

Office No. 61.
Residence, No. 17.

Wednesday, March 25th.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Rev. E. C. Bailey will preach at Trenton Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. L. T. May and Mr. J. Davis May spent Tuesday in Augusta with Mr. Charlie Wates.

Mr. Charles R. Dobson spent the week-end here with his mother, Mrs. Emma N. Dobson.

Capt. N. G. Evans is making a typical and efficient teacher of "The Deestrick Skule."

Mr. J. Rubenstein's millinery opening last Thursday and Friday was largely patronized.

No need of a compulsory education law in Edgefield. Everybody is going to "The Deestrick Skule!"

The Choral club will meet Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. G. Shannonhouse.

Mr. Arthur S. Tompkins has been in Charlotte during the past week with his brother, Mr. D. A. Tompkins.

Mr. P. M. Feltham is here spending some time with his family. His Edgefield friends always greet him very cordially.

Mrs. Fannie Tompkins and Miss Emily Tompkins have returned from a very pleasant visit to relatives in Mobile.

Miss Sophie Abney has returned from a prolonged visit to her niece, Mrs. J. Maner Lawton, who resides in Spartanburg.

A great throng attended the Corner Store's millinery opening. The new styles and many new creations were greatly admired.

Collett & Mitchell, successors to Timmons & Morgan, opened for business Tuesday. They have a beautiful store, having purchased new cases and made many interior improvements.

Mr. R. M. Gardner will move his family this week from Columbia to Edgefield and will occupy the residence on the Griffin hill.

Look up the new advertisements this week of Rives Bros., J. W. Peak, Dorn & Mims, Curtis Publishing Company and J. Willie Levy Company.

Frances Willard Johnson, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Johnson, is receiving much attention, especially from the members of the W. C. T. U.

Fresh supply of Landreth's vegetable seed, the kind that never fail to germinate.

W. E. Lynch & Co.

Rev. E. C. Bailey will preach here Sunday at 11:15. Subject, "How to make Edgefield an ideal city." All will be interested in this subject. Come all; come on time.

Landreth's seed Irish potatoes, Maine grown, in all of the popular varieties at 45 cents per peck.

W. E. Lynch & Co.

Mr. W. A. Woodson, the eldest son of Mrs. A. A. Woodson, was recently elected captain of the Clinch Rifles of Augusta, which is one of the oldest militia companies in the Georgia.

The play, "Kingdom of Heart's Content", which was given in the opera house Friday evening under the management of Miss Lillie Bayly was well attended in spite of the unfavorable weather. All of the parts were well rendered. The library of the graded school received $15 from the entertainment.

Yesterday morning Mr. R. M. Gardner brought a potato to The Advertiser office that measured about 15 inches in length and weighed four and a half pounds when it was first taken from the ground. The potato was very much like an o'possum in shape. It was grown by Mr. S. W. Gardner, Jr., who grows a large quantity every year for market.

The people of Edgefield gave up Mr. James W. Tharmond with regret. He has returned to Augusta to make his home. The many friends that she will remain in Edgefield. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. May will occupy Mrs. Barker's home with her. Mrs. Kate Lynch will move into the brick residence near the Methodist church where Mr. and Mrs. May have resided.

For Supervisor

To the Voters of Edgefield County: I respectfully solicit your unbiased suffrage as a candidate for Supervisor of your county, and if elected will try to serve the people as near right as I conceive, pledging myself to support the nominees of the Democratic party. W. G. Wells.

Some Stores Close Early.

We the undersigned merchants agree to close our places of business at 6:30 commencing from the first of April to September 1, 1914, Saturdays excepted.

Ramsey & Jones, Smith-Marsh Co., L. T. May, W. A. Hart, Dorn & Mims, Stewart & Kernaghan, W. W. Adams & Co., Edgefield Mercantile Co., W. L. Dunovant, H. H. Sanders and the Edgefield Market will close at 7 o'clock.

Candidate For Supervisor.

In this issue of The Advertiser Mr. W. G. Wells formally announces his candidacy for the office of Supervisor of Edgefield county. Mr. Wells is no stranger to the people of Edgefield, having filled this important office in the past. His administration was economic and businesslike. While serving as supervisor Mr. Wells endeavored to do his duty as he saw it, both in the office and in looking after the roads and bridges.

A Royal Roast.

Rev. E. C. Bailey, the beloved pastor of the Presbyterian church, is not a minister who is given to "roasting" people, yet some of his friends had a large share in a roast which he gave Monday and Tuesday evenings. But there are "roasts" and roasts. Mr. Bailey's uncle, Mr. W. S. Edings who resides on Edisto Island, sent him a barrel of oysters in the shell Monday and he complimented a number of his friends with a typical low-country oyster roast. This was a novel and very delightful experience for Edgefield people who had never partaken of the bivalves before served a la Bailey. The Edisto oysters are as large as Norfolk oysters and much superior to them in flavor. Mr. Bailey's friends will eagerly await the announcement that he has another barrel on tap.

Prizes For Canned Tomatoes.

The Advertiser has been requested to announce that the county fair association has offered special prizes for the best collection of canned fruits and vegetables by girls under 16 years of age, and that a special prize will be offered for canned tomatoes in order to encourage the organization of tomato clubs in the schools. The teachers of the Edgefield graded school have organized a tomato club in order to stimulate the girls of the school to compete for the prizes that will be awarded at the fair next fall. Any girls who wish to become a member of the club who does not attend the graded school should send their names to Miss Hortense Padgett. The teachers of other schools in the county should organize the girls of the community into a tomato club. Many of the counties have been thoroughly organized by paid organizers who are working under the direction of the agricultural department, but no organizer has yet been assigned to this county. Until this is done clubs in Edgefield county can not affiliate with the state organization but can compete for the prizes that will be awarded at the county fair. Parents should encourage their daughters to join the tomato clubs. Besides benefiting them, this special exhibit will make an attractive feature for the county fair.

We have just received a large shipment of eastern Irish potatoes for seed. Can supply all of the popular varieties.

ADAMS' BIG BOLL DROUGHT RESISTING COTTON.

Two years ago I purchased some improved cotton seed from a Georgia farmer who had bred it up, paying $1.18 cents per pound for the seed. It is large, deprotoed, resisting drought storm and rust. Have made 664 pounds per acre of lint on thin land by using only 200 pounds of standard guano. On same grad. of land with my next best variety only made 300 pounds of lint. Seed cotton from 32 well developed bolls weighs a pound. Will stand drought three weeks longer than other varieties.

I have a limited quantity of seed that I will sell for $5.00 per bushel. Send in your orders at once.
