

Office No 61
Residence, No. 17

Wednesday, December 13.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. J. Maner Lawton have gone to Charlotte and will later go to Rockingham, N. C., to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Fuller who have been making their home in Honea Path have returned to Edgefield to reside.

Miss Mamie Frances Self of Plum Branch has been spending the past week with her sister, Mrs. John R. Griffis of the Cleora section.

Rev. G. W. M. Taylor will preach at Edgefield Methodist church Sunday morning at 11:30, and at Trenton Sunday night at 7 o'clock.

Mr. J. H. P. Roper of North Augusta was a visitor in Edgefield Monday and was very cordially greeted by his old friends.

Mrs. Agatha A. Woodson attended the U. D. C. convention in Greenwood last week as the representative of the Edgefield chapter.

J. D. Kemp & Company announce this week that they are ready for the holiday shoppers with a full stock of good things to eat.

Messrs. J. Wm. Thurmond, P. B. Mayson, E. H. Folk and S. McG. Simkins attended the funeral of Judge F. B. Gary in Abbeville Saturday.

An attractive list of suitable Christmas gifts is given in the advertisement of Charles F. Bird and Company this week. Read this attractive list.

The school children are almost counting the minutes until the close of school exercises next Tuesday, when their Christmas vacation will begin.

So far everything points to a Christmas of unusual sobriety in and around Edgefield. In fact, but little whiskey has been in evidence in some time.

Mr. Israel Mukashy gives a list of appropriate gifts for men and women this week. Every department of his large stock has many things that are suitable for Christmas tokens.

Be a part of the music on Christmas night when all the singers in town will join in Christmas carols. Go to the home of Mrs. B. B. Jones Friday evening and prepare.

The Corner Store announces this week that beginning Saturday, December 16, it will conduct a great bargain sale which will be a real money saving opportunity. Visit this popular store for bargains.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Holland of Greenwood visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam Agner of the Flat Rock section last week and left their little girl, Ruth, with them to remain through the holidays.

Mitchell & Cantelou call attention to their attractive holiday assortment of stationery, perfumery, confectionery and many other things that should appeal to the holiday shoppers. Read what they say.

The Huggins Store at the depot should be of especial interest to the housewives who are looking for all of the season's good things for the holiday festivities. See the list of good things this week.

The resignation of Mr. L. T. May as clerk of the board of county commissioners will create a vacancy which the board will probably fill at its first meeting in the new year, as the services of a clerk are needed at every meeting.

We see by the papers that an Alendale farmer goes Mr. W. L. Dunovant one better in the matter of growing large sweet potatoes. He reports one weighing 16 pounds and in the hill from which this potato was taken was a total weight of potatoes of 29 pounds, practically a half-bushel from one vine.

It is hardly believable in this year of business depression, yet true, that the Yonce Motor Company has sold during 1922 about 150 automobiles and trucks. This is positive proof that there has been a marked improvement in business over last year. Mr. Yonce can now fill your order for any style car.

Edwin Rives and Miss May Rives went to Columbia to spend Thanksgiving with relatives and contracted influenza and were unable to return to Edgefield until last Sunday.

The Edgefield chapter, D. A. R., will meet Tuesday afternoon, December 19, at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. A. Woodson. All members are urged to attend and pay their dues.

Mrs. Grover Fowler and children, who have been guests of Mrs. Julian Webb for the past week, have returned to their home in Edgefield. Mr. Fowler came up Sunday to accompany them home.—Greenwood Index-Journal.

Mr. J. E. Ingram who has accepted a position with Mr. M. W. Shive has moved his family to Edgefield. They are occupying the Mims residence on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Ingram will make valuable additions to our citizenship.

Mr. Rubenstein makes a full page announcement of his Clean Sweep Sale which will begin Friday, December 15. Read the long list of bargains, each item meaning a great saving to the holiday shoppers. Mr. Rubenstein will make good every statement in his advertisement.

The game of basketball played Friday afternoon between the Edgefield girls and the team from the Bamberg high school was very fine. It was quick and snappy from start to finish, the score being 21 to 20 in favor of the visiting team. We are very proud of the way our girls played.

Mr. H. G. Eidson, the Ford dealer of Johnston, has a large and attractive advertisement this week in which he states that he has just received a shipment of cars and trucks and can make immediate delivery. Commencing Saturday, December 16, he will give FREE an article with every purchase of $5 or $10. Read what Mr. Eidson says in his advertisement in this issue.

Not a Christmas package should be sent out in person or through the mail without a Christmas seal being placed upon it. Help by your mite to swell the fund for stamping out tuberculosis. Mrs. P. M. Feltham has charge of the sale of Christmas seals in Edgefield, Mrs. J. H. White has charge in Johnston, and Mrs. J. D. Mathis in Trenton. Let Edgefield county do her full part.

Enters Upon Duties Thursday.
Mr. L. T. May will formally enter upon his duties tomorrow as clerk of court. He has received his commission from Governor Harvey and his bond has been approved. The Advertiser predicts that this newly installed member of the county's official family will make creditable and highly satisfactory record as a public servant. Mr. May will retain Mr. P. L. Cogburn as deputy clerk which will be altogether pleasing to the friends of both the outgoing and incoming clerk.

Resolutions by Baraca Class on Death of Wallace Prescott
Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst our brother, Wallace Prescott, who departed this life in Greenwood on the 20th day of November, 1922, Resolved
1. That while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, we realize that in the death of our brother we have lost a good and true member, the wife a devoted husband, and the little daughter a fond and loving father.
2. That this class extend to the bereaved family our heart-felt condolence and sympathy in this hour of sorrow, and ask the Divine blessings upon them from Him who alone can console their broken hearts.
3. That as a mark of respect and esteem a memorial page be set apart and that they be published in the two county papers, and a copy be forwarded to the family of our deceased brother.

J. S. BYRD,
E. C. ASBELL,
T. A. HIGHTOWER,
Committee for Baraca Class.

Put a new Ford in the family stocking Christmas morning and make a real merry Christmas for the entire family.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Edgefield Citizens Show a Way.

There can be no reason why any reader of this wh. suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorder, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what an Edgefield citizen says:

Mrs. R. C. Miller, Columbia, St., says: "I complained a great deal with my back and there was a dull, steady misery across my kidneys. My kidneys did not act properly and were a source of annoyance. I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and they benefited me from the first. Continued use of Doan's cured me of the trouble and I have had no return. I never hesitate to recommend Doan's"

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Miller had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
