Miss Sophie Dobson is spending some time in Atlanta with her brother, Mr. Charles R. Dobson.

Mrs. Ida Harvely of Greenwood is visiting her sister, Mr. B. R. Quarles.

Miss Pearl Lott of Americus, Ga., spent last week here with her aunt, Mrs. W. B. Cogburn.

Rev. J. R. Walker will not preach on next Sunday in Edgefield as he will be at Trenton in revival meeting.

The Y. W. A. will hold its regular meeting next Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Josie Sheppard.

The service at Methodist church Thursday night will be especially for young men and young ladies. Everybody will be welcome.

Miss Sallie Dunovant is visiting relatives in Columbia. Before returning she will be the guest of friends in Sumter and Charleston.

Revival services begin next Sunday morning in Methodist church at Trenton. Preaching Sunday at 11:15 and 8:30. Hours for week days 10:30 and 8:30.

Mr. O. L. Dobson of Augusta, and Mr. William R. Dobson of Beech Island spent last Saturday and Sunday here with their mother, Mrs. Emma Dobson.

There are yet three county campaign meetings. One at Parksville Saturday the 17th, another at Rehoboth Tuesday the 20th, and the last at Edgefield Saturday, the 24th of August.

Mrs. Sidney Dreher, of Irmo, Lexington county, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Hon. J. Wm. Thurmond. She was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Miss Lillian Dreher.

Mr. J. U. Rives has returned after a pleasant stay of several weeks at his summer home in the mountains. His family will remain at Cedar Mountain until the summer is over.

Mr. Walter Brunson says he expects to see Mr. Sam Cheatham come back to Edgefield in a year or two, for the reason that no South Carolinian can live long in a state that has Tom Felder and Tom Watson within its borders.

Mrs. Sam Cooper, of Ninety Six, spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Timmerman.

Services at Baptist church Sunday at 11:30 a. m. and 8:30 p. m. Preaching by pastor M. D. Jeffries.

Mrs. James Kemp of Kirksey visited her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kemp, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Jones and Miss Nellie have gone to the mountains for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. J. H. P. Roper and little Leila have been enjoying a very pleasant stay of several weeks with relatives near North Augusta.

FOR SALE: 47½ acres of land within two miles of Johnston and within a mile and a half of Harmony. Apply to

F. J. Warren,
Johnston, S. C.

Mr. Allen T. Samuel has accepted a position with Capt. O. F. Bright. Mr. James T. Mims, Jr., has been employed by Messrs. Dorn & Mims to fill the place formerly filled by Mr. Samuel.

Mr. T. P. Parks spent last week here with his father, Mr. R. H. Parks. Tommie, as his Edgefield friends know him, is married and resides in Jacksonville, where he is succeeding in business and is amassing some of this world's goods.

The young ladies who are members of the Y. W. A. will serve ice cream and cake on the lawn of Mrs. Ida Sheppard Friday afternoon, the 23rd of August, commencing at five o'clock and continuing until the supply is exhausted.

Miss Burda Long, of Walhalla, a graduate of the S. C. C. I., has been engaged to teach in the graded school at Trenton during the session of 1912-13. Mr. Parker who was formerly from Graniteville will be the principal.

Dr. D. M. Ramsey, president of the Greenville Female college, arrived in Edgefield yesterday to spend several days in this vicinity representing the college. This institution has greatly prospered under his management during the past year.

Misses Mary and Leila Durisoe, of Washington, D. C., daughters of Mr. John Durisoe, are spending some time very pleasantly with relatives here and at Trenton. Their Edgefield friends regret that their visits are so infrequent and are of such short duration.

Master Glover Tompkins has given up the Laundry business. But we still represent the old reliable The Charlotte Steam Laundry. Let us do your Laundry for you. Bring your Laundry in by Tuesday. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Jones & Son.

Miss Carrie Morgan is visiting at the home of her uncle, Hon. J. Wm. Thurmond.

Mr. A. A. Glover, of North, is visiting in Edgefield, and has been very cordially greeted by his friends.

Attention is directed to the statement of W. H. Harling, treasurer of the Edgefield town council, which is published in this issue.

Married, Sunday afternoon, August 11th, Mr. William Adams and Miss Ella Casey, by Rev. Henry B. White, at the home of Mr. J. J. Padgett.

Mrs. Alva Hammond died early this morning after a long illness. The funeral will be held at Red Oak Grove church to-morrow at two o'clock. Fuller notice next week.

The revival meeting will continue at the Methodist church through Friday. Those who have attended have been greatly benefited by the very earnest gospel sermons that have been preached by Rev. Mr. Peele.

The editor of The Advertiser had the pleasure yesterday afternoon of going over the farm of our friend, Luther Quarles, who resides in the southern edge of town. He has an ideal little farm of 20 acres, making a support for his family on this small area. He has 9 acres of very fine corn and 8 acres of cotton that will make a bale to the acre. Mr. Quarles proves beyond any doubt that intensive farming pays.

Wilson Campaign Fund.

The people of Edgefield county should show their loyalty to the Democratic party and their faith in Governor Woodrow Wilson by making a large contribution to the national Democratic campaign fund. The Advertiser will receive subscriptions, publishing each week the names and amounts of the subscriptions, and forward the money, together with the names, to The State, which will also publish the list and forward the money to the National Treasurer. Send in your subscription at once. The following have already subscribed the amounts shown in the list, which makes a good start for Edgefield:
