ROASTED SLOWLY.

Horrible Wreck on Seaboard in Which Engineer Maxwell Burned to Death.

Charlotte, N. C., Dec. 31.—The Seaboard Air Line's last mail, No. 32, northbound from Atlanta to Richmond, crashed into a string of loaded freight cars at Peachland, a flag station 19 miles east of Monroe, late last night, partially wrecking the passenger train and killing Engineer S. E. Maxwell of Raleigh.

Running 50 miles an hour Engineer Maxwell sighted the freight train as he rounded the curve near Peachland and with concern only for the passengers, whose lives were in his care, he applied the emergency brakes in an effort to moderate the impending crash. The speed was reduced to 10 miles an hour when the train struck and the freeman jumped without being hurt. Maxwell stuck to his post, was caught between the engine and tender and slowly roasted to death in view of the rescuers, who strained every nerve to reach him. Helplessly pinned in an upright position with both feet in the firebox, the brave man lived four hours, fully conscious, talking cheerfully to the rescuers, his last words being a message to his wife and child at Raleigh. No one else was hurt.

A Brilliant Event.

One of the most brilliant social events of the season, and one that attracted a large number of visitors from far and near, was the New Year's ball in Roof's hall on Monday night. Thomas' band from Columbia, furnished the music and the young people danced until the wee small hours of morning. It was one of the nicest dances ever held in Lexington and will linger long in the minds of the large crowd present.

Those in attendance were: Misses Essie, Lucile, Caro and Ruth Efrid, Lula Kaminer, Annie Martha Meetze, Emma Ballentine, Elizabeth Dominick, Newberry, Cynthia Neal, Sparanburg, Meredith Muller, May Meetze, Nellie and Ethel Coughman, Columbia; Mrs. Don Kimball, Chicago; Mrs. Sarah Shuler and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Cullum, Batesburg; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hubbard, Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Rose, San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. C. M. Efrid, Jr., and Messrs. Eugene Hartley and Graves Cooner, Batesburg; J. L. Kinard, Leesville; Dr. E. G. L. Adams, John Swygert, Davis, William Coughman, Caldwell Jones, Williamson, Columbia; Bach Wise, Birge Wise, Prosperity; R. F. Bowe, Baltimore; Dr. P. H. Shealy, E. J. Lawson, E. G. Dreher, S. P. Roof, S. J. Leaphart, C. E. Leaphart, W. P. Roof, Jr., C. A. Roof and Julian P. Meetze.

Chaperon: Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Haltiwanger.

Off To Virginia.

Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Graichen, and their most beautiful, accomplished and attractive daughter, Miss Ernestine, left on Monday afternoon for their new home at Waynesboro, Va., to the regret of their many friends here.

Rev. Graichen has been the loving and faithful pastor of St. Stephen's church for the past eighteen years, during which time he has endeared himself, not only to the members of his church, but to the public at large. His estimable family will be missed; Mrs. Graichen having added much to the social as well as the spiritual affairs of the town.

Mr. Graichen served this congregation through trials and tribulations, and leaves the church out of debt. It may be said to his credit that a new and commodious church building and a nice and comfortable parsonage have been erected and the church is harmoniously organized, with an active Woman's Aid Society and flourishing Sunday school, under the supervision of a competent corps of teachers.

All these religious organizations have been instituted during Mr. Graichen's pastorate, and to him the credit is due. Mr. Graichen is a faithful and zealous worker, and he leaves the charge in good shape for his successor, there being no obstacles in the way to mar his work.

We wish them all the happiness, peace and prosperity that is in store for them in their field, and trust that at some future day they will come again, if only for a visit.

Shoots Wife and Kills Self.

Pittsburg, Dec. 30.—Believing his wife, whom he shot three times, was dead, Robert Ford, 40 years old of Homestead, a suburb of this city, fired a bullet into his own brain to-night, dying instantly. His wife, however, was not fatally injured. Ford, who was extremely jealous, accused his wife of infidelity at their home tonight and before she could leave his presence he shot her.

Treasurer Copeland Dead.

Laurens, Dec. 30.—Mr. John H. Copeland, county treasurer, died of Bright's disease at his home here at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon, aged 67 years. He was a veteran of the War Between the States and filled the office of county treasurer for six terms.

Gaston Gleanings.

Gee whizz! but didn't we have a cool Christmas! Business has been brisk during the fall and holidays.

Some marriages have been reported and we hear of more to follow.

Miss Perchas Craft, after spending Christmas home, has returned to Littleton College, N. C.

Everybody had a merry Christmas and appeared to enjoy it ever so much.

Messrs. W. B. and Turner Fallaw, of Monetta, spent some time hereabouts recently. Judging from what we saw and heard, think they will return again soon.

C. L. Cassidy and family, from Middendorf, S. C., are now patrons on R. F. D. No. 1.

Miss Rosa Bell Fallaw, who has been attending the Columbia Female College, has returned, after spending Christmas at home.

Miss Dora E. Craft, one of Lexington's best teachers, has gone back to her school near Steadman.

There have been a number of big dinners given recently along the R. F. D., some of which came this way.

Dr. J. L. Johnson, of Charleston, took dinner at J. G. Fallaw's Sunday, also a number of others.

The recent cold snap damaged the small grain, especially oats.

Break your land now and break it deep.

C. C. Craft, of Washington, D. D., spent Christmas at home.

Will S. Smith, from Savannah, Ga., after visiting relatives and friends, and his best girl, has returned singing, "The Girl I Left Behind."

C. C. Goodwin, Jr., and Miss Ellen Carter were recently married by G. W. Pound. The boys gave them a good old time serenade. May peace and happiness be theirs.

Mr. Editor, you ought to have been along with the carrier on route No. 1, during Christmas. My, my, how the good patrons did treat the poor carrier. All the blizzards and electric storms were forgotten and his heart beat with joy and wished that Xmas would last all the year. Packages and boxes of cakes, chicken, ham, fruits and nuts of all kinds and sorts; and even dishes were set in the boxes filled with ambrosia and a silver spoon to eat 'em with, such meats as the Gods feast on. Well, good patrons, I and family are very thankful to you for these tokens of remembrance and with a heart filled with gratitude, we are grateful to you all for them and I'll try and give you all better service the coming year, which is my fourth.

May prosperity continue to smile upon you and peace, joy and happiness attend you all, as well as The Dispatch force and all its readers.

Lookout for those New Year resolutions!

Billy Felix.

Beautiful Marriage.

In the presence of many friends gathered from far and near. Mr. Benjamin Walter Tribble of Donalds, S. C. and Miss Lillian Blanch Mathias of Irmo, S. C., were pronounced man and wife in the Methodist church at Irmo, by the Rev. Dr. W. W. Daniel of Columbia College, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Thursday, the 27th. The church was dimmed, and decorated in white and green. Just in front of the pulpit a double arch of evergreens had been erected and from the intersection hung a large white wedding bell. The arch was studded with lighted tapers.

Miss Alma Van Metre of Columbia, presided at the piano, and rendered many beautiful pieces as the guests assembled. At the appointed hour the familiar strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march sounded and the wedding party entered. The first to come in were the ushers, Messrs. Benjamin Swygert of Irmo, and John W. Agnew of Donalds. The bridesmaids, Miss Enla Eloise Mathias, sister of the bride, and Miss Bessie Smith of Irmo, gowned in white silk made over pink taffeta, and carrying large bouquets of pink carnations and maiden hair fern, followed. The groomsmen, Dr. R. E. Mathias, the bride's brother, and Mr. S. R. Cooper of Donalds, came next.

Little Miss Mattie Smith of Georgetown, in a dainty dress of white silk, lace and satin ribbon, acted as ring-bearer, entered next, just in front of the bride, who came in on the arm of her maid of honor, Miss Lucia Eloise Tribble of Charlotte, N. C. The bride wore a handsome travelling suit of blue silk panama with hat to match. She carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses. Miss Tribble's dress was of white point d'esprit over apple green taffeta.

At the same time the groom entered on the arm of his best man, Mr. Luther Wesley Mathias of Charleston, S. C.

When the bridal party took their places, the piano was played more softly and mingled with the melody were the simple words of the wedding ceremony of the M. E. Church South. At its conclusion, as the party left the church, the pianist played the march from Tannhauser.

The young couple left at once for their future home in Donalds. Tomorrow evening a reception will be tendered them there by the groom's sister, Mrs. Dona Tribble Donald.

The out of town guests were Mrs. Dona Tribble Donald of Donalds, S. C., Mr. Luther W. Mathias of Charleston, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. L. Pierce Tribble of Hodges, S. C., Mrs. C. V. Martin, and Messrs. S. The good wishes of many friends go with the young couple in their new life.

A Beautiful Church Wedding At Hebron.

On the night of the 27th of December, Miss Irene Hook was married to Mr. George Buff by Rev. A. S. Lesley at Hebron church. The church was beautifully decorated; an arch of evergreen hung from the chancel of the church; a beautiful white wedding bell being suspended from the middle, under which the contracting parties were united in holy matrimony.

Long before the hour of the ceremony arrived, the church was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the crowd eagerly awaited the coming of the bridal party. Promptly at seven Miss Myra Riley, of Columbia, took her seat at the organ, and the strains of the wedding march filled the church. Now appeared Mr. Harper Shull with Miss Lilla Hendrix; Mr. Charlton Dent with Miss Bessie Buff; Mr. Buell Hendrix with Miss Hattie Hook, and took their places, forming an aisle, the ladies standing on the left and the gentlemen on the right; next came two little flower bearers, Master Rupert Buff and little Miss Gladys Krepps. Now came the bride, leaning on the arm of the groom. They took their places in front of the minister and were made man and wife by the impressive ceremony of the Methodist church.

Thirty Eight Killed; Sixty Seriously Injured.

Washington, Dec. 30.—An appalling disaster occurred tonight at 7 o'clock on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Terra Cotta, about three miles from this city, in which about 38 persons were killed and over 60 injured, some of them so seriously that they will die. The accident was caused by the collision of train No. 66, due here at 6.25 p. m., from Frederick, Md., known as the Frederick Special, with a dead-head passenger equipment special of eight cars. Over 200 passengers were aboard the ill-fated train. The railway officials late tonight were unable to assign any cause for the collision. As soon as the news of the wreck reached this city all ambulances available with as many physicians as could be assembled were sent to the scene.

Dots from Piney Woods.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

The small grain is looking a little stunted, but this warm period will make it get its color again.

Some of Mr. James L. Epting's family of near Leesville were visiting relatives in the Macedonia section Christmas.

The writer visited near Priceville Christmas day.

Mr. George Shealy and wife visited their daughter, Afelia, in Newberry.

A crowd of about thirteen from this section, including Rev. E. J. Sox, took our annual rabbit hunt on the 28th on Saluda river. We all enjoyed the hunt although it was raining. We would have enjoyed ourselves better, but five of our dogs jumped a fox near Amick's ferry and went off through Limber Hills. Two of them did not return until night.

Mr. Simon Amick's boys are spending their vacation at home. Joseph from Orangeburg and Ernest from Lenoir college, Hickory, N. C.

Rev. E. J. Sox will preach at Mr. George Wessinger's next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock for the special benefit of Miss Lorena Shealy.

I will close wishing a bright and happy New Year to all.

A Patron.
