

It was a cold-blooded butchery of women and children in the absence of all the warriors of the village. On the night of the 12th and 13th, the latter states, a war party of Yankton Sioux Indians, located at the time of Wood's Bluffs, situated about sixty miles from this place—Bellevue. The men and warriors had left the camp on a hunt; and the Sioux, soon after they reached the camp, discovered that they only had women and children to contend with. The slaughter was terrible—seventy three were killed, and nineteen mortally wounded. Two men made their escape—one of them Joseph Lafleeche, a trader in the employ of Mr. Peter A. Sharpy, and at the time in charge of a stock of goods.

He ran from the scene of blood barfooted, and arrived at Bellevue with both feet frozen. Mr. Sharpy and Maj. Miller, the present agent, despatched a party of men to ascertain the facts, and they confirmed on their return, the report of Lafleeche. They also reported that five of the Sioux Indians had been killed, no doubt stabbed by the Omaha squaws. Going twenty miles further than the ground of the massacre, they found the place where the goods of the trader had been divided among the robbers.

It seems, adds the letter, that fate is against the Omaha Indians. Four or five days before this event took place, one lodge, camping at Cabanne's old trading house, was attacked by a war party of Ayanas, commanded by the well known chief White Cloud, and four of the men wounded, and the woman killed.

Another letter from Fort Scott, in the Republican, states that the Sac and Osage Indians have recently held a council in the Osage nation, the object of which was to unite their forces and influence, to rob and plunder the whites, possibly under the impression that they could obtain aid from Mexico.

The Osages and Creeks are also about commencing hostilities.

OUR NEW VOLUME.
Last week we issued the first number of a new volume. We return our most heartfelt thanks to our numerous and well tried friends, who have stood by us, through evil as well as good report. In common with our brethren of the craft, and with nearly every son of old father Adam, we have had to encounter trials of a very serious character. At times, opposition to our paper was pretty strong, but we kept the even tenor of our way, and we trust that all who were displeased, in the slightest degree, with us, or felt themselves aggrieved, either with cause, or without any, have become our friends. It shall not be our fault, we hope, if they do not become so. We will not say, that we have not erred, perhaps seriously, in the management of our paper, but certain we are, that we have not done so, willfully and maliciously. Whilst we will endeavor, as we have always done, to maintain our own rights in a proper spirit, and never to shrink from the assertion of our political principles, we will to the best of our ability preserve a becoming respect and forbearance towards our opponents or private enemies, if any we have. Our columns, as heretofore, will be open to the discussion of all topics suitable to a journal of the character of this, provided they are treated in a decorous manner. We will not exclude any article of a courteous kind, though the views of the writer may be entirely opposed to our own. We reserve to ourselves, however, the privilege, that is accorded to all editors, of deciding what articles shall find a mission into our columns. We think it needless to make extravagant promises, about what we intend to do hereafter, but we can only say to our friends and others, "try us and we will do our best to please you."

We enter upon our twelfth volume with the brightest anticipations, and we fondly hope, that at the close of the year, our readers and ourselves will be as good friends as we are at the commencement.

Inclement Weather.—Since our last, we have had an abundance of disagreeable weather. Thursday the 23th ult., was quite cold, the thermometer all day standing nearly at 32 degs. On Friday morning some hours before day, there was a fall of one of the hardest rains we have had during the winter. The bad weather did not clear off until the morning of the 30th.

Honors to the Palmetto Regiment.—The natives of South Carolina, residing in Mobile, rendered the honor of a public entertainment to the Palmetto Regiment, which was accepted. The correspondence between the committee of citizens and Col. Butler is alike honorable to both parties. We recognize the name of that long tried and virtuous patriot, Col. Jas. S. Deas, formerly of Camden, as the Chairman of the Committee on the part of the citizens.

—Temperance Advocate.

For the Advertiser.
Mr. Editor:—I avail myself of this mole, of returning my grateful acknowledgments to my friends, who have so kindly through your paper and the Republican, nominated me for the vacant seat in the Legislature. I have experienced favors at the hands of my fellow-citizens, and would willingly make any ordinary sacrifice to serve them, but other duties and engagements leave me no alternative but to decline, as I do, the nomination.

Will the Republican oblige me by inserting this note.
Very respectfully,
Your obt. servant,

From the South Carolinian.
Letters for the Volunteers.—His Excellency, Governor Johnson has handed us, for publication, the following instructions from Col. Butler, for the direction of letters to the Volunteers, and requests all the newspapers of this State to copy them:
"All communications from the relatives or friends, to any member of the Palmetto Regiment, should be addressed thus:
Care of JAMES CANEY, of the Palmetto Regiment, South Carolina Volunteers, in Mexico, via New Orleans, care of A. T. BURNLEY & Co.
Note.—Giving the title, Colonel, Lieutenant, Colonel, Major, Captain, Lieutenant, Sergeant, Corporal, or Private, as the case may be, and always paying the postage as far as New Orleans."

P. M. BUTLER,
Col. Commanding S. C. V.

The Palmetto Regiment.—We learn from Col. Butler, who left town yesterday (says the N. O. Picayune of 22d ult.) to rejoin his command, that the Palmetto Regiment will sail from Mobile on the 24th inst., direct for the seat of war, and not from this port as has been stated in some of the papers. The vessels to transport the Regiment have already gone round to Mobile.

Palmetto Regiment.—We copy the following correspondence from the Mobile Register of the 21st inst.:

To Col. Pierce M. Butler, commanding the Palmetto Regiment of South-Carolina Volunteers:

Sir—The gallant and patriotic spirit with which the people of South-Carolina have responded to the requisition for volunteers to serve in the war with Mexico, has been witnessed with pride and gratification in all parts of the country; but has no where been hailed with more delight than by that portion of the citizens of Mobile, who are proud to have been natives of the "Palmetto State." They have seen with pleasure the fine martial appearance of the regiment under your command, and they feel confident that in the service to which it is designed, it will nobly maintain the high character acquired by the State in the Revolution, and reflect additional honor on the names borne by yourself and other officers of the Regiment.

Under these feelings, the natives of South-Carolina in this city, desire, on behalf of themselves, and the citizens of Mobile generally, to give some public demonstration of respect for those who have so nobly abandoned their homes and families, to support the cause of our country against a foreign foe. They have accordingly appointed us a committee to express to you their sentiments, and to invite you and the officers and soldiers under your command, to partake of a public entertainment, at such time as may suit your convenience during your stay in this city.

It will afford great gratification to those we represent, and to ourselves, if you can accept of this invitation, and thus give an opportunity for a public expression of the sentiments which are entertained for yourself, your regiment and the gallant State of which you are citizens.

We have the honor to be, very respectfully

HEAD QUARTERS, PALMETTO REGIMENT,
S. C. Volunteers, Camp Deas, Jan. 17.

Gentlemen:—I have received with no ordinary emotion, your communication of the 16th inst., inviting the Regiment, through me as their organ, to partake of a public entertainment, as expressive of the admiration of our State, and for the gallantry of its soldiers. You have been pleased to accompany the invitation with assurance that you are natives of the same soil. This was unnecessary as your names are known and identified with us.

The kind and courteous language of your invitation, scarcely leaves me an alternative if I wished to decline it.

Citizen soldiers as we are, having left our homes, and the associations with them, I have been admonishing the command to forget those ties, and to remember that they have the honor of the State to maintain as soldiers. Under these circumstances, I should have much preferred to have taken the will for the deed; but assembling such officers as I found near me I have concluded to accept your proffered kindness, provided you will do us the favor to confine it to the limits of our own camp, where I am authorized to say, that we will take great pleasure in meeting you at any time you may indicate.

We are in hourly expectation of sailing for our destination, and are only detained for the want of transports, which are hourly expected from New-Orleans.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully
Your obt. servant, P. M. BUTLER,
Col. Commanding S. C. V.
To Messrs. J. S. DEAS, &c.

Protection to Prisoners of War.—The following we find in La Patria, a Spanish newspaper published in New Orleans: "General Santa Anna has administered an oath to all the officers of his troops not to take the life of American soldiers who may fall in their power, but to make them prisoners to be sent into the interior, where a depot for prisoners is under preparation."

How to carry on the War.—A letter from Washington is published in the New York Evening Post of Tuesday last, in which a "new plan of operations" against Mexico is proposed, said to have been suggested by the gallant Commodore Perry, on his recent visit to the seat of Government. This plan is stated, in general terms, as follows:—"Abandon all expensive, sanguinary and doubtful projects of further invasion. So far as regards the interior of Mexico, let us content ourselves with the occupation of the provinces already conquered, or so much of them as we may intend to keep as 'indemnification' for the war. On the other hand, let us take immediate possession of all her ports both on the Gulf and on the Pacific, and occupy them as conquered territory till she shall come to just and honorable terms of peace. Open them all to a free commerce, first placing to them collectors of our own, and establishing a suitable tariff of specific duties, by means of which we shall levy, from the Mexican nation itself, a revenue fully adequate to cover all the expenses, naval and military, of such occupation."—National Intelligencer.

Sentenced to be Hung.—A Court of Magistrates and Freeholders, consisting of Dr. Haig, Magistrate, and Dr. O'Hear and Messrs. W. B. Pringle, N. R. Middleton, A. R. Haig and E. C. Peronneau, Freeholders, was convened on Friday last at the Parish House of St. Andrews Parish, for the trial of Cato, a slave, about 20 years of age, the property of F. Holmes, Esq., charged with an attempted outrage on the person of a white female, which by the Act of 1843, has been made a capital offence. After an impartial trial, he was found guilty and sentenced to be hung on Friday the 5th of March next.—News.

Counterfeit Bills of the denomination of Twenty Dollars, Bank of Charleston, are in circulation. The signature of A. G. Rose, Cashier, is badly executed, as is that of J. Hamilton, President. The engraving is coarse and very pale, and the name of the payer, T. Street, is scarcely discernible, whilst the number on the right hand side of the bill is not legible.—The counterfeit is easily detected. We have also seen Eight Dollar bills, on the same Bank, which are counterfeit.—So. Carolinian.

MARRIED.

On the evening of the 21st of January, Mr. JACOB POLLATY to Miss HENRIETTA, eldest daughter of Mr. Joseph Cosmaham, all of this district.

On the 25th of January by Rev. H. A. Williams, Mr. DAVID L. ROTTON, of Edgefield district to Miss NANCY SMITH, of Abbeville district.

OBITUARY.
Departed this life on the 10th ultimo, at her residence in this District, Mrs. NANCY BARTLETT, in the 57th year of her age. The subject of this notice was for about 37 years, a pious and exemplary member of the Baptist Church. She exhibited a kind and benevolent spirit, and enjoyed in life the comforts of that religion that sustained and cheered her in the hour of death. The messenger that summoned her away, did not find her unprepared. She had her lamp trimmed and filled with oil. It was not an unexpected message. Her increasing infirmities of body had for some time admonished her that the time allotted to her was drawing to its close. About four months before her death, she selected the 13th and 14th verses of the 27th Psalm, and expressed the wish that from them, as a text, her funeral sermon should be preached. "I had fainted unless I believed, to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living." "Wait on the Lord, be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thy heart. Wait, I say, on the Lord."

She has left many friends who will cherish her memory, and it is hoped will imitate her bright example.

Died, at Edgefield C. H., S. C., on the 21st of December 1846, Miss MARIA LESLIE, in the 47th year of her age. Miss Leslie was a native of South Carolina, and for a considerable portion of her life, pursued in this State, and in Georgia, the profession of Teaching. For the last three years she resided in this place. In all the relations of life, she discharged the duties which devolved upon her, with the fidelity and the purity of purpose, which was universally beloved in this community, and characterized the lady and the Christian. She her death was sincerely regretted.

Jayne's Expectorant,
THIS Medicine has already proved itself to be all that it has been recommended by those who have given it a fair test in this country, and the demand for it increases daily. We have just heard of an important cure of Asthma, which has been effected by the use of it in a neighboring town—the case was that of a female, who had for a long time been under the care of a physician, but had received no relief and her case was considered hopeless. As last resort she purchased a bottle of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, which caused her to expectorate freely, gradually eased her cough, and rapidly restored her to health. We have no hesitation in saying, that this preparation of Dr. Jayne, for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Asthma, Consumption, &c., is the most valuable medicine ever offered to the American public. There is no quackery about it.—Dr. Jayne is one of the most skillful practising physicians in Pennsylvania, and wherever his various preparations have been thoroughly tested, he is looked upon as a great public benefactor.

Attention!
SELLING OFF AT COST and no Humbug!
AT THE OLD ORIGINAL CHEAP CASH STORE.

THE subscriber being desirous of showing the public that he will sell cheap, offers the whole of his remaining Stock AT COST, consisting of every article kept in a Country Store; he thinks it useless to make a long Price Current, but only says, come and see, if you don't buy CHEAP GOODS.
