Residence, No. 17.

Wednesday, August 4.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Bettis Cantelou and their two little children are visiting relatives in Charleston.

Mrs. N. G. Evans and Master George are visiting Mrs. Charles Rhodes in Macon.

Court will convene next Monday with Hon. F. B. Gary of Abbeville as presiding judge.

Miss Bessie Duckworth left Saturday for Brevard, N. C., after spending some time with Mrs. J. L. Mims.

The rains have improved the outlook for fall business, having put a new song in the mouths of the merchants.

Mr. Orlando Sheppard, Jr., of Atlanta spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Sheppard, Sr.

Mrs. Ida Boatwright of Ridge Spring spent a part of last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Emma Dobson.

Mr. O. L. Dobson of Augusta spent several days here last week with his mother, Mrs. Emma Dobson.

Miss Ella Bell Scurry has returned from a very pleasant visit of two weeks to her aunt, Mrs. Moore, who resides in Waterloo.

Rev. J. R. Walker is conducting revival services in the Methodist church at Trenton this week, being assisted by Rev. C. E. Peele of Leesville.

The annual protracted meeting will begin at Stevens Creek church next Sunday. Rev. H. B. White, the pastor, will be assisted by Rev. Mr. Allen, the pastor of the Baptist church of North Augusta.

Mrs. J. Frank Day and her little son from Birmingham are on a visit to Mr. P. B. Day and family. Another visitor at this home is Mr. Charlie Ford from Columbia, the guest of Mr. George Day.

The glorious rains have been a blessing to humanity, vegetation and life of every form. The mental anguish of the farmers in every part of the county has been relieved by the refreshing rains.

Mr. L. R. Jones who for some months has made Columbia his headquarters is taking the place on the Edgefield-Aiken road of Mr. John L. Addison who is taking a short vacation.

Mr. Julian Key is over from Columbia spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Key. Mr. Key has firmly established himself as a young business man of Columbia.

Miss Jane Rainsford has joined Miss Elizabeth Rainsford in New York. She will spend a month in the metropolis while Miss Elizabeth is taking a special course in Columbia University.

Dr. E. Pendleton Jones is assisting in revival services in Anderson this week. As the meeting in Anderson will last through Sunday, there will be no preaching service in the Baptist church next Sunday.

Mr. L. T. Courtney, the representative of Furman Fitting School, spent several days last week with Rev. J. T. Littlejohn at "Rose Cottage." He is making a tour of the state in the interest of the Fitting School.

Mr. Jacob S. Smith has purchased the farm of Mr. C. E. Quarles on the Trenton road beyond the trestle. It is reported that the price paid was $3,000. This is regarded as one of the most valuable farms that is located near town.

Congressman James F. Byrnes stopped in Edgefield while en route to attend the Griffiths picnic Friday and his friends greeted him very cordially. Mr. Byrnes is very popular in Edgefield, both town and county.

Rev. P. B. Lanham has conducted a very successful meeting at Mt. Zion church. Rev. Joseph A. Gaines, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gaines, preached twice each day. He is serving a large church in West Baden, Ind., but is now spending his vacation with his parents. Rev. Mr. Gaines will preach at Gilgal church next Sunday.

Mrs. L. Y. Moore came over from Columbia and spent the week-end here with Capt. Moore.

Miss Charlotte Brown of Abbeville is the guest of Misses Emily and Lilly Adams.

Mr. R. C. Padgett has gone to Chick Springs for a stay of several weeks. Mrs. Padgett will join him in a few days.

Mr. T. A. Broadwater has just completed a very successful season with his thrasher, having been threshing wheat and oats since early in June.

The Junior Order of American Mechanics which was recently organized in Edgefield continues to grow. At every meeting new members are added to the roll of this popular order.

Elections for cotton weigher will be held at Johnston, Plum Branch and Edgefield Saturday, August 7, by order of the county board of commissioners. Letting the farmers select their own weigher has proven very satisfactory in the past.

Married, Sunday morning, July 25th, by Rev. J. R. McKittrick, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Y. M. Faulkner, Miss Hattie Faulkner and Mr. Robert M. Harling, both of the Mountain Creek section.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cogburn will occupy the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hart early in September. Mr. Hart has accepted a school in Lee county and will take his family with him.

Julian D. Holstein, Jr., Miss Marion Blalock, Miss Helen Tillman and Miss Marion Bailey are guests of Miss Mary Anderson at a house party given at her home on Edisto Island. The merry party motored to Charleston Tuesday in Mr. Holstein's car.

Mr. J. C. Morgan's pig club has had a Jersey cow and two fine colts added to it. Mr. B. D. Kitchings sent The Advertiser a message to the effect that he wants to add a Jersey cow and two fine mule colts to Mr. Morgan's offer of a pair of Berkshire pigs to the person who can find a man who has been made a better citizen by drinking whiskey.

Mr. Walter Smith told us some days ago that his roller mill is running full capacity, turning out nearly 50 barrels of first-class flour every day. So great has been the rush that at the time we had the conversation with Mr. Smith he had been unable to grind any of his toll wheat. Mr. Smith mill makes better flour than any that is shipped from the west.

Mr. E. H. Crews, The Advertiser's efficient and popular foreman, is enjoying a week's vacation at his former home in Laurens. During his absence his place on The Advertiser is being filled by his brother, Mr. J. T. Crews. These gentlemen are sons of the late Col. T. B. Crews, who for fifty years was editor and proprietor of the Laurens Herald. They are worthy sons of an honored sire.

Register, Register.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found an official notice from the supervisors of registration, which states that the books will be opened until the night of Saturday August 14. For the convenience of the people, the members of the board will visit several places in the county. The schedule of these appointments is given in the official notice. See that your neighbors register for the election of September 14.

Magistrate Brunson.

On account of ill health Mr. C. E. Quarles has been forced to resign as magistrate of the 1st magisterial district and the members of the delegation to the general assembly have recommended Mr. N. L. Brunson for the place. The appointment of Mr. Brunson will give general satisfaction, he having served for a number of years as magistrate previous to the election of Mr. Quarles last summer.

NOTICE

—TO—

Delinquent Taxpayer!

Notwithstanding the fact that I have tried to visit every section of the county, I have been unable to do so. I appointed a great many road overseers in the county to work the delinquent taxpayers, and most of them responded but some have, on account of so few hands, returned their commissions to me. If there are any who will undertake the work where I have not been with the gang; let them notify me at once and I will send them a commission and instructions. It is my determination to have all delinquents work a the road, even if I have to violate my promise not to have them worked by the chaingang authorities.
