No Night in Heaven

"And there shall be no night there."—Rev. 22, 5.

No night shall be in Heaven—no gathering gloom Shall o'er that glorious landscape ever come,

No night shall be in Heaven—no dreary hour Of mental darkness, or the tempter's power,

No night shall be in Heaven—no darkened room, No bed of death, no silence of the tomb,

No night shall be in Heaven—no sorrow's reign— No secret anguish—no corporeal pain—

No night shall be in Heaven—no endless noon; No fast declining sun or waning moon;

No night shall be in Heaven—no darkened room, No bed of death, no silence of the tomb,

No night shall be in Heaven—no sorrow's reign— No secret anguish—no corporeal pain—

No night shall be in Heaven—no endless noon; No fast declining sun or waning moon;

No night shall be in Heaven—no darkened room, No bed of death, no silence of the tomb,

Rich Men of New York—How they Work

No bank clerk on the salary of a thousand dollars a year goes to his bank as regularly, or works as many hours, as Wm. B. Astor,

Commodore Vanderbilt never worked harder in his life, never worked more hours than now.

Moses Taylor whose dividends from coal stock alone this year reached the pretty little sum of a million of dollars, began business in New York when sixteen years of age, kept his own books with his own hands, and has done so ever since.

A FEMALE BRITISH OFFICER.—An incident is just now being discussed in military circles so extraordinary that, were not its truth capable of not being doubted for its official authority, the narration would certainly be deemed absolutely incredible.

GEORGIA.—In the late issue of the Columbus Star we find the following resolutions, adopted at the meeting of the negroes of that community.

Resolved, That we will look upon any colored person guilty of theft as not being worthy of notice.

Resolved, That we will not assist them in any way, nor will we assist them in business, nor aid them in sickness, and we will not associate with them either directly or indirectly.

A Strange Statement—How William L. Yancey met His Death.

As you enter the cemetery at Montgomery, and turn to the right, you will perceive a colonnade of maple trees leading off to a quiet glen.

Let me live unseen, unknown, And unremembered let me die. Nor mound, nor monument, nor stone, Tell where I lie.

His death was quiet and painless, after acute physical and mental suffering. He was a strict churchman; a man of quiet manners; a handsome declaimer, and a fair scholar.

The question of a navy was under discussion in secret session. The debate ranged beyond the parliamentary limits, and Messrs. Yancey and Hill became animated over the abstract doctrine of State rights and the divinity of slavery.

The great Democratic party, whose history in the past is the history of prosperity, of territorial expansion, and of public order in America, stands now, as it has ever stood, the Party of the Nation, superior to all sectional passions and to the liberties of the individual citizen.

The Daily World affords a complete compendium of, and commentary upon, the news of every day. The Semi-Weekly World is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, containing all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news, cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature.

Resolved, That we will not assist them in any way, nor will we assist them in business, nor aid them in sickness, and we will not associate with them either directly or indirectly.

THE WORLD

One copy, one year, by mail, $10.00. Four copies, one year, $4.00. Ten copies, one year, $2.00.

Resolved, That we will not assist them in any way, nor will we assist them in business, nor aid them in sickness, and we will not associate with them either directly or indirectly.

PROCLAMATION BY THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR.

WHEREAS it is represented that in many portions of the State, there is great disturbance and apprehension from lawless persons, who are robbing, murdering and committing acts of violence remote from the military garrisons stationed at the Court Houses;

Now, therefore, I, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN PERRY, Provisional Governor of the State of South Carolina, do proclaim, order and declare, that there shall be formed and organized in each Judicial District one or more military companies for a home police to act under and be auxiliary to the military garrison of such District in preventing crimes and preserving the peace of the District.

THE CHRISTIAN INDEX. BY THE FIRST OF OCTOBER, OR AS SOON AS THE MAILS ARE RE-ESTABLISHED, I WILL RENEW THE PUBLICATION OF THE "CHRISTIAN INDEX" AND THE "CHILD'S INDEX" I HAVE BEEN PUBLISHING.

THE ABBEVILLE BANNER. I desire to say to the old patrons of this paper, and the public generally, that its publication will be resumed on or about the fifteenth of OCTOBER NEXT, under my personal supervision, and the editorial control of a gentleman eminently qualified for such a position, and a well known and prominent citizen of the District.

THE CHARLESTON DAILY NEWS. As native Carolinians, the publishers will naturally look to the interests of their own State, and to that of the South; and as citizens of the United States, they will not be wanting in the proper amount of devotion and respect for the General Government.

THE SOUTHERNER. Published every Friday at Darlington, S. C., by J. M. BAKER. Terms of subscription: To subscribers on our terms, $3.00 per annum, in advance. Advertisements per square insertion, $1.50; each subsequent insertion, 75 cents.
