LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Lillie Cogburn and her three sons of Greenwood are here visiting relatives.

Mr. Eugene Corley left Monday for Florida and later he will go to Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Charles of McCormick were among the visitors in Edgefield Monday.

Rev. Mahlon Padgett is here visiting his son and daughter, Mr. E. E. Padgett and Miss Pearl Padgett.

Mr. Prenton Lanham is in Atlanta taking a course in Pharmacy in the Southern College of Pharmacy.

Mrs. Ida Boatwright and her son, Mr. Frank Boatwright of Ridge Spring are visiting Mrs. Emma N. Dobson today.

Miss Marie Abney announces the arrival of the new books that were ordered for the library some time ago. They will be opened tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dobson and their children came up from Beech Island and spent Sunday with Mrs. Emma N. Dobson.

Judging from the large number of "cattle" mortgage foreclosure notices that are posted, in a short time much personal property will be offered for sale.

Mr. E. V. Young, supervising engineer of the J. B. McCreary Co., of Atlanta, spent Sunday in Edgefield with Mrs. Emma Marsh. Mrs. Young will visit her mother later.

Mr. Louis Tucker has sold his mercantile business in McCormick and will serve Mr. Israel Mukashy as salesman until the first of January. Mrs. Tucker is visiting relatives in New York.

The next Union Meeting of the first division of the Edgefield Baptist Association will be held at Mt. Zion church October 29 and 30. The programme will be published next week.

Misses Evelyn and Lenal Wynne, sisters of Mr. Jake Wynne and nieces of Mrs. J. Rubenstein, arrived Saturday from New York, having only a short time ago reached New York from Poland.

Instead of the usual preaching service at the Baptist church Sunday morning a meeting of the laymen will be held to round up the tithing campaign. A full attendance is urged.

FOR SALE: Spread-On cement for painting gutters and metal roofs, guaranteed for ten years. An opportunity to get a first-class roof paint at a low price. Apply at The Advertiser Office.

County Treasurer J. L. Prince opened his books last Saturday but has not yet been rushed. Those who paid their taxes the first day were Mr. J. M. Mays, Mr. W. S. G. Heath, Mr. T. J. Paul, Mr. J. A. Townsend, Mr. B. M. Sullivan, Mr. W. S. Pearson and Mr. A. J. Holstein.

Mr. W. G. Byrd, the public cotton weigher at Edgefield, told The Advertiser's representative yesterday that up to this time this season he has weighed 650 bales of cotton, while last season for the same time he had weighed 2,300 bales. This gives some idea of the curtailed yield.

The heaviest damage done thus far of which we have heard was to the cotton of Mr. L. R. Brunson. From a three horse farm of about twenty-three acres he will pick only one light bale. Cotton can not be grown with such a yield as that.

FOR RENT: Six-room residence, large front and rear halls, pantry and bathroom, hot and cold water. All windows and doors screened, large lot with necessary outbuildings. Possession given November 1. Apply to J. L. MIMS.

The Corner Store announces some additional bargains in a full page advertisement in this issue. Furthermore, three prizes will be awarded to the three persons who draw the successful numbers. Read what Mr. Turner says in his large advertisement this week. Every word should be of interest to our readers this week, especially at a time when cash should be made to count for most.

Mr. J. R. Timmerman who recently had the misfortune to have two of his toes crushed off by his horse stepping on them, is steadily improving.

Rev. and Mrs. P. P. Blalock attended the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod in Greenville last week. They motored to Gray Court where their daughter, Mrs. L. J. Blakeley, resided and went from there on the train. They returned to Edgefield Friday after a very pleasant and profitable sojourn in the Piedmont section.

Miss Lena Long, a daughter of Prof. and Mrs. G. F. Long, who is a student at Columbia college, has been elected editor in chief of the college magazine. She was also nominated for the presidency of her class but was not eligible for both positions. This is a very distinct honor. The Advertiser is always pleased to chronicle the successes of Edgefield young ladies and young gentlemen.

Mr. Egbert Morgan who has been filling a position in a large store in Hartsville since he graduated in pharmacy has accepted a position as pharmacist with Mr. J. D. Holstein. Mr. Morgan made a good record at college and had had considerable practical experience as a pharmacist. He has been very cordially greeted by his friends since he returned to Edgefield.

Married in Greenville.

Friends went to the depot Monday afternoon to the down passenger train to see a newly married couple passing through. The newly-weds, were Miss Elizabeth Wright of Newberry and Mr. Coy Etheridge of Trenton, who were married in Greenville Sunday night and were on the way to their home in Trenton.—Newberry Herald and News.

NOTICE.

All Veterans of the Confederate War are hereby notified to meet at Edgefield, S. C., on Saturday, October 29th, 1921, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing a County Board of Honor relative to Pensions. This Board is to serve two years and all Veterans are urged to be present.

W. T. KINNIARD,
Clerk.

Teachers Applying for Certificates, October 7th and 8th.

Misses Dessie Stevens, Annie Sue Broadwater, Sarah Lyon, Janie Minick, Frances DeVore, Marie Moultrie, Savannah Morgan, Emmie Lou Edmunds, Lilla Mae Padgett, Nell Scott, Georgia Coleman, Ellen Bledsoe, Evelyn Scott, Martha Harrison, Marie Padgett, Leola Moyer, Rosella Duncan, Thelma Hite and Mrs. Maggie Burnett, Mrs. B. J. Day, Jr., and Mr. Homer Walker.

Large Still Destroyed.

Tuesday of last week, Mr. T. J. M. Scott, Mr. J. P. Mealing and Mr. George B. Mealing destroyed a large still on the plantation of Mrs. Simpson below Ropers. Besides seizing the still, nearly 1,000 gallons of mash was destroyed. There was no one at the distillery at the time the officers arrived. Mrs. Simpson now makes her home in Greenville and, of course, this aged lady had no knowledge that the law was thus being violated on her plantation, the still being but a few hundred yards from the church which Mrs. Simpson was instrumental in erecting some years ago. Surely some violators of the law are bold and conscienceless.

Wilson-Cantelou.

Greenwood, Oct. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Lide Wilson of Greenwood announce the engagement of their daughter, Annie Sue, to Walter Hill Cantelou of Edgefield, the wedding to take place in November.

The approaching marriage of these two young people has aroused the keenest interest of the Edgefield people. Mr. Cantelou, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cantelou, is a young man of sterling qualities and is deservedly popular in Edgefield, while Miss Wilson who is also regarded as a very superior young woman, is greatly beloved here, having made many friends in Edgefield during the time she taught here. Both of these young people are to be sincerely congratulated upon their good fortune.

Sermon to Butler Council.

Sunday morning Rev. G. W. M. Taylor preached a very earnest and inspiring sermon to the members of Butler Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics. There were about thirty-five members present and the closest attention was given throughout the discourse to their fellow member who spoke from the pulpit. After welcoming this body of men to his church in a very cordial manner, Mr. Taylor announced that his text would be found in Matt. 16:18: "Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my church." Peter means "rock" but there is no connection between the name of this disciple and the great foundation upon which Christ established his church. Mr. Taylor stated that it is folly for any sect to claim that Peter holds the keys to heaven and that no one can gain admission except as he shall open the door. He said there is nothing in scripture to assure us that God's Kingdom is founded upon any human agent.

Christ and his disciples were alone at the time this incident occurred and He asked some very searching questions. After asking what men in general thought of him, Christ put this direct and very searching question to His disciples, "But whom say ye that I am," and Peter answered, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." Mr. Taylor said we find in this answer that which will enable one to make good in the moral and spiritual world, and if he does not make good in that he will fail in all else. When any other standard is accepted pitfalls and downfalls inevitably come in the life of every man. Men who are building only on material foundations will fail utterly. It matters not what may be one's intellectual endowments, if wanting in spiritual life, he will come to naught. Mr. Taylor emphasized the fact that a mere ritual will not sustain a fraternal order, but that which has been inspired in the hearts of its members will give our country the highest type of citizenship.

Mr. Taylor emphasized the greatness of Peter. Made great by his implicit faith as indicated by his reply, "the Son of the living God." He said marvelous influence, happiness and power accompanies such a confession. A willingness to confess Christ and make a clean breast will make any man great. He said that it is altogether essential that we have faith in Christ and build our lives upon His teachings. When we once possess Him it is the greatest possession that can be gained.

Mr. Taylor's excellent sermon was very effectively delivered and those whose good fortune it was to be present were inspired by it to live upon a higher, nobler plane.

U. D. C. Meets With Mrs. P. P. Blalock, Jr.

The October meeting of the U. D. C., with Mrs. P. P. Blalock, Jr., was a very enjoyable one. Mrs. J. W. Wright, president, was in the chair. The business session dispensed with a number of items, after which came the election of officers. The president, Mrs. Wright, vice-president, Mrs. Bettsi Cantelou, corresponding secretary, Miss Sophie Mims, recording secretary, Miss Sophia Dobson, treasurer, Mrs. R. A. Marsh and recorder of crosses, Mrs. S. B. Nicholson, were unanimously re-elected, their efficiency and loyalty as officers being voiced in the moves made for their election by acclamation.

Two new officers, Mrs. J. H. Cantelou, assistant historian, and Mrs. P. P. Blalock, Jr., registrar, add greatly to the splendid roster.

In recognition of the loyal service to the chapter rendered by Mrs. A. A. Woodson, whom the daughters have made historian for life, it was unanimously carried to pay all the historian's dues hereafter out of chapter funds. Great appreciation of Mrs. Woodson's untiring efforts for the cause she loves so well, through the chapter she long has faithfully mothered, was expressed by the members.

Mrs. Wright called a meeting of the officers and several other members to be held at Mrs. A. E. Padgett's Thursday of next week.

Committees are to be named who are to aid the president in her enthusiastic plans to make the winter's work valuable. A special program committee, to work with the assistant historiann, Mrs. J. H. Cantelou, will insure good historical work.

Delegates to the State Convention in Batesburg were elected as follows: Mrs. B. B. Jones, Mrs. A. E. Padgett; alternates, Mrs. Helen Nicholson, Mrs. R. A. Marsh and Mrs. P. M. Feltham.

After the business session was completed Mrs. P. M. Feltham read the splendid paper which had been prepared by Mr. Francis B. Simkins, and is one of the most valuable historical papers ever possessed by the chapter, replete with true data, gleaned by this brilliant young scholar of whom Edgefield is justly proud. It was decided to publish this article in both the county papers, giving to our people at large, an opportunity to enjoy the masterly discourse.

Mrs. A. R. Nicholson assisted with the serving of a chicken salad course, which concluded the most profitable and enjoyable meeting.

Fall Court of General Sessions.

The fall term court of general sessions convened Monday, with Judge Sease presiding. Solicitor Cailson and the other court officials were at their respective posts. After a brief charge by Judge Sease in which he stressed the importance of enforcing the laws of our county, the solicitor handed out a number of indictments to the grand jury. After investigation true bills were found in the following cases:

Lizzie Butler and Ulysses Butler, obtaining goods by false pretenses; Samuel Williams, murder; Ed East, violating the prohibition law; Yancy Scurry, James Turner, Jr., and Mallic Peterson, assault and battery with intent to kill; Ernest Settles and Eddie Lomax, assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapon; Dred Gray, obtaining goods by false pretense; G. A. Hutto, violating the prohibition law; George J. Smith, obtaining goods under false pretense and breach of trust with fraudulent intent.

The first case called for trial was that against Alfonso Strother for killing another negro at Pleasant Grove church. He was acquitted. The defendant was represented by Mr. J. Wm. Thurmond and the State by the solicitor.

Tuesday, Dred Gray was convicted under the charge of obtaining goods by false pretense and was sentenced to 4 months on the chain gang. He was represented by Mr. C. T. Burnett.

Quiny Moseley was acquitted under indictment for murder, having killed another negro at Pleasant Grove church. He was represented by Mr. J. Wm. Thurmond and the State by the solicitor.

Sixty-Two Per Cent of S. C. Population is Attending School.

Sixty-two and eight tenths of the population of South Carolina of school ages attend school, according to census figures received in Columbia from Washington. Sixty-two per cent of the white population of the state of school ages, 5 to 20, and 60 per cent of the negro population between 5 and 20 are in school. There are 423,740 children in the schools of the state, according to the census. There are more girls in schools than boys, by a very small margin, and a larger percentage of the urban population of school ages attend school than of the rural population.—Columbia Record.

A Lesson in Thrift.

Along about 1950 or 1960, when Chauncey M. Depew decides to retire from the directorate of the New York Central railroad and pass his declining years in rest and quiet at Briarcliff Manor, he will have a nice little nest egg laid aside for his old age. He told a reporter about it the other day.

"The first $100 I ever earned," he said "was deposited in the Peeskill Savings Bank at interest. That was more than sixty years ago, the year before the Civil War started. It has been there ever since because I never had the heart to draw it out, although sometimes I needed it badly. I always thought something might happen."

"Then I forgot all about it," the former senator continued. "The other day I was in Peeskill and dropped in at the bank. I asked them if I had any money there and an official told me that my old account of $100 was still on the books and had multiplied to $800. He said it was their 'star account' because of its venerableness."

Mr. Depew added that he had another account of $87.50 which he deposited in the Westchester County Bank fifty years ago. It is still there and still $87.50. He is going to leave both accounts where they are, he said.—N. Y. Herald.
