Supervisor Whittle will be in his office on first and third Tuesdays of every month for the purpose of auditing and filing claims, issuing checks &c. Lost at the picnic last Thursday at Centre Spring, a gold breast pin, the name "Susie" engraved thereon. Party finding same will please leave at this office. Trial Justice Luther G. Bell has sentenced seven convicts to the chain gang this year, and by the way, he is the only Trial Justice in the county who has done anything of this kind. Mr. A. V. Morgan has cotton opening on some land he is cultivating in our town. This special patch commenced to open on Friday the 17th inst. For Edgefield county this beats all previous records. Candidates will bear in mind that they must file their pledges and leave their dues with County Chairman Gaines, or Cashier A. E. Fadgett, on or before August 7th, prox. Otherwise they will be debarred the privilege of having their names printed on the omnibus ticket. Rev. J. C. Oehler and Rev. Mr. Hudson of Edgefield exchanged pulpits on Sunday, July 12th, the former preaching in Johnston in the morning and at Edgefield at night, while the latter preached in Aiken. Mr. Hudson is a young minister of great promise and our people were very much pleased with him.—Aiken Journal and Review. Mr. A. V. Morgan, who has charge of the Edgefield county chain gang, with four convicts built a bridge over Horns creek, 338 feet long, in one day, and his considered a remarkable feat, and proves that the chain gang system is a good one when under proper management as is the case in this county. The Teachers' Institute for Edgefield and Saluda counties will be conducted at Johnston, S. C., from July 27th to August 7th, by Prof. J. H. Lewis, assisted by about twenty of the teachers who have been assigned subjects, and the Institute is expected to be a success. The examination will be open to all girls, white, of these two counties who are at least fifteen years old, in sound health, and expect to teach. The exam. will be held upon arithmetic, grammar, geography, U. S. history, writing, spelling, and composition. Revs. Gordon and Hudson of our Episcopal and Presbyterian churches, conducted the services at the burial of Miss Tillman which took place at Highview church on Friday the 17th inst. The immense concourse of people at these last sad rites testified to their love and esteem for the departed and their love and loyalty to their old friends and neighbors, Senator and Mrs. Tillman, and friends all over the State remember these afflicted ones in their deep and sore bereavement. Picture of Emily Geiger. A few days ago Mr. J. D. Roper, an old Confederate veteran of this city, found a picture of Miss Emily Geiger, of Revolutionary fame. He also found a note of Col. Tatam, who became her husband. These pictures are 140 years old, and will be enlarged for the relatives of the Geiger family. Would it not be well for the State to have a picture of Miss Geiger placed in the State Capitol and one sent to the national capital? Any further information can be had from Mr. J. D. Roper, of this city.—Columbia News. Every candidate should have a map of Edgefield County. You can procure them at the ADVERTISER office. Walter & Co's. DEATH OF MISS TILLMAN.

Instantly Killed by Lightning Near Brevard, N. C.

STORY OF THE TRAGEDY AS TOLD BY A GENTLEMAN WHO SAW IT—THE REMAINS CARRIED THROUGH COLUMBIA TO TRENTON.

Columbia Register. Miss Addie Tillman spent several years of her life in Columbia and had a host of friends in this city. The brief announcement in yesterday's Register that she had been killed by lightning in the mountains of North Carolina caused general sorrow in this city and throughout the State. There was general anxiety to learn the particulars of the sad affair, but they were unobtainable until last night, when the body of the unfortunate young lady was brought to the city on the train from Asheville, which arrived about 9:30 o'clock. There were nearly 200 people at the Union depot last night, when the train arrived, and many were the expressions of heartfelt sorrow and sympathy. Full details of the tragedy were obtained from Mr. T. C. McNeely, general agent of the Hendersonville and Brevard Railroad, who was with Miss Tillman when she was killed, and who accompanied the remains to Columbia. Mr. McNeely said: "Miss Addie Tillman was visiting her friend, Miss Nettie Adickes of Hendersonville. Wednesday morning a party left Hendersonville to go to Brevard and ascend Rich Mountain. In the party were myself, Mr. H. F. Adickes, Jr., and Miss Nettie Adickes of Hendersonville, N. C.; Miss Addie Tillman, Miss Mae O'Bryan of Allendale, S. C., who was accompanying Miss Tillman on her visit to Miss Adickes; Miss Lizzie Bingham of Salisbury, N. C.; Miss Annie Warren of Hendersonville, N. C.; Rev. Robt. A. Lee of Yorkville, S. C., an Episcopal minister, who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Adickes; and Mr. M. D. Cooper of Brevard, a gentleman about 50 years old, who was in charge of the party as guide and cicerone. "The party left Hendersonville at 9:30 a. m., Wednesday and arrived in Brevard at 11:30. Horses were obtained and the party started to ride to the summit of Rich Mountain, about six miles distant, leaving Brevard at 12:30 p. m. At 3:30 p. m. we were about three-fourths of a mile from the summit of the mountain. A storm was approaching, and all of the party except Miss Tillman, Mr. Lee and myself pushed on and reached the summit of the mountain before the storm broke. We three stopped in order for Miss Tillman and myself to exchange horses. After exchanging, Miss Tillman remounted. It commenced raining and she, Mr. Lee and myself got under a clump of chestnut trees for shelter from the storm. About forty feet from us was a tall oak tree. Mr. Lee was nearest the oak, standing and holding his horse by the bridle. Miss Tillman was seated on her horse, holding an umbrella over her head. I had moved away about fifteen or twenty feet to get on a stump and mount my horse. Suddenly a bolt of lightning struck the oak and then came our way. Mr. Lee and his horse and Miss Tillman and her horse were killed instantly, all falling to the ground. My horse was knocked over, but not killed. By that time the bolt had expended itself and I only felt a slight shock to the hand which I had on my horse's bridle. "I immediately ran to them, but they were dead, having been killed instantly. They were only slightly burned. There was no disfigurement as a result of the stroke. I obtained a wagon from Mr. McCree, a farmer who lived near by, and conveyed the bodies to Mr. Trescott's house and thence to Brevard. Mr. Carroll and Miss Pleasants of Asheville, who were also ascending the mountain, reached Mr. Trescott's house about the same time as the first section of our party. They were exceedingly kind in helping us care for the corpses. "We left Brevard at 11:30 p. m. Wednesday and arrived in Hendersonville at 1 a. m. Thursday, the surviving members of the party accompanying the bodies to that point. Immediately telegraphed the families of Miss Tillman and Mr. Lee. The bodies were brought to South Carolina to-day. Mr. Lee's remains were taken to the home of his father, Mr. J. F. Pleasants, for interment. Mr. Lee was about 32 years old and single. It was impossible for Mr. Adickes to leave his family, so I accompanied the remains of Miss Tillman to Columbia and will go to Trenton to attend the funeral. "Mr. McNeely had a miraculous escape from death by the bolt which killed his companions. Their sudden and terrible death in his presence was a severe shock. Mr. J. W. Bunch, an uncle of Miss Tillman, and Private Secretary Gunter went to Spartanburg yesterday morning to meet the train bearing Miss Tillman's remains and accompany them to Columbia. Governor Evans had obtained a special train to convey Miss Tillman's remains to her father's home in Trenton. When the train from Asheville arrived, the casket was transferred to the special train, being borne by six of the young men employed in the State House. Many beautiful wreaths and bouquets of lovely flowers were brought to the depot last night by friends of Miss Tillman, to be placed on her casket. Governor Evans, his mother and his sister, Mr. J. W. Bunch and wife, Private Secretary Gunter, General John Gary Watts, Mr.

McNeely, Miss Lona Tillman and B. R. Tillman, Jr., accompanied the remains on the special train. Young Tillman came down from Clemson College yesterday afternoon. His sister, Miss Lona Tillman, who had been visiting friends in Abbeville, came to Columbia on the same train with him. They were prostrated with grief at the untimely death of their elder sister. The funeral will be held to-day at High View Church, about twelve miles from Trenton at 12 o'clock. Most of the State House officials will go to Trenton to-day to attend the funeral. Miss Addie Tillman was the eldest child of Senator and Mrs. B. R. Tillman. She was born in Edgefield County and received her primary education there. When her father was elected Governor in 1890, she came to Columbia to live. She attended the public school here several years and was popular with teachers and scholars, because of her winning ways and studious habits. After spending a year at Hollins Institute in Virginia, she entered Winthrop College when it opened its session at Rock Hill. She was a hard student there, and had already won the love and esteem of her teachers and fellow students. She was enjoying her summer vacation, when death called her from enjoyment of youth, health and good spirits to the greater joys of the realms where there is no death. All who came in contact with her liked her and she will be long and sincerely mourned. Her father, mother and family will have the sympathy of the entire State in their hour of sore affliction.

To the Teachers of Edgefield and Saluda Counties: There will be a "Teachers' Institute" held at Johnston, opening July 27th and ending Arg. 3rd, and we wish every teacher to attend during the whole session. We have attempted to prepare an interesting programme. It is quite different from any we have ever had, and we hope every teacher will come to take part in this meeting of teachers. We know that many of our teachers, who are working hard to prepare themselves to do better work in these schools, will be here to spend the week with us. We have other teachers, in these two counties, however, who do not even try to fit themselves for their vocation, and we wish to arouse this class of teachers to their duty. We shall name them the self-satisfied class. They seem to feel that they have attained all that needful for their work, and now they distribute their great wisdom at a given price. This is a very dangerous condition for a teacher to fall into. A teacher must be alive to teach successfully. A dead coal can never give off heat; neither can a dead teacher give anything to his pupils. In speaking in this manner we would not have any one to think we know it all, or that we feel superior to him or her. We have labored much in preparing for our life work, and yet we feel far more incompetent than when we began to teach. Indeed, our ignorance impresses us more and more as the days go by. This feeling, however, is thought to be wholesome. The doctor is required to go to a professional school to fit himself to do his work well, he spends several years in careful study that he may be skillful in treating the human body. This is well, as it would be hard to get along without good doctors; more yet, the progressive doctor does not stop his study when he leaves college, but he reads much, attends medical associations, and equips himself with whatever will give him high standing in his profession. No one is willing to say that the doctor errs in doing all this. If it is useful for the doctor to provide himself with all that gives him skill in his profession, how much more is it essential for the teacher to be progressive. He is in charge not only of the child's body, but also of his mind and soul, is not his, then, a higher duty? The Normal college is provided for the teacher to prepare himself for his work, but many of those who teach have not the means to spend several years in College. To those, especially, the Teachers' Institute offers much help. The Institute is sometimes termed a "Normal College on wheels." Teachers can not always go to it, so it comes to them. The purpose of the "Institute" is four fold; first, teachers get a review of the text book work; the work in text books at an "Institute" can only be typical, however. In the second place, they get a glimpse of the best methods of teaching. This is very important. Next, they should get many of the principles of the science of education, an idea of the History of Pedagogy. Lastly, when teachers come together they imbibe a professional spirit, which is of vast importance, indeed, a teacher can scarcely do effective work without it. Let every teacher meet us July 27th. We assure you that we shall do the best we can to make the meeting profitable. J. H. LEWIS, Institute Conductor.

Cures Nervous Troubles and Indigestion. Mr. W. T. Nelson, president of the Second National Bank, of Jackson, Tenn. says: "For indigestion and nervous trouble, I would rather give up any remedy than King's Royal Gernietum. As a nerve tranquilizer and restorative, it is all that can be desired. It is not a narcotic in any sense, but produces the happiest effects upon the disordered nervous system. I consider it an invaluable remedy, and have for several years recommended it to my friends."

THE INTELLIGENT FARMER knows how to discriminate in his purchases, he knows how and where to get the best value for his money—all of which is proved by our increasing trade with the leading farmers of this section. Doors, Sash and Blinds are articles of necessity to the farmer—for use in constructing new buildings or to repair old buildings—and he is wise in wanting those articles of good quality—made to look well and wear well. Superior To All Sarsaparillas.

Down in Georgia, over fifty years ago, a marvelous medicine was discovered. It was known as P. P. P. (Lippman's Great Remedy), and its fame and reputation has been growing with the years. For Rheumatism, Blood Poisoning, Pain in the side, limbs, shoulders, back and joints, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Scrofula, and all blood and skin diseases, it has never been equaled. Pain is subjugated, Health renewed, Appetite restored and sleepless nights banished by its wonderful influence. P. P. P. is a wonderful tonic and strengthener. Weak women should always take P. P. P. It builds them up. It has the universal commendation of medical men throughout the country, because we put the formula on every bottle, and one trial will convince the most skeptical that it is a genuine health restorer.

Read The Truth And Be Convinced.

A Wonderful Cure. I was a martyr to muscular rheumatism for thirty years; tried all medicines and doctors with no permanent relief. I was advised to take P. P. P., and before I had finished two bottles my pain subsided so I was able to work. I feel better than I have for years, and am confident of a complete recovery. J. S. DUFFIE, Newnan, Ga.

Testimony from the Mayor. I suffered with Rheumatism for eleven years, tried all the so-called specifics, but to no purpose. My grandson got me a bottle of P. P. P., and I feel like a new man. W. H. WILDER, Mayor of Albany.

From Two Well-known Physicians. We are having a big sale for your P. P. P. and we prescribe it in a great many cases, and find it an excellent thing. We handle about one dozen bottles a week. J. M. M. T. RICHARDSON, Piedmont, S. C.

Met Springs Curatives. A bottle of P. P. P. has done me more good than three months' treatment at the Hot Springs, Ark. JAMES M. NEWTON, Aberdeen, Brown Co., O.

Pimples, Sores and Eruptions Cured. I have great pleasure in testifying to the efficient character of the great remedy for skin diseases known as P. P. P. I suffered for several years with eruptions and pimples on my face. After taking three bottles in accordance with directions, I am entirely cured. Capt. J. D. JOHNSON, Johnston, S. C.

The above letters are taken from many received by us. P. P. P. (Lippman's Great Remedy) is a medicine whose virtues are known from the Atlantic to the Pacific. P. P. P. begins its work by purifying the blood, which is the source of all life, and does not cease until a perfect and entire cure is effected. The mortifying eruptions that disgrace the complexion, the tired feeling that prevents thorough accomplishments of the daily tasks, sleepless nights, loss of appetite, irritability of disposition, all mean a derangement of the system consequent from impure blood, which can and will be cured by P. P. P. P. P. P. (Lippman's Great Remedy) is conceded by physicians and the people to be the Greatest Blood Purifier of the Age. It positively and permanently cures. For sale by all druggists or direct from our price list a bottle, six bottles for $5.
