

Office No 61
Residence, No. 17

Wednesday, December 10.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Lucy Dugas arrived in Edgefield on Tuesday for a visit.

Capt. George Norris of Columbia paid Edgefield a visit this week.

Mr. B. M. Lee and little daughter spent the week-end with his brother Dr. R. G. Lee.

Mrs. Osmond Williams is visiting her mother Mrs. Maggie Hill, having been in the Hospital for some time in Columbia.

Seal your Christmas packages with Red Cross Seals.

Dr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Smith and little Miss Dorris are now visiting Mrs. Lemie Talbert.

Mr. W. Jasper Talbert spent this week-end with his mother Mrs. Lemie Talbert.

Miss Mary Poppenheim of Charleston, Ex-President General of the Southern Daughters of the Confederacy visited Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman this week.

Mr. Orlando Sheppard and Mr. J. L. Mims are attending a meeting of the board of visitors of the Citadel in Charleston to-day.

Dr. R. G. Lee has arranged a welcome service for the Episcopal rector and the new Methodist pastor. The public is cordially invited.

We beg the indulgence of our readers for the delay and other shortcomings of this issue, as our linotype machine has balked worse than a Texas broncho this week.

Help is a good cause by buying Red Cross Christmas Seals.

Mr. Charlie Brooks, Mr. E. H. Crews and Misses June Rainsford and Helen Nicholson motored to Laurens Friday afternoon and remained until Sunday afternoon.

Mr. J. L. Mims will erect two six-room bungalows on the lots between the homes of Mr. R. T. Hill and Mr. J. L. Addison, facing the east. Orders have already been placed for much of the material.

Material is being placed on the ground for the new hotel. The contractors state that they have placed orders for practically every part of the building so as to forestall delay in shipment.

Every Red Cross Christmas Seal bought helps to stamp out consumption.

Mr. Orlando Sheppard went to Charleston Sunday to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge. Mr. J. G. Holland expected to attend to represent Concordia Lodge but was prevented from doing so. Grove lodge is represented by Mr. F. P. Walker and Red Hill lodge by Mr. J. E. Johnson.

Mr. A. A. Edmunds has moved into his town mansion and is taking transient and regular boarders, having seven of the latter at this writing. He will soon add eight rooms to his property which will enable him to further provide for those who are seeking bed and board. Mr. Edmunds' large boarding house is filling a great need in Edgefield at this time.

Urge your friends to buy Red Cross Christmas Seals.

A Surprise Marriage.

An Edgefield marriage that was altogether a surprise to everybody except a few intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom, took place here Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. At that hour Dr. R. G. Lee, pastor of the Baptist church, united Miss Eloise Hart, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hart, and J. S. Scurry, in the bonds of wedlock at the parsonage. They were motored at once by friends to Aiken where they boarded the train for Charleston. Miss Hart was a high school pupil and attended school as usual in the forenoon which caused many of her most intimate friends to be unsuspecting of her plans. Both Mr. and Mrs. Scurry are very popular in Edgefield, and they have a host of friends who wish them all possible joy and happiness.

We carry a large and complete stock of men's fine suits. Come and pick your fall suit and save $10.

Death of Mr. George West.

On Sunday night Nov. 23, Mr. George West died at the home of his son Mr. Brooker West near Cleora, after an illness of several months. He was buried at Rehoboth church of which he was a member on Monday, his pastor Rev. J. W. Kesterson, officiating. Mr. West left the following sons; P. B. West, Gillam, K. T., and one daughter, Mrs. J. B. Gilchrist.

D. A. R. Meeting.

The members of Old Ninety Six District Chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. J. D. Holstein, Tuesday afternoon, December 16th, at 3:30 o'clock. In view of the change made by last Continental Congress requiring dues in January, payment is necessary in December, in order to reach Washington on the required date. Therefore all members are requested to go prepared to pay both national and state dues. Those unable to attend will please mail check to cover same to Mrs. James R. Cantelou, treasurer, in order that she may send dues to respective headquarters on second of January, 1920.

SARAH R. COLLETT,
Regent.

Methodist Church Announcements.

Rev. G. W. Taylor, the new Pastor of the Edgefield Methodist Church has arrived and with his family occupies the Parsonage on Main Street. Mr. Taylor was recently transferred from the Virginia Conference to fill the Edgefield appointment which was left vacant at the last session of the Upper South Carolina Conference. For the past fifteen years Mr. Taylor has filled appointments in the cities of Richmond, Norfolk and Newport News, Virginia. He served in the late war as Chaplain and was the Chaplain of the 111th F. A. the entire time of service. He spent eleven months in France with the regiment.

Mr. Taylor will preach each Sunday morning and evening at Edgefield with the exception of the first Sunday morning and the third Sunday evening at which time he will preach at the Trenton Methodist Church.

He will preach next Sunday at Edgefield 11:30 a. m., and 7:15 p. m. It is expected that a large congregation will greet the new Pastor at both services.

Great Lyceum Attraction.

The Smith-Spring-Holmes Orchestral Quartet is one of the finest companies on the Lyceum platform today. This is a very diversified program and if you are not especially fond of one class of music you have just to be patient a little while and you will come into your own.

Almost all of us are like our honored townsman Mr. A. S. Tompkins who declares himself opposed to a whole meal with nothing to eat but butter. This program will be full and varied, a regular Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner with turkey and cranberries and all, fruit cake and charlotte-russe, mints and coffee. Do not let anything keep you away from this feast. Remember that the Civic League is trying to give good wholesome pleasure to our people, and they need your co-operation. Co-operation is the biggest word of the hour, and we can't get along without your co-operation. Remember the Date, Monday, December 15th.

Card of Thanks.

We take this means of expressing our thanks to our friends and neighbors for their kindness to us during the illness of our father.

R. T. West,
J. G. West,
P. B. West,
Mrs. J. B. Gilchrist.

Trespass Notice.

I hereby give notice that I positively forbid hunting, fishing and all other form of trespassing upon all lands I control. All who fail to heed this notice will be prosecuted under the law, without exception.

JOHN P. MEALING.

Trespass Notice.

All persons are hereby warned not to hunt or trespass in anyway on lands owned or controlled by me. This means that you are asked off and gentlemen will do it.

G. T. Swearingen.

Wade Barrington Lott Honored

A bronze tablet was unveiled at the First Baptist Church of Americus Ga., on Nov. 10, to the memory of two young men who had died in the service of their country. One of these brave boys was Wade Barrington Lott who died while in active service at Parris Island. The tablet is a handsome work of art, 18 by 24 inches. The services were conducted by Dr. Chas. W. Minor. This noble boy was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Lott who formerly lived at Johnston and was a nephew of Mrs. W. B. Cogburn of Edgefield.

News From Cleora

The long looked for rain has come at last and according to the "Dutch Prophet" we will want to stop it before it does. We were afraid to wait for rain to sow grain for fear that when it began it would rain half of the winter. We scratched it in among the clods and it couldn't come up until it rained so guess it will come now. A pretty good acreage was put in but owing to the dry weather it will all be late.

Mr. George West died Nov. 23rd at his son's residence, Mr. Brookes West, where he had made his home for the last year. He had been ill for about six months. He was 69 years of age.

Our school opened on Nov. 15th with Miss Belle McLaughlin as principal and Mrs. Laura Cain assistant with about 45 scholars. They will have a lunch party Friday night, the 19th of December, to raise money for some improvements in the school and to buy some school furniture.

Messrs. Quarles and Body are doing a good business selling and trading stock at Mr. Louis Quarles place.

Mrs. Susan B. Hill was up last Monday looking after her farming interests.

Messrs. Brooks West and Hubbard Williams have rented Mr. W. T. Reel's store and farm and will move about the 1st of Jan. Mr. Reel and family will move to Edgefield.

Mr. P. B. Thomas will move to Edgefield the first of January and Mr. George Strom will move to his place.

Mr. John Shirley and brother have bought Mr. C. M. Thomas's place and will take charge the first of the year.

L. R. Brunson, Jr., has started his saw mill again, sawing for Mr. Shive.

The Griffis brothers have bought a mill and engine and are sawing Mr. John Griffis' timber on Crooked Run with 2 saws mills in hearing. You can't buy any lumber. The price is out of sight.

We have ONE good road now from here to Edgefield for the first time in four years. The road has been relocated most of the way and has been taken out of the deep cuts where it can drain and dry out, which makes it better than it has ever been.

Mr. Prescott Morgan has rented and moved to Mr. John DeLaughter's place near Red Hill.
