[CIRCULAR.]
To Planters & Merchants.
 I BEG leave to inform you, that I continue the WAREHOUSE and COMMISSION BUSINESS at my old stand, known as the WATER-PROOF WAREHOUSE. Detached as it is from other buildings, its location renders it as secure from fire, as if it was fire-proof. The floors have been elevated above the high water mark of the great freshet of May, 1840.

Planters will thus be secured from the possibility of loss and damage by freshets.

I avail myself of the present occasion, to return my thanks to my friends and patrons, for their liberal support during the past season. I solicit from them and the public generally, a continuance of this confidence, and in general, a return for their patronage. I will use my best personal efforts to promote and protect their interests, committed to my charge. In addition to this assurance, I pledge myself that I will in no case purchase a bale of cotton, directly or indirectly. I will attend personally to the sale and forwarding of cotton to Savannah or Charleston; also, to the sale of Bacon, Flour, &c. &c., and to the receiving and forwarding of goods to the up-country. Having a fine wharf attached to my Warehouse, no wharfage will be charged on cotton to my care, either for sale or to be forwarded to Savannah or Charleston.

My commissions for selling cotton, will be 25 cents per bale, and 12 1/2 cents for forwarding. I will also attend to the buying of goods per order.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.
 G. WALKER.

DR. CHAMPION'S
 VEGETABLE AGUE PILLS

A CERTAIN and effectual cure for Ague and Fever; also used successfully in the treatment of Bilious Fever, Nausea, General Debility, and Nervous Weakness.

The most flattering recommendations of this Medicine have been received from many eminent Physicians and others, who have used it. And it is presumed that no medicine has ever been used whose action has been more beneficial, pleasant and invigorating, and called forth from afflicted sufferers such expressions of heartfelt gratitude and thankfulness. Persons taking the Pills, soon find themselves relieved—Chill taken! Fever gone! Stomach and head free and healthy! Strength and appetite increasing and improving, and all nervous weakness fled.

When taken according to the directions accompanying them, they never fail to cure the Chill and Fever the first day, and never sicken the stomach or operate upon the bowels.

Their action upon the whole system is so charming, that persons are invariably surprised and pleased with their rapid and complete restoration to health.

The Pills are purely and solely Vegetable, and the happy combination of the ingredients, and their proportions are such as to produce a medicine which never fails to relieve when relief is at all attainable.

Each box contains 20 doses of Pills—Price, One Dollar. For sale by

DR. CHAMPION'S
 Vegetable Ague Medicine

A Safe and certain cure for the Chills and Fever in all its complicated forms, also an effectual remedy for fevers of every description.

This Medicine has been used by the proprietor a number of years in extensive practice, during which time, he has treated some thousands of cases of fevers, and from the success of this mode of practice, he is confident it must and will be the prevailing practice in fevers. It never fails to perform a cure of Chills and Fever the first day.

Bilious, Typhus, Nervous, Congestive, Winter and Yellow Fever, all yield to the use of this Medicine, &c. are cured by this system of practice in a shorter time and with much more certainty than by any other system of practice that has ever been recommended.

CERTIFICATES.

SHEFFIELD, Fayette Co. Ala. Jan. 10, 1842.
 Dr. Champion:—Dear Sir, I have been a great favorite of Dr. Sappington's Pills, and until last fall had not heard of your pills. Your agent has left some in this country, and I have used them in my practice to a considerable extent, and I can with pleasure say, that as far as my knowledge extends, they are much superior to any medicine I have used in cases of Fevers. I am so forcibly and from personal knowledge convinced of the salutary and all important effects of your pills, that I am extremely anxious to have you make an agent in this vicinity. There can be a large amount sold here for cash.

Yours truly,
 H. P. LEONARD, M. D.

DALLAS Co, Ala., April 4, 1843.
 Dr. Champion:—Dear Sir,—Of the pills which I received from you, I have found sale for a considerable quantity. I think that it will be sickly here in consequence of the wet spring. Your pills give such general satisfaction here, that I am persuaded by my neighbors to write to you for a large supply of both kinds. It is now known that I keep them, and people will come 30 or 40 miles for them. Please send them soon, as I expect to sell all that I have written for by the time your agent is around in July.

Yours with much respect,
 BENAJAH KING.

Each box contains 24 pills, 12 of which are sufficient to cure any ordinary case of Chills and Fever. Price $1 25, and
