

FIELD DAY HELD

Second Annual Field Day Well Attended. Exciting Mental and Athletic Contests. Bountiful Dinner.

In spite of the rain early Friday morning, a large crowd, probably 1,500, assembled at Edgefield for Field Day. Many of the schools of the county were represented and the pupils and teachers entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion. About 11 o'clock all assembled in the auditorium of the high school and were welcomed in appropriate words by Ex-Gov. John C. Sheppard. During the interim or time that some of the contests were being held in the class rooms, a brass band which was composed of about a dozen pieces furnished appropriate music, the patriotic selections being received with vociferous applause.

The entire program of the forenoon proved to be exceedingly interesting. Below will be found a list of the winners in the several contests. An interesting feature of the forenoon was the presentation of the prizes by Rev. A. L. Gunter, Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman and Mrs. J. L. Mims that were awarded in the essay contest by the W. C. T. U. A more detailed mention of this contest is made elsewhere in this issue.

At the conclusion of the exercises in the auditorium, all repaired to the long table out on the campus, where a bountiful picnic dinner was served. The social half hour which followed was greatly enjoyed, enabling friends from different parts of the county to meet in pleasant conversation. Early in the afternoon the athletic contests in front of the school building proved to be the most exciting feature of the day. A list of the awards of prizes in these contests are also given below, also the official score of the contests of the day is published in tabulated form in this issue.

The third annual Field Day was a pronounced success. County Superintendent of Education W. W. Fuller and Prof. T. J. Lyon deserve the highest commendation for their unceasing efforts for weeks in advance which contributed so much to the success of the occasion.

Interesting Report of Patriotic Meeting at Trenton.

Now, that our dear country is upon the verge of entering into the terrible war for human rights and liberties and the future welfare and security of the world, and realizing what great sacrifice our brave men and boys are making, and what a task they have undertaken, the Trenton Chapter D. A. R. from a spirit of true patriotism called together representatives from the various organizations throughout the county to discuss means by which the women might unite their thoughts and work for things that will, in a way, render service to their country with as much effectiveness and loyalty as the men who are in actual battle or in the trenches.

This meeting took place on the 11th with the regent, Mrs. E. Ryan, and the numerous "stars and stripes" about the home and the decorations of red, white and blue bunting bespoke the patriotism and loyalty of the occasion. Mrs. Wallace Wise, Mrs. F. P. Salter and Mrs. Ryan received the guests, and a pin bearing a tiny silk flag was given each one by pretty little Kathrine Knight.

At the appointed hour Mrs. A. B. Miller called the meeting to order, and presided throughout with grace and dignity. The Lord's prayer was said in concert, after which "America" was sung.

Mrs. A. S. J. Miller made the address of welcome in her own chaste and beautiful language, putting strong emphasis on the duty and desires of the women now in the time of our crisis. Particularly touching was her tribute to mother, telling of how her love begun with the first stitches on the baby's garments, on and on through childhood and manhood, through success and defeat. These sentiments found an echo in the heart of every one present.

At the close of her address Miss Fannie Miller's true accompaniment to "Just Before the Battle, Mother" was sounded, and little Eugene Matthis slowly descended the stairway, and turning to face the audience sang the words audibly and with much earnestness. When he had finished four precious little girls, Rosa May Miller, Iliene and Sara Wicker and Kathleen Matthis, effectively dressed to represent "Liberty," took their stand on either side of the boy soldier and sang with much enthusiasm "Columbia." After this the real interest of the meeting was thoroughly discussed, it having been decided for each town to work separately, though there will be frequent meetings, perhaps quarterly, of committees from the organizations at the discretion of Mrs. Toney Turner of Johnston, who was elected county chairman.

When the meeting was adjourned a salad course, with coffee, was served by Misses Margie Ryan, Grace Salter, Fannie Miller and Julia Wise. Trenton's honor guests for this occasion were Mrs. Toney Turner, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Annie Lewis, Mrs. Crouch, Mrs. Albert Lott, Miss Zena Payne, Miss Clara Sawyer from Johnston, Mrs. Pendleton Jones, Mrs. Bettis Cantelou, Mrs. Joe Cantelou, Mrs. B. B. Jones, Mrs. R. G. Shannonhouse, Mrs. P. B. Mayson, Mrs. Curran Hartley Feltham, Miss Sara Collett from Edgefield, Mrs. J. H. Courtney, Mrs. Joseph Gaines, Mrs. Padgett, Mrs. Rudolph Swearingen, Mrs. Anna Eidson, Mrs. Andrew Yonce, Mrs. Sallie Long from Trenton.

cussed. At "Baby Day" the W. C. T. U. will co-operate with the other organizations, and will probably do as at last occasion with the rest room and distribution of literature.

The subject for the afternoon was "Franchise." No organization can derive more benefit from suffrage than the W. C. T. U. For in the states where the ballot has been given, the states have been voted dry. Frances E. Willard looked to the ballot to hasten prohibition.

The meeting concluded with a prayer service as the revival was still in progress, and many took part in this, praying God's blessing on the people and church.

Mr. John Fleming Marsh spent the week-end at his home here.

Miss Eva Howell of Florence, is the guest of Miss Sarah Stevens. Miss Howell has been teaching the Pleasant Lane school which is closed.

Miss Lucile Morris, of Columbia, is visiting her home people.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bland are now keeping house, having rented the dwelling of Mrs. M. E. Norris.

Mrs. B. T. Boatwright, Master Burrell and Mrs. Ida Boatwright spent last week in Charleston enjoying magnolia gardens, which is now in the height of beauty.

Miss Sarah Norris who has been sick for several weeks went over to the Baptist Hospital last week for treatment, and everyone hopes that she will soon return strong and well.

Mrs. O. D. Black went over to St. Mathews on Tuesday to attend the District Conference U. D. C. She is Historian of this district and will take part in the program, conducting the historical session.

Mesdames H. D. Grant, W. E. LaGrone, W. B. Ouzts and E. O. Crouch went to Hartsville the first of the week to attend the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Harmony High School has purchased a handsome new piano for the auditorium.

The Apollo Music club held a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. W. F. Scott on Thursday afternoon, and several of the Italian masters were considered. The papers and life sketches were instructive, and the piano and vocal solos and duets were very sweet.

The hostess made the social period one of many pleasures, and served ices and cake. The rooms were bright and fragrant with dogwood and honeysuckles.

The New Century Club met with Mrs. J. L. Walker on Saturday afternoon, and two hours were quickly and enjoyably spent; first in business, then enjoyment of the program with Tennyson as the subject, and lastly in a social way.

This is the last study period of Tennyson, the remainder to be devoted to Dickens. There were several splendid papers and selected readings. The music was an attractive feature.

The hostess entertained all most hospitably, serving fruit punch from a flower laden table, and lastly a salad course followed by cream and cake in the club parlors.

Little Miss Mary Alice Wright celebrated her fourth birthday on Saturday, and about 25 of her little friends joined with her in making merry the day. After many games and other pastimes all went into the dining room where the birthday table was beautiful in blue and white, the center piece being a large iced cake with four burning candles. This was cut and enjoyed with other sweets.

Death of Mr. W. P. Winn.

During the past six weeks the Rehoboth community and adjoining communities have had four of their oldest citizens, all prominent men, removed by death. The last of the four was Mr. W. P. Winn, who departed this life at his home yesterday at about 11 o'clock. For several years Mr. Winn has been declining physically, but partially regaining his strength at times, his friends did not expect this severance of earthly ties so soon.

Mr. Winn was born, reared and spent his life of three score and seven years in the house in which he breathed his last. His beloved wife preceded him to the spirit land by nearly two years. His body will be tenderly laid to rest today in Rehoboth cemetery beside her. Mr. Winn was descended from a family that has been actively identified with the west-side of our county for several generations, and his activities in the community life will be greatly missed. He and his good wife reared a large family of children, two daughters and eight sons, who were ever thoughtful and attentive throughout the long period of failing health. They spared nothing that would add to his comfort and happiness.

The children who survive Mr. Winn are: Mrs. G. A. Tolbert, W. R. E., W. A., W. L., W. E., T. C., J. E., R. M., E. P. Winn, and Miss Mary Winn. The Advertiser extends sympathy to these sorrowing friends.

TIME FOR Summer Apparel

Now is the time to buy your Voiles, Muslins and other summer apparel, because of the alarming advance of everything under the sun that man or woman can use, and you will be on the safe side by buying now than to wait and pay higher prices, by the reason of merchants having to replentish their stock at an advanced price later on.

We quote a few articles that are at the same price as before, and will last as long as we have them in stock:

Death of Mrs. Charles Byrd.

Sunday afternoon as the shadows were lengthening a good woman of the Berea-Gilgal section departed this life and entered upon her long last sleep.

Mrs. Byrd had been ill for about two months and during that time received the most devoted attentions of loved ones, but nothing could stay the fatal malady. Before her marriage, Mrs. Byrd was Miss Mattie Reynolds. She was born and reared in the community in which she died, having united early in girlhood with Gilgal church. She will be greatly missed in the community life but in the home, to which she was so tenderly devoted, she will be missed most.

The funeral was held at Gilgal church Monday afternoon, Rev. Henry Bell White of Saluda officiating.

Besides her devoted husband, Mrs. Byrd is survived by one daughter, Mrs. James Stom and two sons, W. E. and F. L. Byrd.

A SAFE TEST.

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Edgefield people.

W. B. Paul, painter & paper hanger, Butler St., Edgefield, says: "I was bothered by kidney trouble nearly all my life. It grew worse when I had the measles some years ago. Doan's Kidney Pills removed the pains and strengthened and regulated the action of my kidneys. My health became better than it had been in many years." (Statement given April 12, 1911.)

Over Three Years Later, Mr. Paul said: "I have very little trouble with my kidneys now, but when I am bothered that way, Doan's Kidney Pills never fail to relieve me."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mr. Paul twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn, Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Just received a line of boys' wash suits. They are going at a very reasonable price.

Added a Number Of Years To Her Life.

SAYS SHE SPENT HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS FRUITLESSLY—FUTURE SEEMED DARK.

SAYS SHE BELIEVES SHE HAD ONE FOOT IN THE GRAVE AT ONE TIME.

People both old and young, who suffer with stomach trouble, would do well to read the following highly interesting statement given by Mrs. Mary Gilliam, of 53 Riverside, Anderson, on March 3rd. Mrs. Gilliam is of an advanced age.

"I suffered from an awful case of indigestion," said Mrs. Gilliam, "and I was so weak I could hardly walk and really I should have been in bed. My feet and legs burned all the time, my whole system was weakened and run down and I was very pale. My appetite had left and I never became hungry. My health had been bad for several years.

Hundreds of dollars worth of medicines had been bought for me but none gave me much relief, and steadily became worse and lost weight until I was skin and bones almost and seemed to be starving to death.

"Soon after I started taking Tanlac, my appetite returned and my stomach was strengthened and the indigestion left me. Now I am eating heartily and my food is digested and nourishes me. I gained twenty-five or thirty pounds after I started taking Tanlac. The home-folks laugh at me now because I eat so much. I was just about big enough to make a shadow when I started Tanlac, but now I am at my normal weight.

"Tanlac is the finest restorer and tonic I ever used. It soon got me strong enough to do my household, despite my years, and it is the only medicine I ever took that gave me permanent relief, and I guess it can be truly said that I had one foot in the grave when I began taking it. Tanlac certainly is our stand-by now, and both my husband and myself think the world of it, for I expect it gave me a number of years more of life."
