W. HENRY WARREN,
AUGUSTA, GA.

REPRESENTING the above well known houses for the State of Georgia, we will put in order and ship Cotton from any section of the country, making liberal advances and speedy returns. The reputation of these houses will insure the most favorable negotiation of Exchange on New York, Liverpool and London.

By our advertisement, it will be seen that we keep expressly for the trade, a Large Stock of GROCERIES, of all kinds, HATS, CLOTHING, BLANKETS, LINENS, &c., &c., which we will sell as cheap, and in many instances lower, than can be bought in Louisville and Cincinnati.

We propose to Merchants holding Cotton to make them advances in Cash or Goods, and sell or ship their Cotton to any of the above points, thus giving them the advantage of Augusta, New York or Liverpool markets.

An investigation of the above will prove that our facilities for doing business with any section are the very best, and the advantages we possess for making advances in Goods or Cash are probably superior to any one in the State.

We earnestly solicit a correspondence with Dealers and Shippers.

PROCLAMATION!

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Columbia, Dec. 1, 1865.

By his Excellency, BENJAMIN F. PERRY, Provisional Governor in and over the State of South Carolina.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of joint resolutions of the General Assembly of this State, an election has been held, and the votes as cast by the people of this State for four members of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-ninth Congress of the United States, have been counted by commissioners appointed for that purpose, and it appears that JOHN D. KENNEDY, having received a majority of votes, has been duly elected to represent the First Congressional District, composed of the Judicial Districts of Lancaster, Charleston, Marlborough, Darlington, Marion, Horry, Georgetown, Williamsburg, Sumter, Clarendon and Kershaw; that WILLIAM A. IKEN, having received a majority of votes, has been duly elected to represent the Second Congressional District, composed of the Judicial Districts of Charleston, Colleton, Beaufort and Barnwell; that SAMUEL MCGOWAN, having received a majority of votes, has been duly elected to represent the Third Congressional District, composed of the Judicial Districts of Orangeburg, Edgefield, Abbeville, Lexington, Newberry, Richland and Fairfield; and that JAMES FARROW, having received a majority of votes, has been duly elected to represent the Fourth Congressional District, composed of the Judicial Districts of Anderson, Pickens, Greenville, Laurens, Spartanburg, Union, York and Chester:

Now, therefore, I, BENJAMIN F. PERRY, Provisional Governor in and over the State aforesaid, do issue this my proclamation, notifying and declaring, according to the provisions of the said joint resolutions, that John D. Kennedy, William Aiken, Samuel McGowan and James Farrow had a majority of the votes cast in their respective Congressional Districts, and are, therefore, duly elected Representatives in the Congress of the United States.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State, at Columbia, this first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight [1865] hundred and sixty-five, and in the ninetieth year of the independence of the United States of America.
