To the Public.
A LARGE Sorrel HORSE and an Old BUGGY was found in the woods near the Old Well on Sunday the 24th inst. The Horse was tied securely to a tree, but not unchained from the Buggy, and had been there since Friday morning previous. And was left there by a man who said his name was John Davis, of North Carolina. Said Davis is about six feet in height, dark brown hair and whiskers, supposed to be about thirty years of age and weighs about 160 pounds. He wore on his left little finger a large red Ring. He offered to sell the horse to Mr. James Matthis, and also to Mr. B. H. Miller, living above the Old Well, on Friday morning, the 31st inst. He was also seen evening walking towards Hamburg with his Saddlebags in his hand, and equipt at what hour the cars left Augusta for Atlanta. It is known who he acted so with his horse and buggy.
The horse is a large sorrel—hind feet white—blaze in the forehead, some scars on his fore legs, and about 16 hands high. The Buggy is badly worn, and was made by Wilson & Hardy, Charlotte, N. C. A hand umbrella was also found near the buggy with the initials W. H. D. on it.
The above Horse and Buggy are at my house, where the owner, by proving property and paying charges, can get them.
