

menting, but few of us like experiments to be tried on us. In saving one man's land from being sold, you may cause the property of many others to be sacrificed. This law operates with peculiar hardship upon merchants. They necessarily have to run considerable risk in crediting so many; and their best customers in most cases, do not own over five hundred dollars worth of land. They are, therefore, compelled to refuse them credit or to risk their living, and trust entirely to the honor of individuals. If a debtor forgets that he has got a single ten in an account, he may consider the merchant dishonest, and refuse to pay any part, or he may make a thing of the kind the pretext for not paying. After he has given you his note, as many an honest man does, expecting that he will pay it—and when you and your city creditor get tired of waiting, and you see him, he gets angry, and thinks you have treated him so badly, that he won't pay it at all. Such would be some of the fruits of this much lauded Homestead Law, please to look at, but bitter to the taste. The will not be so seriously felt at first because fear of suffering by losing his credit, will, to some extent, make him pay up. But let him begin to feel, that whether he pays his debts or not, that he can keep five hundred dollars worth of land, and sooner or late, unless he is almost an exception he will claim his privileges, and cease to pay his debts. Some political reasons have been urged in favor of the law—that it would attach men to the State, and prevent emigration; but in reply, it may be answered, that honest men will pay their debts, even if they have to sell the land themselves, and will still move away; and as to dishonest ones, the State will lose but little in parting with them. Upon the whole, it seems to be hazardous experiment, and the people of South Carolina, with one voice, should demand its repeal.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAILS.

The Hon. J. A. WOODWARD, we learn by a letter in the Winnboro Herald, will decline a re-election to Congress from this Congressional District.

Camden.

The cotton market remains unchanged since our last, and we continue the quotations Friday—5 to 7 1-2.

Charleston quotation, 6 1-2 to 8 3-8.

Columbia, March 26

Cotton—Our Cotton market still continues dull and unsettled, and it is difficult to give quotations that will be a true criterion of the present value of the article. 50 bales were sold to-day at 6 1-2 to 7 1-2 cents.

COTTONS.—The transaction yesterday reached upwards of 1480 bales. The market continues in a very unsettled state, with prices decidedly in favor of buyers. The decline from the highest point of the previous week is about 1-3 1-4 c.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MONUMENT TO THE DEAD IN MEXICO!!

The Citizens of Lancaster District are informed that the undersigned have been appointed a committee to obtain subscriptions in this District for the purpose above specified.

Feeling that to urge word in behalf of such an object, would be offering an insult alike to the gratitude and patriotism of the our District, we simply state that the names of all who died, during the Mexican Campaign will be inscribed upon this monument. We beg that those disposed of contribute will hand in the amounts immediately to either of the undersigned.

DOUBLE NUMBERS FOR 1852.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE FOR 1852!

THE MAGAZINE OF THE UNION!
The New Volume of this unrivaled and popular Monthly commenced with the January number—the handsome number ever published.

The well established character of Graham's Magazine, as the leading American Monthly, renders it unnecessary to set forth its merits in each recurring Prospectus. It has won its way, after years of success, to the front rank among its rivals, and is now universally conceded to be

THE BEST AMERICAN MAGAZINE.

DOUBLE NUMBERS FOR 1852.

The reading matter of Graham's Magazine for this year will be about double that of former volumes, making a book unrivaled by any that has ever appeared in America or Europe. The very best American writers will continue to contribute to its pages, and the wide range of literature of the old world will also be brought to aid the worth and variety of the letter-press contents of the work.

G. P. R. JAMES.

SPLENDID AND COSTLY ENGRAVINGS.

In the department of Art Graham's Magazine has always been celebrated. The excellence and beauty of its pictorial appointments for art, as the usual adornments of the Monthly Magazines, are very finest, and most expensive efforts of the first artists of Europe and America trace the work. Every variety of subject and of style is found in perfection in "Graham's" No indifferent or interior designs mar its beauty but all that taste can suggest or capital command in the way of elegance is to be had in the yearly volumes of this Magazine.

We ask our readers to take the twelve numbers of last year and compare them with the same number of any current periodical, to test the vast superiority of Graham's Magazine in this respect.

The new volume opens in a style of elegance that must convince our friends that "EXCELSIOR" is our motto for 1852, and that "GRAHAM" will continue to be THE FAVORITE OF THE PUBLIC, both in its pictorial and literary character while the extraordinary increase of the amount of reading matter will insure it a still wider SINGULAR Copies 3 dollars Two copies, $5; Five copies, 10; dollars Eight copies, $15; dollars Ten copies, 20, dollars and an extra copy to the person sending the club of ten subscribers.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK!

Literary and Pictorial.
The Book of the Nation and Arts Union of America.

THE LADY'S BOOK is now in the twenty-second year of its publication by the same publisher—a fact unprecedented in the history of any American Magazine. Nothing but real worth in a publication could be the cause of so prolonged an existence, especially in the literary world, where everything is so evanescent. Hundreds of Magazines have been started, and after a short life, have departed—while the "Lady's Book" alone stands triumphant, a proud monument reared by the Ladies of America as a testimony of their own worth.

Many persons, who seek no further than our title, presume that the "Lady's Book," is intended merely for the amusement of a class, and that it does not enter into the discussion of those more important questions connected with the realities and duties of life which every well-informed woman, mother and daughter, should be acquainted with. But such is not the fact. It is now, as it has ever been, our constant care to combine, in the page of the "Lady's Book," whatever is useful, dignified, and virtuous in sentiment, with whatever may afford rational and innocent amusement.

GODEY'S SPLENDID ENGRAVINGS ON STEEL.

It is the fashion with many Magazines to announce in their advertisements, "Splendid Engraving, Plates" &c. what is the disappointment of the duped subscriber when he receives the numbers of a Magazine thus advertised, to find all his splendid engravings dwindled down to paltry wood cuts—as contemptible in design as in execution!

The publisher of the "Lady's Book" performs all he promises, and, as some of our exchanges are kind enough to say, "more than he promises." Each number of the "Lady's Book" contains at least three engravings from steel plates, engraved by the best artists, either in Line, Stipple, or Mezzotint, and sometimes Four.

GODEY'S RELIABLE FASHION PLATES.

are published monthly, and are considered the only really valuable fashion plates that are published. They have been the standard for over twenty-one years. In addition to the above, every month selections from the following are given, with simple directions that all may understand:

Undoubted Receipts, Model Cottages, Model Cottages Furniture, Patterns for Window Curtains, Music Crochet Work, Knitting, Netting, Patching, Crochet Flower Work, Hair Braiding, Ribbon Work, Chenille work, Lace Collar Work, Children's and Infant's Clothes, Capses, Caps, Chemisettes—in fine, everything that can interest a Lady will find its appropriate place in her own Book.

TERMS Cash in Advance, postage Paid, and no Deviation.

One copy, 2 years 5
Five copies, 1 year 10
One copy, 5 years 10

Ten copies, 1 year 20
and one copy extra for a year to the person sending the club of ten.

No old subscriber will be received into a club until all arrears are paid.

Small notes of the different States are received at par for Godey's Lady's Book. Club subscribers will be sent to different towns.

Additions of one or more to clubs are received at club prices.

REGISTER your letters, when remitting, get your postmaster to write on the letter "Registered." The money will then come safely. Remember, we have no traveling agents now, and all money must be sent to and postmaster making the request.

We can always supply back numbers for the year, as the work is stereotyped.
