate inaugural. I take it, the opposition to the contrary notwithstanding, that our new Governor will be, before long, a popular and efficient officer.

Daniel Holland, Esq., has been, I understand, appointed Coroner for Edgefield District, vice George A. Addison, Esq., resigned.

The members talk loudly of adjourning on Tuesday, but I think Wednesday will bring them up; some appear very anxious to return home, but they are principally married men, the young men and bachelors are, I find, in no hurry, as there is at present a fine assemblage of the fair sex here. I leave to-morrow for home, perfectly satisfied, that if any of my friends have the blue devils, they can dispose of their Cotton at a low price, go to our celebrated seat of government and spend their time and money, as easy as in any part of the Union.

As regards our members, they have, so far as they came under my inspection, attended to the business confided to their care, in a manner that has done them credit, and as far as in their power, have come up with all the promises they made to their constituents and PINEY WOODS.

Governor Hammond.—It is a source of pride and pleasure, that we are able to announce to our readers that the Hon. James H. Hammond, is now Governor of the State of South Carolina. We believe that he will discharge the duties incumbent on him with honesty and wisdom, and that as a Carolinian, his country will be first in his thoughts and actions.—Hamburg Journal.

Treaty with the Chippewas.—A treaty has lately been negotiated at La Pointe, Lake Superior, by Robert Stuart, Commissioner on the part of the United States Government, and the chiefs and braves of the Chippewa Nation of Indians, by which the lands embracing the mineral region of Lake Superior, in Michigan, have been purchased for the United States. The price stipulated to be paid for them, in annuities, agricultural implements, the support of schools, &c., approximates the sum of nine hundred thousand dollars. The Indians have the privilege of living on the lands until they are wanted by the Government, and they reserve to themselves a tract called the Fond du Lac and Sandy Lake country. The Government had before purchased the mines, and the right of working them, but by the ratification of this treaty it will also acquire a right to the soil.—National Intelligencer.

The Credit System.—The Norfolk Herald of a recent date, has the following:—

The reward of an Editor.—The Editor of the Richmond Enquirer, in his last paper, makes an appeal to his delinquent subscribers, which, for the sake of humanity, we must hope will not be without its effect.

Mr. Ritchie states that he has examined his books lately, and finds that, while he owes some 12 or $14,000 to the banks, which he is required to curtail rapidly, there are ten or twelve times that amount due to him; and very frankly informs the delinquents that, unless they pay at least a part of their liabilities, he will be under the necessity of associating two of his sons with him in the management of the Enquirer, and devoting a part of his time to some more lucrative employment.

Now, here is a man advanced in life, who has for thirty years and more devoted his time and talents, assiduously to his profession—and, whatever we think of his political principles, we cannot deny that he has been the main spring of the party to which he belongs in Virginia—who, in his old age, is subjected to the hazard of seeing the roof which shelters him exposed to sale, because those who owe him Five Dollars a year for a paper which they have read, (and is to be hoped profited by,) will not pay him. He has "lived frugally and worked hard." He has earned money but cannot get it—aye, cannot get the half of it. Verily, the bluish of shame should burn upon and blister the cheeks of the delinquent, who, after reading the Enquirer's statements, does not promptly come forward and discharge obligations which should long since have been fulfilled.

Mr. Ritchie's case is the case of too many Editors in the United States. There are too many who grow rich on paper, while they go through life living from "hand to mouth," and die having more than enough to bury them decently, if indeed they can do that.

Away with melancholy!—The editor of the Michigan Whig has been put in jail, and his editorial head is embellished with a dark looking cut of a grating window, while his articles are dated "in jail." He seems to be in tolerable spirits, saying—"As for myself, we expect no bail, but we will not repine. Instead of writing nights after having worked hard all day, we now have the whole time. We hope to see our friends any time they are disposed to call, and any testimony of their regard will be gratefully received."
