

OBITUARY.
DIED at Edgfield Village, on the 6th January, 1859, PIERRE FABIAN LA BORDE, aged fifty-one years and six months.
He died on the very spot where he was born, at the period of his death, was with a single exception, the oldest native resident of the place. He resided in the South Carolina College, and devoted himself to the cause of Letters, with none of the family or professional pursuit to divide his attention, very few in the enlightened community who have lived, could boast a more general acquisition. He was the highest pleasure of his life; it was to him a secure retreat from the cares and troubles of the world. He loved learning for its own sake, and brought his own rich reward. There was no pedant in his disposition, and few, therefore, knew the wealth of his well-stored mind. Alone in his retirement, communing with the mighty dead, he had those who have had a similar experience can testify to the extent of his knowledge, and the depth of his religion cannot be one of works, but must be of faith, and on this doctrine I rest my hope.
He met death with resignation, and will be missed here that he was no longer with us, and peace upon the soul of his Father and his God.
DIED—At his father's, on the 31st of January, JOHNIE STALLS'WORTH, infant son of Mary M. and Nathaniel Henderson, after an illness of a few days, aged one year and one month.
Our Johnnie was a darling child, For Heaven kindly on him smiled; And now he is in saint above, Praising with joy the God of love.
No more tears will be ever shed, But blessings sweet rest on his head; His mission soon was finished here, And he would try to live more to the honor of his Creator.
DIED, of consumption, on the 10th day of January, at the residence of his mother, Mrs. MARY, NATHANIEL MATS, in the 50th year of his age.
He was conscious of his approaching end, and seemed perfectly resigned, saying that he hoped to meet his Maker, and to be admitted into the Kingdom of Heaven. He expressed deep penitence that he had been so great a sinner, and lived so long in the neglect of his duty, and said if he had time to give again, he would try to live more to the honor of his Creator.
God grant that those who knew him, may heed his dying testimony to the value of religion.

COMMERCIAL.
HAMBURG, Feb. 21, 1859.
COTTON.—The market here the past week has been more buoyant, and prices formerly quoted are fully sustained. The prices now quoted are as follows: 11 to 11 1/2; 12 to 12 1/2; 13 to 13 1/2; 14 to 14 1/2; 15 to 15 1/2; 16 to 16 1/2; 17 to 17 1/2; 18 to 18 1/2; 19 to 19 1/2; 20 to 20 1/2. The market was quiet to-day, and very little good cotton offered for sale. The receipts to-day were 584 bales.
CHARLESTON, Feb. 18.
COTTON.—There was quite an active demand for this article to-day, which resulted in the sale of fully 3,000 bales. The advance was decidedly in favor of sellers, both as to quality and price. A fair advance is reported.
NEW YORK, Feb. 19.
The Cotton market today was flat, with sales of 1,100 bales. Flour was firm, with sales of 11,000 barrels. Wheat was quiet, with sales of 16,000 bushels. Corn heavy; 26,000 bushels sold. Mixed meal, at $18 1/2 to $19; 11 to 11 1/2; 12 to 12 1/2; 13 to 13 1/2; 14 to 14 1/2; 15 to 15 1/2; 16 to 16 1/2; 17 to 17 1/2; 18 to 18 1/2; 19 to 19 1/2; 20 to 20 1/2. Sugar quiet. Molasses firm, at 40 cts. per gallon. New Orleans. Spirits of Turpentine steady. Rice buoyant, at $1 7/8 to $1 7/4. Rice firm.

HARRISON'S NEW FANCY GROCERY STORE.
WHY IS IT THAT ALL SENSIBLE PEOPLE RUN TO HARRISON'S TO BUY GOODS?
BECAUSE he always has the best Goods;
BECAUSE he always keeps the best assortment;
BECAUSE he always gives good measure;
BECAUSE a child can buy as cheap as you;
BECAUSE he understands his business;
BECAUSE people are not over-persuaded to buy Goods;
BECAUSE people can look at goods and then buy or not, as they please, and no grumbling;
BECAUSE he sets into others as he would have others do to him;
BECAUSE goods are warranted to prove as recommended;
BECAUSE he sells cheap for cash;
BECAUSE you can get into his store without climbing;
BECAUSE you can get out again without breaking your neck;
BECAUSE he does not sell goods for cash, you can get posted in price and style, and still make more than you pay for the trouble of calling;
BECAUSE he carries Goods for cash, and sells at figures for the retail trade;
BECAUSE he is satisfied with small profits and quick sales.
A full stock of GROCERIES, CONFECTIONERY, FRUITS, STATIONERY, GARDEN SEEDS, &c., now in store, which are sold at low prices for CASH.

NEW ATLAS! NEW ATLAS!!
COLTON'S CELEBRATED WORKS.
THE Subscriber is now in Edgfield District, and will, for a limited time, afford the people an opportunity of procuring copies of COLTON'S SUPERIOR WORKS, as follows:
Colton's Atlas of the World,
Containing about 180 Maps and Plans, on 110 large Imperial Folio sheets, representing all the States and Countries of America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceania. The Maps of these two Atlases, drawn and engraved by artists excelling in their respective departments, are the most complete, the most reliable, and the most beautiful in the world. They exhibit, besides the usual geographical and topographical information, forming any conception of the pleasures which are enjoyed in all works of Public Improvement, contemplated or finished, such as Lines of Railroads, Canals, Plank-roads, and other means of inter-communication; the European and American Governments; and a great mass of other pertinent information, valuable to all who are interested in the development of the countries delineated. ALSO,
Colton's Cabinet Atlas.
I will go through different parts of the District, and respectfully ask that share of favor, which the above mentioned works are well known to merit.
J. W. DEMMON.
While in this Village, I may be found at the Publishers Hotel.
