Wednesday, September 10.

If you can't buy a bale, maybe you can hold a bale.

The world is growing better. Georgia hasn't had a lynching in three days.

Don't rush cotton on the market. That's what the speculators and spinners want.

General Pershing should have a better half to share the honors of the hour with him.

When school starts the days will suddenly grow much longer to the average school boy.

General Pershing has brought back with honor the flag which he carried to Europe.

If a fellow's salary enables him to buy a new fall suit, a pair of shoes and necktie, he's got a good job.

Farmers who grow food stuffs to sell in the towns and cities C. O. D. do not have to worry about the H. C. L.

The United States senate, which is now considering the Peace Treaty, is being weighed by the world. May it not be found wanting!

New York is making 'most as much over Pershing as it did over York. Why not? York killed the most Germans.

Following the ordinance in Mobile prohibiting burials on Sunday, the city council should enact a companion ordinance prohibiting deaths on Saturday.

Knowing that filling Congressman Lever's place would be a man's job, the voters of the seventh district chose Mann for the place Tuesday.

The law of supply and demand seems to be inoperative in its application to teachers. Teachers are few—the demand is greater, and salaries are but little more.

It has been suggested that the U. C. V. and the D. A. R., veterans who fought each other tooth and toe in the sixties, unite. That will be like the lion and the lamb lying down together.

Twenty-five thousand a day should give General Pershing a good time in New York. That's what the metropolis provided for his entertainment.

People Interested in Good Roads.

There is more real interest among the people in highway improvement than we have ever observed before. The heavy and prolonged rains of spring and summer caused roads that had hitherto been good at that season to become almost impassable. This condition in summer was something that the people were unaccustomed to, causing them to realize as never before the need for permanent highway improvement.

Edgefield county can never have satisfactory public roads until the people give the supervisor greater support and co-operation and until sufficient funds are provided by bond issue or otherwise. It is a physical impossibility for the supervisor with a force of fourteen convicts to keep approximately twelve hundred miles of road in passable condition, especially as so small a portion of these roads have been re-located. It is much easier to keep a public road in good condition that has been properly surveyed than it is to keep the old worn-out road bed in good condition.

The people of the Colliers community have taken an advanced step in road building that will be attended with excellent results. Not only will the old Martintown road be greatly improved but the action of these good people, whose names are published in this issue, will stimulate other communities to take similar action. Realizing that it is useless to expect relief from the county, the citizens along this main thoroughfare will put this road in good condition themselves. We commend them in the highest possible terms. It is a splendid example of public spirit that is worthy of emulation.

Farmers Meetings Over the County.

Since the coming of the boll weevil to Edgefield county, County Agricultural Agent, A. B. Carwile, has arranged the following meetings at the different points of the county to acquaint the farmers with the habits of the pest, the damage to expect, and the methods used to grow cotton under weevil conditions and the substitutes offered in the place of cotton. Several of the Clemson men are expected to aid in this campaign, among them being Mr. G. M. Anderson, boll weevil specialist; Mr. D. W. Williams, livestock specialist and Mr. Henry S. Johnston, district demonstration agent. The following places will be visited:

- Monday, September 15. Johnston 11 a. m. and Lott School at 3 p. m.
- Tuesday, September 16. Trenton, 11 a. m. and Harmony School at 3 p. m.
- Wednesday, September 17. Meeting Street, Cogburn's Store, 11 a. m. and Pleasant Lane, Timmerman's Store at 4 p. m.
- Thursday, September 18. Limestone School, 11 a. m. and Cleora School at 4 p. m.
- Friday, September 19. Antioch School, 11 a. m. and Colliers School at 4 p. m.
- Saturday, September 20. Meriwether Agricultural Club, called at 12:30 p. m.

All farmers and business men of communities are urged to be present to get the latest dope for fighting this enemy of the cotton wealth. The landowners are urged also to encourage the tenant to attend. Mr. White Man bring the Negro along with you.

Citizens Will Improve Martintown Road to Augusta.

There will be a meeting held at Colliers school house Wednesday, September 17th inst. at 3 p. m. for the purpose of considering ways and means of working the Martintown road to North Augusta, S. C., and replace the bridge across Mill Creek. All persons who are interested in improving the conditions of the Martintown road are requested to attend this meeting.

For the convenience of those who will not be able to attend the meeting and wish to contribute, can do so at the stores of J. O. Scott, Sam Corley, D. T. Mathis, L. R. Hammond, W. P. Cosey, F. M. Cosey, R. E. Cheatham, Joe Thurmond and George Medlock.
