Proclamation.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 2, 1850.

BY WHITEHARSH B. SEABROOK, Governor of South Carolina, to the people of the State: Whereas, the Legislature, now in session, in view of the duty of a Christian people at all times to look to the King of Kings for guidance and direction, but more especially in seasons of trial and difficulty, and in reference to the destruction of the equal rights of the Southern States by the enactments of the last Congress, have recommended to the people of South Carolina to set apart the sixth of the present month, as a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer; and whereas the Governor has been requested by the Legislature to issue a proclamation commencing to the public the resolutions on that subject which it has adopted, Now, be it known, that the Reverend the Clergy throughout the State, are hereby invited to assemble their respective congregations on that day, 4th to unite in prayer to Almighty God, that He may direct and aid the General Assembly in devising such measures as will conduce to the best interests and welfare of our beloved State. Given under my hand and the seal of the State, this second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

RIDGE ACADEMY, EDGEFIELD DISTRICT, S. C. THIS School is now under the direction of Mr. E. Keese, a student of the Rev. J. L. Keese, who has been teaching for several years, he also assisted Mr. Kennedy, about eighteen months, while in his School. From his former employers, our Teachers brings satisfactory vouches. The Scholastic year will consist of ten months, and no scholar will be received for less than five months. The rates of Tuition will range from twelve to twenty-eight dollars by the year. Good boarding can be had in the neighborhood. E. WATSON, E. W. FERRY, THOS. PITTS, A. W. ASBELL, Ridge, Dec. 2, 1850.

Rev. J. L. Kennedy's Certificate. It may not be improper here to insert the following testimonial from Mr. Keese's Instructor, for the satisfaction of those who may wish to send their sons to our School. "Mr. E. Keese, was a student with me three years, during which time he studied Latin and Greek with accuracy—also mathematics, to the extent usual for entering our Colleges—with other branches. He is well known to the subscriber, who feels that it is due to him, and cannot receive any, whosoever he may go, to certify that his morals are irreproachable, and his habits of the best stamp. He is cordially commended to the kind regard of all, who would respect moral worth, and duly regard merit. (Signed) J. L. KENNEDY, Anderson, S. C., Oct. 26, 1850. 6t 46

Preston's Company of Cavalry of the 8th Regiment, United States Army, believing, he repeats, that these circumstances amply point him out as pre-eminently prepared and qualified for such an office, respectfully offers himself as a Agent to procure Bounty Lands for the soldiers of these companies and wars. Added to the above advantages, he has experience, as he was an agent for procuring soldiers in his possession, and believing that he can identify with his own oath every soldier in Nash's and Foy's Regiments, and a large proportion of those in Col. Thomas' regiment, encamped at Camp Covington, and in Gen. Blackmer's Regiment at Darien, as well as many of the Regular soldiers commanded by Col. H. V. Milton and Gen. Jackson in August, 1814, particularly in Capt. Twigg's Company of Infantry, Capt. Messin's Rifle Company, and Capt.
