RUBENSTEIN'S DEPARTMENT STORE

History Edgefield County Red Cross.

The American Red Cross, wishing to preserve accurate records of the work done by this organization during the war, recently requested each chapter to write a brief history of its activities.

The original copy is to be kept on file at the national headquarters in Washington; one copy at Division Headquarters and one copy kept on the chapter files.

The history was to be prepared in accordance with this outline sent from headquarters:

- I. History of Chapter.
- II. Work done.
- III. Personnel.
- IV. Standing officers in the community.

The following letter was received by Miss Clisby in response to the reception of the history which she compiled as secretary.

My dear Miss Clisby:

The Division Manager of the Southern Division has forwarded to this Bureau your chapter history. This document has been placed in the archives of the American Red Cross, and forms a permanent record of the achievements of your chapter during the war period. May I not take this occasion to sincerely thank you and your co-workers for your co-operation in preparing this document?

Your chapter history, along with the thousands of others, forms a very valuable addition to the war records of the Red Cross. I am sure that these histories will reflect very intimately the splendid spirit of self-sacrifice and patriotic devotion which has characterized the chapters of the American Red Cross.

Sincerely yours,
COLVIN HERLE,

Director Bureau Archives, A. R. C.

Through the initiative and earnest work of Miss Sarah Collett, the Edgefield Chapter, A. R. C., was organized in the County Court House on Friday, December 7, 1917, with Dr. Josiah Morse, State Director of Red Cross Work, to direct the proceedings. Seventy-five members were enrolled at this meeting. From December 7, 1917 to May 1, 1919, approximately twelve hundred members have been enrolled. As two chapters were permitted in this county, the territory assigned Edgefield in which to organize branches and auxiliaries embraces about three hundred and fifty square miles.

The final report of the Extension Committee in May 1918, showed that a branch had been established in Trenton and auxiliaries in the following communities: Stevens Creek, Cleora, Roper's Cross Roads, Colliers, Flat Rock, Antioch, Red Hill, Pleasant Lane, Sweetwater, and Horn's Creek. Two auxiliaries were organized among the negroes: The "Good Samaritan" in town and Science Hill in the country.

Immediately after the chapter was organized, Ex-Governor John C. Sheppard generously gave five rooms on the second floor of an office building owned by him to be used rent free as long as needed. These rooms were fitted up by the chapter and are still in use.

Personnel—1917-1918

I. Chairman of Chapter and of Executive Committee, December 7, 1917 to December 20, 1918—Rev. R. G. Shannonhouse, Episcopal Rector.

II. Vice-Chairman, Founder of the Chapter—Miss Sarah Collett, December 7, 1917 to December 20, 1918.

III. Treasurer—Mrs. R. C. Padgett, December 7, 1917 to April 6, 1918.

IV. Treasurer—Mr. Ernest E. Padgett, April 6 1918—

V. Secretary—Miss Hortense Pad-

ROYSER'S FERTILIZERS

"Have stood the test" of time, because they have always first stood the test of our expert chemists. 3 great laboratories test all material entering Royster brands so that nothing harmful to crops can pass. Then the practical experience of 35 years, the vigorous and progressive methods, and splendid manufacturing facilities are additional reasons why Roysters Fertilizers "have stood the test."
