

Office No. 61.
Residence, No. 17.
Wednesday, Dec. 6.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. E. C. Brown of Greenville is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Ida F. Sheppard.

Mrs. Oscar LaBorde of Columbia is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dunovant.

Dr. B. F. Jones has a spick and span new Overland touring car. He received it only a few days ago.

Mrs. Kate Kernaghan and Mrs. J. W. Stewart are in Columbia visiting Mrs. J. Pope Matthews.

Dr. A. H. Corley, Capt. Less Moore and Mr. George Adams attended a Masonic banquet in Aiken.

Read what Mr. Rubenstein says in his full page advertisement this week. He is offering many bargains to Edgefield shoppers.

Mrs. Mamie Huiet of Johnson visited relatives in Edgefield Saturday. She is always very cordially greeted by her Edgefield friends.

The public sales on Monday by J. H. Cantelou, master, were well attended and all property, both town and country, brought very good prices.

Mr. J. P. Strom, Jr., a splendid representative of the Rehoboth section, has been added to the sales force of Penn & Holstein for the holiday season.

The Edgefield chapter, U. D. C., will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. W. J. Duncan and Mrs. J. W. DeVore Tuesday afternoon next at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Cleveland are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Padgett, Mrs. Cleveland's parents, having come down from Greenville in their new touring car.

Hon. and Mrs. Walter McDonald came up from Augusta to attend the Blalock-Blakely wedding and remained over for Thanksgiving with Mrs. Agatha A. Woodson, Mrs. McDonald's mother.

Messrs. Walter Cantelou and Edgar Strother came over from Columbia for the Thanksgiving season. Both of these young gentlemen are attending the South Carolina University.

Dr. A. H. Corley has purchased a late model Chevrolet touring car and has accepted the agency for these popular cars. Mr. T. J. Paul has been engaged to demonstrate the cars for Dr. Corley.

An entertainment and oyster supper will be given at Red Hill Friday night, December 15, for the benefit of the school. The public is invited and we trust that the entertainment will be largely patronized.

Unless providentially kept away, every teacher in the county should attend the meeting of teachers which has been called at Edgefield for next Saturday. Teachers, show that you are active, live and aggressive by being present.

Miss Mamie Cheatham spent the week-end at home, being accompanied by one of her pupils, Miss Lilla Mae Padgett, a charming young lady of the Mt. Zion section. Miss Myrtie Johnson of Augusta was also the week-end guest of Miss Mamie Cheatham.

Mr. J. D. Holstein, Jr., left Saturday for Toledo, Ohio, where he will be the guest of the manufacturers of the Overland cars for a week. This large company gave its local dealers all over the country a free trip to the factory in Toledo. Mr. Holstein was accompanied by Mr. C. J. Hill of Aiken.

Look at the label on your paper and send check or money order if you are in arrears. We have been patient with those who owe The Advertiser but must now very earnestly request that subscription accounts be paid. Will you not respond to this reasonable request AT ONCE?

The auction of horses Monday at the stable of Dr. B. F. Jones was largely attended. The people of Edgefield have found Mr. J. Perry Waddell, this being his second auction here this season, to be thoroughly reliable. He makes straightforward, honest statements about his horses and stands by what he says. His sales Monday amounted to something like 50 horses and mules.

Mrs. Minnie Love of Columbia has been the guest of Mrs. Less Moore for the past week. Mrs. Love was a college-mate and roommate of Mrs. J. L. Mims while the latter attended Miss Kelly's school in Charleston.

Attention is directed to the following new advertisements this week: Rubenstein, The Corner Store, E. M. Andrews Furniture Company, W. W. Adams & Co. and Mr. W. P. Cassels, W. L. Clark, J. H. Cantelou, master, and Southern Railway company.

The Episcopal Bazaar.

The annual bazaar of the Episcopal ladies will be held in the vacant store under the opera house Wednesday, December 13. Fancy articles will be sold from attractive booths as heretofore and lunch will be served during the day and oysters in the evening. These annual occasions are always pleasant and the bazaar will, we are confident, be largely patronized this year.

W. O. W. Oyster Supper.

Friday night last all of the members of the Edgefield camp, W. O. W., accompanied by their wives, assembled in the vacant store under the opera house and partook of an oyster supper, the bivalves being served in Delmonico style. They were prepared under the supervision of Mr. H. H. Sanders. After the feast appropriate speeches were made by B. E. Nicholson, A. S. Tompkins and S. McG. Simkins, with E. J. Norris in the role of toastmaster. The occasion will be a source of pleasant memories to all whose good fortune it was to be present. The Woodmen camp here is a very large and is composed of the very flower of Edgefield's manhood.

Death of Mr. Jesse W. Dorn.

Sunday night last Mr. Jesse W. Dorn departed this life after a lingering illness that extended over a period of several years. He was with his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Jackson, at the time of his death. The funeral was conducted by Rev. A. L. Gunter, the pastor of the Methodist church, the interment taking place in the village cemetery Monday afternoon at three o'clock.

During the last year of his illness Mr. and Mrs. Dorn divided the time among their children. His devoted wife and both of his daughters ministered to him unceasingly and with the utmost devotion. Mr. Dorn was reared in the McKendree-Pleasant Lane section and was a member of McKendree church. His death has caused genuine sorrow among his Edgefield friends, among whom he made his home for a long while, and among his friends throughout the county.

Mr. Dorn is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. E. L. Strom of Kirksey and Mrs. William H. Jackson of Edgefield.

May Talbert.

Miss Alice Gertrude May, daughter of the chief of the Columbia fire department, W. J. May, and Mrs. May, was married yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of her parents on Sumter street to T. G. Talbert of this city. The ceremony, which was witnessed by only the relatives of the two families and a few friends, was solemnized by the Rev. B. R. Turnipseed, pastor of the Main Street Methodist church. The two rooms thrown open for the occasion were softly lighted in pink and were decorated with pink and white carnations, palms and other potted plants.

The bride and bridegroom entered together, the bride wearing a stylish suit of blue chiffon broadcloth, trimmed in fur, with a becoming little black velvet hat touched with gold and champagne colored shoes and gloves. Her flowers were a bouquet of bride's roses.

After receiving the congratulations of those present, the young couple left by automobile for a trip through Georgia and were accompanied as far as Batesburg by a party of their friends in another car. When they return to Columbia they will make their home with Mr. Talbert's aunt, Mrs. Campbell, on Assembly street.

Here for the wedding from other places were Albert May, the bride's brother, of Greensboro, N. C., a brother of the bridegroom from Augusta and Miss Annie Pearson of Orangeburg.

On the day before the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. May entertained at a dinner party for the bridal couple and the wedding guests.

Mr. Talbert, who is originally from Edgefield, is an automobile salesman with a Columbia agency and is well known in the city.

The dainty young bride is popular in the set to which she belongs and her friends are glad that she is to continue to live in Columbia.—The State.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT EASES PAIN

Sloan's Liniment is first thought of mothers for bumps, bruises and sprains that are continually happening to children. It quickly penetrates and soothes without rubbing. Cleaner and more effective than musky plasters or ointments. For rheumatic aches, neuralgia pain and that grippy soreness after colds, Sloan's Liniment gives prompt relief. Have a bottle handy for bruises, strains, sprains and all external pain. For the thousands whose work calls them outdoors, the pains and aches following exposure are relieved by Sloan's Liniment. Practical Economy

Baking powders made from alum or phosphate may be bought for a trifle less than Royal Eaking Powder, which is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes.

Alum powders are not only cheap, but they differ greatly in leavening power.

If a cheap baking powder is used for a fine cake and the cake turns out a failure there is a waste of costly materials worth more than a whole can of the cheap baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder produces the finest food, and its use therefore, results in an actual saving.

Engineer Gains 68 Pounds. Took Tanlac.

LOST HEALTH COMPLETELY AND HAD TO LAY OFF WORK 15 MONTHS. LOST ALL HOPE.

NOW BACK ON REGULAR RUN—SAYS TANLAC IS ONLY REMEDY EVER HELPING HIM.

"My name is J. B. Watson and my home is in Mobile, Ala. I am thirty-three years old and by profession am a railroad engineer. I have a regular run on the work train between Selma and Mobile.

"Up to only a few months ago—that is, up to the time I started taking Tanlac—my health was broken down completely. When I commenced taking Tanlac I only weighed one hundred and three pounds and had not been able to work for fifteen months. Now, after taking only three and a half bottles of Tanlac, I weigh one hundred and seventy-one pounds and have actually gained sixty-eight pounds and never felt better in my life.

"I suffered for several years with the worst kind of stomach trouble and constipation. I kept dropping down in weight and losing strength, and finally I broke down completely. I had several attacks of what was called acute poisoning of the stomach and nobody knows how I suffered.

"I took treatment at the Marine Hospital at Algiers, La., and at Tulane Hospital, New Orleans. I also took treatment at Hot Springs, Ark., and at Lookout Mountain. To tell you the truth, I tried everything I could think of and spent hundreds of dollars, but I just kept going down hill, and for fifteen whole months I was unable to run my engine or to do any other kind of work.

"Of course, I was awfully discouraged about myself, as I could see but little hope of ever being well again. While I was sick and unable to work, a brakeman gave me a bottle of Tanlac. I took it and began to feel better right away. My stomach felt better and I got so I could eat and enjoy my meals.

"When this was gone I bought another bottle, and after finishing it I felt so much better I went back to work on a switch engine. I could just feel myself gaining in weight and getting stronger every day, and after taking my second bottle I went back to running an engine on the main line.

"Now, since taking three and one-half bottles of Tanlac, I am working regular, running a work train between Mobile and Selma, the swampiest country in this section of the State.

"Now, what I have told you is the truth, and hundreds of people who know me and know how I looked before I took Tanlac will tell you the same thing. Another thing, you can see from my picture, which I had taken while I was sick, how much stronger and healthier I look now than I did then.

"They can say what they please about Tanlac and patent medicines, but I can truthfully say that Tanlac is the only medicine that ever did me any good and I want everybody to know about it. If people do not believe you, just tell them to come and look at me now and then look at my picture, which was taken while I was sick. I will show them my mighty quick what Tanlac has done for me."
