He Obeyed Orders.
 General Dabney H. Maury in his "Incidents of General T. J. Jackson" says that when the war between the states broke out Jackson was the professor of mathematics at the Military College of the South. He wished strongly to take command of a cadet corps, but the heads of the institution were desirous to have him continue his teaching. Governor Wise called out the state troops and ordered that a corps of cadets be held ready for immediate service. Jackson, then major, reported at once at the guardroom as ready for duty. General Smith said:
 "Major Jackson, you will remain as you are until further orders."
 Jackson at that moment was sitting on a camp stool in the guardroom with his saber across his knees. At reveille the next morning he was found in the same position.
 "Why, major, why are you here?" exclaimed General Smith.
 "Because last night you ordered me to remain where I was," was the reply.

Royal Jewels In Pawn.
 The ex-Sultan Abdul Aziz pawned all his crown jewels for a million francs at the Mont de Piete at Paris, and they were only just redeemed by the Moorish government in time to prevent their being sold among other unredeemed goods.
 The sword of state, which is regarded in Servia as a sacred relic, was also pawned by a former king, while one well known European monarch found himself in such straitened circumstances that the famous house of Attenborough once temporarily had possession of all his old silver.
 Queen Isabella was, however, the most famous royalty who made no secret of the fact that she raised money upon the security of the portraits of her ancestors, which hung on the walls at the palace Catillo, her Parisian home. The royal lady often declared how deeply she was indebted to her royal forbears for coming to her rescue and helping her out of her financial predicaments.—London M. A. P.

The Road to Success.
 Just tack this up somewhere where you can see it:
 Success consists in getting out of yourself everything that is in you. It does not consist in doing almost quite as much or a little more than the other fellow. What the other fellow does doesn't amount to a dent in a door-knob so far as you are concerned. The fact that he succeeds by laying an Atlantic cable, building an Eiffel tower, inventing wireless telegraphy or cornering the world's supply of oil doesn't make you a failure because you haven't got enough ready money to buy an automobile. You're successful when you put to some useful purpose every ounce of energy, every grain of gray matter, every mite of muscle that you've got. You're successful when you've developed all there is to you and have given that to the world.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

A Hard Hearted People.
 Filling plenty finds no place in Tibetan character. It is no uncommon thing for a son to turn his father, when too old for work, out of doors and to leave him to perish in the cold. The superstition that the souls of the dead can, if they will, haunt the living drives their hardened natures to gain by the exercise of cruelty the promise of the dying that they will not return to earth. As death approaches the dying person is asked, "Will you come back or will you not?" If he replies that he will they pull a leather bag over his head and smother him. If he says he will not he is allowed to die in peace.

A Lightning Change Artist.
 The rapidity with which chameleons change their color is marvelous. You gather one from an outdoor shrub and it immediately becomes dark, almost black, hissing and with its mouth wide open, threatening to bite. Meanwhile it is never still, but continues to crawl upward whenever possible—up you, up your sleeve, always upward. By degrees the angry black changes into whatever color is nearest. If one's dress is of a brownish color so is the chameleon's.

The Real Thing.
 "This," said the young benedict who was just realizing that he had caught a tartar, "is what I call real married life."
 "I'm glad you're satisfied with something," she snapped.
 "Oh, I'm not! I merely meant to inform you that it is not ideal."—Phila-

One Weak Spot.

Most Edgefield People Have a Weak Part and Too Often It's the Back.

Everyone has a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. Dull aching keeps up, day and night. Tells you the kidneys needs help. For backache is really kidney ache. A kidney cure is what you need. Doan's kidney pills cure sick kidneys. Cure backache and urinary ills. Good proof in the following statement.

T. L. Jeffcoat, barber, Barnwell street, Aiken, S. C., says: "Doan's kidney pills brought me relief after all other remedies had failed. For some time I suffered from pains through the small of my back. I was finally advised to try Doan's kidney pills and I procured a supply. After taking them for a few weeks I was entirely relieved and I have had no return attack of my trouble. I hope that other persons suffering from kidney complaint will give Doan's kidney pills a trial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other

Tortured For 15 Years.

by a cure defying stomach trouble that baffled doctors, and resisted all remedies he tried, John W. Modders, of Moddersville, Mich., seemed doomed. He had to sell his farm and give up work. His neighbors said, he can't live much longer. Whatever I ate distressed me, he wrote, till I tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for me that I can now eat things I could not take for years. Its surely a grand remedy for stomach trouble. Just as good for the liver and kidneys. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c at Penn & Holstein, W. E. Lynch & Co., B. Timmons.

Statement of the condition of Charlotte Cushman's Warning.

 One icy night Charlotte Cushman and Lawrence Barrett came out of the theater together. The steps were dangerously slippery, and it was with difficulty that they kept their feet at all. As they totteringly descended the great actress said to her companion quite in her Lady Macbeth manner: "Take a good grip on my arm, Lawrence, and if I slip hold on like grim death. But if you slip in the name of heaven let go!"

Bad Manners.
 The two women stopped in front of a dentist's showcase.
 "There, mamma," said the younger woman, pointing, "I want a set just like that."
 "Hush, my child!" commanded her mother. "Don't you know that it's vulgar to talk your teeth in the street?"

His Good Action.
 A little Canadian boy went to bed and then suddenly recollected that he hadn't done one good action that day. His conscience was gnawing at him. He heard a little squeal in the corner of his room, and he got up and released a mouse that had been caught in the trap. Then he gave it to the cat.

Expensive Fiction.
 "Is that picture really a work of art?"
 "I don't know," replied Mr. Cumrox, "but the story the dealer told me about it surely was."—Washington Star.

Enough Said.
 "Thrifty, is she?"
 "Thrifty! I won't go into a long discourse. I merely tell you that she banks money in December."—Washington Star.
