Fair Notice!

ON the 4th inst., a rather suspicious looking character met up at the Granville Hotel, calling himself Belling. He was riding a HORSE, 6 years old and 16 hands high. In order to try him, I told him that there were then in the Village two men from Augusta looking for a certain man, and perhaps he was the man. Soon after this, Belling, with his horse, came through my back yard, leaving his horse in the stable, and when last heard of was about ten miles from here, travelling in a hurry. The owner will come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take said horse otherwise she will be sold to pay expenses. JAMES A. MOSLEY, Graniteville, April 16. 41 14
