

It is very generally admitted (says the Constitutionalist) that the trial of Mr. Davis...

The practical value of Mr. Davis' trial is not apparent to any sound thinker. No one dreams, at this late date, that he is in any danger of execution, even if convicted.

Chief Justice Chase of course knows perfectly well that the proposed trial of Jefferson Davis is a solemn humbug. He has fought it as long as he could, and he would not have it at all, if he were not a candidate for President.

General Howard has made his annual report to General Grant. He says the amount of abandoned land in possession of the Bureau is 21,021 acres, and the number of pieces of land owned is 937.

A State Convention will be held in South Carolina. No matter what the political complexion may be, there is one question which must be decided, and we have no doubt will claim attention—and that is, that some measures of relief from the pressure of indebtedness should be extended to our impoverished people.

Honorable A. P. Aldrich—The Honorable Judge A. P. Aldrich, of South Carolina, is at present on a visit to this city. We are glad to see the Judge looking well, and in his accustomed vigor.

While I do not dispute your authority, yet believing that the laws of Congress under which you act are unconstitutional and void, and that even under the laws of this State...

What the Negroes Demand—Very few Whites and a great many Negroes attended the Republican Nominating Convention at Richmond, Virginia, Monday night.

Country Trade—It is not often that we have seen so many wagons and country people in town as yesterday. Street presented a lively appearance with the wagons, and teams and drivers, exulting in the prospect of a good day's work.

County Trade—It is not often that we have seen so many wagons and country people in town as yesterday.

Convention of White People in Columbia. It will be remembered that in our last issue, notice was given of a Public Meeting to be held in this town on Monday the 4th inst.

Still Further Augusta Advertisements. H. F. RUSSELL & Co. This Very Elegant Dry Goods Establishment is decidedly one of the institutions of Augusta.

The May and His Brother, and The Printer's. PARABLE FOR MERCHANTS OF ALL CLASSES. Not exactly original, but eminently appropriate.

Correspondence with influential public men at North, has satisfied us that a Convention held here, for the purpose of expressing the will of our intelligent and respectable people...

Another Horrible Inflammatory Fire. We learn that on the night of the 27th ult., the Jesse House of our respected fellow-citizen, Mr. James W. Tompkins, living in the neighborhood of the old mill, was destroyed by fire.

The Charleston News. The Charleston Daily News has passed from the hands of Messrs. McMillan & Monroe into those of Messrs. Robinson, Dawson & Co.

The Fugitive. The Fugitive has the following late advices to confirm the destruction of fleets of the late storm upon the Rio Grande: El Correo, of 17th inst., says there was a hurricane, the most terrible in the memory of man, on this frontier.
