Boys:

Every boy is a miniature business man. If he manages his little business affairs with credit to himself, he will be a good manager of big affairs later in life. The best way in the world for a boy to become a good manager is to have a savings account, think twice before spending and keep the account growing. This bank wants to be a "partner" in the affairs of every sturdy, sensible boy in Lexington by helping him to save.

CHLORAZONE MALARIA

Malaria attacks the liver, kidneys and digestive organs, just as Rheumatism attacks the bones and muscles of the human system. Malaria is just as serious as any disease on the human calendar. Some of the symptoms are lassitude, a yellow tinge to the skin, the whites of the eyes slightly tinged with yellow. Poor digestion, lack of appetite, constipation, any of these symptoms are a warning and you must keep off chills and fever, with CHLORAZONE. Every bottle sold on a guarantee to cure, or your money back.

Price, 50c Bottle.

Children's Day at Irmo.

Children's day at Union church in Irmo was a delightful occasion. The children all did well, and we had the pleasure of hearing two addresses, one from Mr. Berley Koon and the other from Dr. Steele, pastor of Washington Street church, Columbia. There were quite a number of out-of-town visitors, viz: Mesdames Robert Freetman, Holman, from Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Robinson, from Chapin; Miss Ethel Eleazor, from Spring Hill, and the Misses Kline, from White Rock.

The next children's day was held in Salem Methodist church and it was a credit to those in charge. The church could not accommodate the immense crowd that came to enjoy the day. On Tuesday, the 26th, children's day was observed in Bethlehem Lutheran church. The church was tastefully decorated. A bountiful dinner was served with an abundance of lemonade. Miss Viola Warner and the Misses Lindler deserve much credit for the success of the day. The program in full was as follows:

Processional, prayer, by pastor; welcome, by superintendent; recitation, "Bible Boys and Girls," Elsie Hook; song, "Somebody," by school; recitation, "Bob and the Bible," Sadie Hook; recitation, "The Baby Moses," Melvin Davis, Everett Folk, Albertine Hook, John Madison Younginer, Martha Bickley, Pearl Younginer, Kathaleen Lorick, Carlisle Nunnamaker; song, "Rock-a-Bye," Kathaleen Lorick, Ernestine Lorick, Albertine Hook, Fannie May Hook; recitation, "Samuel, the Little Helper," Rosa Meetze; solo, "Face to Face," Sallie Lorick; recitation, "The Lad with the Leaves," Roy Koon; collection speech, Grady Nunnamaker; solo, "The Holy City," Lena Hook; recitation, "The Capital Maid," Sallie Lorick; song, "Count Your Blessings," school; recitation, "The Child Jesus," Charlie Burgess, Frank Folk, Frank Perry Nunnamaker; song, "Palestine," Kosa Meetze, Sallie Lorick, Sadie Hook, Elise Hook, Sybil Nunnamaker, Dorothy Burgess; recitation, "Some Bible Heroes," Dorothy Burgess, Welma Nunnamaker, Daisy Folk, Gertrude Younginer; song, "The Fight is On," school; recitation, "The Children in the Temple," Sybil Nunnamaker; solo, "It's Just Like Jesus," Rosa Meetze; recitation, "Puzzling question," Sadie Hook; children's song, school.

Miss Dent Entertains

Yesterday evening at her commodious home on Main street here, Miss Gladys Lucile Dent entertained a large number of her friends in honor of her guest, Miss Marie Shull, of New Brookland. Early in the evening the jolly couples assembled in the yard in front of the home of the hostess under the glow of a profusion of illuminating Japanese lanterns, where the time was passed away in pleasant conversation in the cozy nooks and corners, changing partners every five minutes. Later punch was served by little Misses Margaret Dent and Annie Laura Calier, after which cake and cream was served. Then came the time for the couples to depart, each one leaving with the hostess their best wishes.

Held On Serious Charge.

Deck Alewine, a white man, was lodged in jail here by Sheriff Sim J. Miller Saturday morning upon a warrant charging him with attempted criminal assault, his alleged being a white girl over 16 years of age. The warrant was sworn out at the instigation of the girl's father. The crime is alleged to have been committed on Tuesday of this week, while the girl was on the way from her home to the Lexington Manufacturing Co.

Alewine is more than 40 years of age and has a family, some of his children being almost grown. Unless the case is settled otherwise Alewine will be held for trial at the September term of General Sessions Court.

Farmers' Union Meeting.

Lexington County Farmers' Union will hold its 3rd quarterly meeting with Rocky Well Local No. 319 Saturday, September 13th, 1913. T. H. SHULL, Secretary. September 2, 1913.

BOARD DECLARES LEXINGTON WET

Anti-Dispensary Forces Will Keep on Fighting. Will Appeal From County Canvassers to the State Board.

DISPENSARY 56 AHEAD

After hearing one of the most interesting and sensational election contests in the history of the county, if not in the state, for more than two days and a half, the Lexington county board of canvassers Thursday overruled the protest offered by the prohibitionists over the outcome of the election held on August 19, on the question of re-establishing the dispensary in this county in which the dispensary won by a majority of 56.

The contest will now be carried before the state board of canvassers, which is scheduled to meet in Columbia on Monday, Sept. 8, and in the event that an adverse decision is rendered before that body, it is probable that the case will be carried into the Circuit Court. This means that Lexington will remain in the "dry" column for several months to come, as it will take a long time to go through the several processes incident to a final decision.

The report of the Lexington board of canvassers is a very lengthy document and is interesting. In concluding its decision the board says:

"With reference to certain testimony that has been offered, to the effect that certain members of this board had taken a drink of whiskey during the days that this contest was being held, this board desires to say that no member of it is a drunkard, and that no member of it was under the influence of whiskey or other intoxicants to the extent that it did or could have possibly affected their judgment and conclusions in this case, and any opinion or conclusions to the contrary is groundless and without foundation in fact; that each and every member of this board has undertaken conscientiously and righteously, without bias or prejudice, to discharge fully and fairly every duty that has been imposed upon them in hearing the questions that have been brought before it.

"We do hereby certify that the foregoing statement is correct in all respects. B. K. Kyzer, T. H. Rawl, G. A. Goodwin, County Board of Canvassers for Lexington County."

Returns With Fugitive.

Sheriff Sim J. Miller, of this county, returned to Lexington Friday night from Marshall, N. C., where he went in pursuit of J. F. Gregg, a white man, and a $250 mule, the white man being wanted in Lexington on a charge of practicing medicine without a license. Sheriff Miller succeeded in capturing both the man and the mule. Gregg was brought to Lexington Friday night but the mule had to be shipped by fast freight and did not reach here until Tuesday.

Dr. Gregg was indicted by the Lexington grand jury at the January term of General Sessions Court this year, and by consent the case was carried over to the June term, bond having been arranged for his appearance. Gregg failed to appear at the June term. His bondsmen some weeks ago placed the matter in the hands of Sheriff Miller, who has since been steadily on the lookout for Gregg. It is alleged that Gregg took with him when he made his flight a mule belonging to David Shumpert, one of his bondsmen.

Gregg and the mule were located some days ago by Sheriff Miller, but in order that there might not be no delay, Sheriff Miller secured requisition papers for the man before going to North Carolina which were honored by Governor Craig and returned here before the sheriff left Lexington.

Gregg will be held in the Lexington county jail until court convenes on the third Monday in September when, it is thought, the case will be called for trial. Gregg has a wife and one child, residing at Sandy Bottom, N. C.
