[From the Charlotte Democrat.]

Carolina Military Institute.

The semi-annual exhibition of the Carolina Military Institute in this city, has just closed. The writer had the pleasure of attending the closing exercises by the first and second classes on Friday night last. The occasion afforded an intellectual treat to all present. The young gentlemen acquitted themselves in a degree highly creditable. Their manner, self-possession, style, elocution, with the subject matter of their addresses, reflected great credit on Col. Thomas and his able Faculty, and very great honor upon the young gentlemen themselves. The speeches were remarkably well composed, happily delivered and more original than we generally have on such occasions. Without dealing so much in the classics, with the renown of ancient Greece and Rome and their departed glories, the addresses were essentially practical, discussing modern issues, and very entertaining to the intelligent audience assembled. They certainly reflected upon the Faculty thorough training, both intellectual and moral. These young gentlemen are often on our streets and conduct themselves with the highest propriety and decorum. No one of them has ever been before any court in Charlotte, or ever known to give any offence to a citizen—an evil so often complained of in other literary and military institutions.

The writer knows no institution of learning in which higher morality and greater propriety of deportment prevail. This is doubtless owing very much to the large experience of Col. Thomas, the Superintendent, and his elevated moral bearing and example illustrated through life. In his Institution he has just enough of the military drill and organization to give physical exercise and development to the body, while the intellect and morals are thoroughly educated. Having been a Professor in the Citadel in Charleston and the Arsenal in Columbia, his qualifications are well attested by many of the clever young gentlemen of South Carolina following him to Charlotte. Indeed his chief support has come from that State. Charlotte and the surrounding country seem hardly to have appreciated the benefits and blessings of an institution of high order which Col. Thomas has established in our midst. With great energy, indefatigable labor, almost "solitary and alone," he has organized and maintained an institution of which Charlotte may well boast of furnishing the best educational advantages to the youth of our country. The Institute is flourishing, growing in numbers and popularity, and is destined to diffuse its blessings to the present and future generations. It deserves the cordial support and patronage of all lovers of physical, moral and intellectual culture.

EDUCATION.

Record Your Contracts and Save Rent.

We have been often asked, why it is that the owner of lands cannot get his rent. We say there is nothing to prevent his getting his pay, or his share of the crop. It is only necessary to reduce your contracts to writing and record the same at once with the clerk of the court, and you will get your money, and we give as our authority the following act:

An act for the better protection of land owners, and persons renting land to others, for agricultural purposes, and to amend acts relating thereto.

That in all cases where land is rented either for a share of the crop, or for a stipulated sum in money, or for so much cotton, corn, or other product of the soil, the land so rented shall be deemed and taken to be an advance for agricultural purposes; and the land owner upon reducing the contract of letting to writing, and recording the same, as provided in the lien law, section 55, chapter 30, (that is recording the same within thirty days from the date of contract,) shall have a lien on the crop, which may be made during the year upon the land, in preference to all other liens existing or otherwise, to an amount not exceeding one-third of the entire crop so produced, and to be applied to the satisfaction of the rent stipulated to be paid.

In such cases the landlord shall have all the rights accorded to persons advancing any other supplies, as provided in sections 55 and 56 of the same chapter, to the extent of one-third of the crop as above stated.

This law does not apply to contracts made prior to March 19, 1874, but to all contracts since that time.

It will not do to make verbal contracts: they must be made in writing and recorded, or the liens will take preference, and the land owners fail to get their rent.

You may be able to prove your contract and the parties renting may admit the contract, but you must not depend on this. Write it out and record it, and your claim has preference over any other claim.

Judge Bryan has made the following decision in the case of the Blue Ridge Railroad Company, bankrupt:

It is ordered that R. K. Scott, the purchaser of the property sold under the order of the court on the 22d October, 1874, do forthwith pay into the court the cash portion of his bid upon the said sale, to-wit; The sum of thirty-six thousand and fifty dollars, ($36,050) and that thereupon the clerk of the court, after deducting the costs of sale heretofore ordered, to be ascertained by J. E. Hagood, do pay over the same to the bondholders under the deed of trust or mortgage of the 26th April, 1854.

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

The Herald is in the highest respect a Family Newspaper, devoted to the material interests of the people of this County and the State. It circulates extensively, and as an Advertising medium offers unrivalled advantages. For Terms, see first page.

The Democratic Meeting.

A large meeting was held last Monday under the call of Y. J. Pope, Esq., appointed by the Democratic Executive Committee to organize the party in this County. The proceedings of the meeting and the resolutions offered by Mr. Pope—which were passed without much discussion—will be seen in another column. The resolution proposed by Mr. J. F. Caldwell to "hereby endorse the action of Governor Chamberlain" was the only one which solicited warm discussion, but was finally passed by a very large majority. A goodly number of colored citizens were present, who seemed to follow the speeches with great attention, as well they might; for they are as deeply interested as the whites in the result of the movement. The spirit of the vast majority of the people present was conciliatory although determined, and the colored people were made to feel that their rights would be safe in the hands of the Democracy. A strong and happy impulse has thus been given to the reform movement in this County. It behooves every one now honestly to exert himself to carry it on until it overspreads the land. With such exertion we hope to succeed in purifying the political atmosphere and in securing good government before the end of this Centennial year.

The Eastern Question.

It was very pleasant in days of yore to sit by a comfortable fire and read of wars and battles in far off countries, and feel that nothing of the kind could have any possible connexion with the peace and well doing of the reader. At this time affairs are wonderfully changed; all the nations of the earth are cemented together, and a war in Turkey does affect the price of cotton we sell and of the food we buy. The whole world is fast becoming one organic body; a burn of a finger is felt through the whole body, and conveyed with the speed of lightning by the telegraphic nerves which run through the smallest part of the organism. A great war—and we hope the last—is impending in Europe. Turkey is the name of a country, not of a people. Two-thirds of the population are Greeks, Armenians and other nationalities who profess the Christian faith. The Turk holds these Christians subject to his power by title of conquest and no other. He is an intruder in Europe, and his ejection has been prevented only by the jealousy of the powers who expect to get a slice of Turkey, and who want each to get the best and largest portion. The solution of the question cannot be longer postponed. Russia thinks that her time has come and she will act. A Petersburg correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, seems confident that a coalition between Russia, France and Austria has been arranged to divide the estate of the dying Turk, and that they will have to encounter Germany and England in the fight. He calculates the chances of success on each side. He gives the Germans credit for a fighting force of two millions men, splendid equipments, the prestige of victory and able commanders; but it insists that the coalition can muster from three to four millions of soldiers and must finally prevail against Germany and England. The English navy is, of course, presumed to keep the sea clear and to have ample and safe opportunities of conveying such force as they may be able to furnish. There is one thing, however, which the correspondent does not consider, which is the composition of the Austrian Empire. There are fourteen millions of Germans who formerly governed the realm. Vienna is a German city. This German element is losing its influence in the reconstructed empire, which is now called the Austro-Hungarian empire. Hungarians are the governing element; the centre of gravitation is Perth not Vienna; all the sympathies of the German-Austrian provinces are with the new German Empire. In case of a war there is no doubt that these provinces would join their fortunes with the newly established empire and there gain the influence which they have lost in the war of secession successfully waged by Prussia. There is not the least doubt that all the German speaking population of Europe will be united into one empire, which being in the centre of Europe will govern its policy; and we predict that in less than ten years Germany will have a Republican Government which will compel the whole of Europe to follow its example. No republic can be stable unless that central power is Republican. It is to be hoped that the change of affairs in Europe may be brought about peacefully, and we as a nation should exert our moral influence to that effect; but if there is to be a final war it will be the mightiest and most destructive that the world has ever seen. Let us hope that the spirit of civilization will prevail and peace be maintained.

Legislative.

The committee appointed to look into Leslie's connexion with the Land Commission are peeping a little too deep for Leslie's comfort. Leslie contended that they were going beyond the limit of their instructions and refused to be sworn. The Speaker sustained the committee in their opinion that they were appointed for the purposes of investigating all matters connected with the Land commission. The committee consists now of Chancellor Johnson, and Messrs. Aldrich and Orr, the last having been substituted for General Wallace, who will be necessarily absent. Rare developments may be expected. The Senate appointed a committee consisting of Senators Jeter and Donaldson to assist the House committee in the investigation.

The majority of the Legislature are trying their best to take the appointment of managers out of the hand of the Governor and arrange so that they can have control of the election. If such a bill should pass a veto message may be looked for. Since writing the above we find that the bill was killed by a vote of 56 to 40.

Mr. Cooper has raised a fiery debate by his proposition to have Whipper's infamous speech expunged from the journal of the House. We coincide with the Columbia Register to let it stand. It is a fitting monument for him, and in the right place.

The Governor delivered a long and forcible speech to the committee of ways and means, who were considering the tax levy for the next fiscal year. He convinced them finally that 8¼ mills should be substituted for 10, which the committee thought necessary. The committee will prepare a bill in accordance with the recommendation of the Governor. The items of the tax are as follows:

Salaries	9-10 mills.
Public institutions	11-13 "
Public schools	1½ "
Legislative expenses	½ "
Public printing	1-5 "
Interest on public debt	2 "
Deficiencies	4-5 "
Bonanza claims	1½ "
Total	8¼ "

This is an especially bad time to pass an usury law—if there is any good time at all for the passage of such a law. It is not likely that it will go through all the necessary stages of legislation at this session.

In the Senate a bill for the prevention of cruelty to animals was recommitted.

Gladiateur, the Lexington of the French turf, is dead.

Young Napoleon's moustache is budding. Color—dark brown.

Deak, the great Hungarian statesman, the rival of Kossuth, is dead.

The Tredegar Iron Works at Richmond, Va., have resumed operations.

The Supreme Court of the State has decided that Mackey, as Judge of the 6th circuit, had no right to entertain a motion for a writ of habeas corpus within the limits of the 5th circuit. Well, Parker is gone and that decision won't catch him.

Mr. W. N. Hendrix, an old and highly respected citizen of Lexington, says the Columbia Register, departed this life at his residence last week. He had spent a long and useful life in his native County, and leaves a widow, son, large number of relatives and many friends to mourn his loss.

SAN SEBASTIAN, February 1.—The Carlist battery on Arratzain continues to bombard the city intermittently; some of the shells are charged with petroleum. Gen. Quesada entered Durango Sunday.

MADRID, February 1.—The official Gazette announces that Rivera has captured three howitzers at Santa Barbara, and that Quesada has taken the fortification of San Antonio.

The later news received at San Sebastian that Gen. Quesada had already entered Durango appears to have been premature. Gen. Martinez Campose is marching upon Elasindo, in Northern Navarre, and will attack that place to-morrow.

Such and a half column like it fills the telegraphic space. Cannot Alfonso make a contract with some yankee to finish that little job in the Pyrenees in two weeks? Everybody is exceedingly tired of it.

The Clinton Orphanage.

"Our Monthly" gives a cheering account of the Orphanage in its last issue, which we are pleased to copy:

We are glad to report that during the past month the Orphanage has improved in efficiency, and is doing good work in all of its departments.

In the school-room are seventeen pupils, under the guiding hand of Miss Whitherspoon, a lady every way competent for this work. The children are improving rapidly in their studies.

Two boys are in the printing office, and this issue of Our Monthly is their work. They never touched type before, and will improve with every issue.

Four boys are in the garden and outdoor work. They will make their labor count this summer.

The girls are equally industrious. They have all of the housework, housecleaning, ironing, cooking, &c., divided among them, and each one knows and does her duty. In addition, they are learning to sew.

It will thus be seen that every effort is being made to train up the children in industrious and studious habits and to make them grow into useful members of society. No servants are employed in the work of the home. All are busy. At the same time none are overtaxed and all seem happy. We ask the prayers and gifts of God's people for this noble work.

Patent insides won't do for religious papers. A most excellent exchange which uses them has for its leading item, on one of its pages, the news about the California four mile race.

[Christian Observer.

That is us! We acknowledge the corn. But we promise not to do so any more. Good-bye, patent insides.

[Our Monthly, Clinton.

This is right, friend Jacobs. We are glad to see that the Monthly has resumed its old and familiar form, and that you eschew the patent outsides.

Exchanges.

HARPER'S BAZAR and HARPER'S WEEKLY make regular and pleasing weekly visits. They always afford amusement and instruction. The Bazar is particularly esteemed by the ladies, as the fashions are made a special feature. The other is equally well recieved.

PETERSON'S LADIES' MAGAZINE for March is already received, and it is superb in all of its many features. "Pay Toll First" is the cunningest and most natural picture we have seen in some time. No wonder that this magazine is so popular, for it is always full of good things. Address Chas. J. Peterson, Philadelphia, with $2.00.

THE RURAL CAROLINIAN for February is received and contains an interesting variety of subjects, and treated in a clear and practical manner. The Rural is an authority in this latitude and the farmer who would seek information can find what he wants in its pages. Address D. Wyatt Aiken, Editor and Publisher, Cokesbury, S. C.

The February number of the SOUTHERN CULTIVATOR gives a first rate table of contents, adapted to the season and to all the different departments of farm life. Our farmer friends not already supplied with the Cultivator will do well to subscribe at once. Either address W. L. Jones, Athens, Ga., or leave names and amount at this office.

The proprietors of the Press and Banner, Messrs. Lee & Wilson, have fulfilled their promise of enlargement, and this week they send out the full grown paper with nine well filled columns to the page, making a total of thirty-six. The Press and Banner is now the largest paper in the State, and the enterprise and tact exhibited in its management is being reaped in a large harvest of prosperity. Success to the gentlemen proprietors.

FOR THE HERALD.

MR. EDITOR:

We accept with pleasure the amended plea of Citizen No. 2 on the lamp question, because, as is meet and just, it very properly unites the interests of the Methodist Church at evening service with those of the Baptist and Lutheran congregations; while at the same time affording the pleasing opportunity of saying their omission heretofore was unintentional. Whether it be "Basso Profundo" or Mezzo Soprano, we appreciate alike and entertain the highest respect for the inspiring tones of all voices dedicated to the praises of heaven and the glory of God. The question is simply one of light and convenience to our church-going community and a respectable portion of our fellow-citizens resident in the south-eastern portion of the town; and on this line, as a proposition of justice, we most respectfully make suit to our worthy Town Council in the hope of meeting at their hands with a favorable response to the prayer of our petition.

FOR THE HERALD.

NEWBERRY, S. C.,
Feb. 7, 1876.

Pursuant to call of Y. J. Pope, Esq., County Chairman of the Democratic Party of Newberry County, a meeting of the Democrats of this County was held at Newberry C. H., this day.

On motion of Y. J. Pope, Esq., Dr. Wm. M. Dorroh was called to the chair and Geo. S. Mower, Esq., requested to act as Secretary.

The following resolutions were presented by Y. J. Pope, Esq., and seconded by Geo. Johnstone, Esq.:

WHEREAS, The recent election of F. J. Moses, Jr., W. J. Whipper and P. L. Wiggin as Judges by the General Assembly of this State, is viewed by the citizens of South Carolina as an insult to all her good people of every political opinion and of every race, and an attack upon their lives, liberty and property. Now, be it

Resolved, 1st. That the citizens of our County tender to the citizens of the 1st, 2d and 3d Circuits their heartiest sympathy in view of the recent indignity attempted to be done them in the recent election of such persons as F. J. Moses, Jr., W. J. Whipper and P. L. Wiggin, for Judges of their Circuits.

Resolved, 2d. That we regard those elections not only as an indignity to the citizens of the said Circuits, but as a crime against society, which calls for the indignant protest and energetic action of our entire people.

Resolved, 3d. That in the deliberate opinion of this meeting no political party which has so blackened its hands with such ignoble candidates for the exalted position of Judge, is any longer entitled to the confidence or the support of a free people.

Resolved, 4th. That it is the duty of the people of this County to organize thoroughly and promptly in every Township to effect needed reform in public matters, and that in this organization for these purposes all true men of every party and every race should at once enroll themselves under the Democratic banner.

Resolved, 5th. That the County Chairman be directed forthwith to name three gentlemen in each Township to organize the same for the purposes herein named.

Resolved, 6th. That Monday, the 6th day of March next, be recommended to the several Townships to send forward to Newberry C. H., for the purpose of organizing a County Democratic Convention, delegates as follows:

Township No. 1.—Nine delegates.
Township No. 2.—Four delegates.
Township No. 3.—Four delegates.
Township No. 4.—Five delegates.
Township No. 5.—Three delegates.
Township No. 6.—Five delegates.
Township No. 7.—Five delegates.
Township No. 8.—Four delegates.
Township No. 9.—Six delegates.
Township No. 10.—Four delegates.
Township No. 11.—Five delegates.

Resolved, 7th. That the Charleston Daily News & Courier, Columbia Register, and the Newberry HERALD and Progressive Age, be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

Speeches were made in favor of the resolutions by Y. J. Pope, Esq, J. F. J. Caldwell, Esq., Sampson Pope, Esq., and M. A. Carlisle, Esq.

The resolutions were then adopted without a dissenting vote.

J. F. J. Caldwell, Esq., then offered the following resolution, which was seconded by Geo. Johnstone, Esq.:

Resolved, That we heartily applaud the efforts of his Excellency, Daniel H. Chamberlain, Governor of this State, to correct the errors of the Legislature, to prevent the consummation of its criminal purposes, and to secure honesty and intelligence in public offices; and that we hereby pledge ourselves to use our utmost endeavors to sustain and assist him in such, his most commendable, but most arduous undertaking.

After discussion by J. F. J. Caldwell, Esq., George Johnstone, Esq., Y. J. Pope, Esq., Dr. James McIntosh, C. H. Suber, Esq., and Maj. John P. Kinard, in favor of its adoption, and Sampson Pope, Esq., M. A. Carlisle, Esq., and Col. T. J. Lipscomb, in opposition, it was adopted.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

DR. WM. M. DORROH,
Chairman.
GEO. S. MOWER, Secretary.

FOR THE HERALD.

RIDGEWAY, S. C., Feb. 1st, 1876.

MR. EDITOR:—The HERALD now makes its weekly visits to us in this far off land and cheers us every week. Your request is hard to deny, and harder still to comply with. But if I can find material enough I cheerfully make the attempt.

After a long, warm spell of weather, we are now experiencing quite a change. A slight sprinkle of sleet this morning, and now a constant rain and with it cold breezes. The lively imaginary gardening was brought to a standstill to-day, and probably for the best.

Last night at 12 o'clock I reached home from the last of the appointments on my work—being absent four days—and travelled eighty-four miles. On this trip I had a clearer idea of the "Sandy Desert" than ever before. For eleven miles I passed the most lonely, barren country I ever saw. Not even a sparrow was seen to cheer us. A Methodist preacher once said, while passing here, "Some rich man ought to buy this land and let these poor fellows go where they can make something."

I saw an old house place which seemed to say "he staid here," but Col. D. said history states he died in search of water.

The "Rozum" men are engaged in "boxing" their little scrub pines. I asked Mr. P. if the turpentine was as strong as that of stronger soil? But after crossing the "desert," we reached Salem church, which was well filled with men and women. Had a good meeting; one applied for membership, and the general outlook very cheering. We then turned our faces desert-ward; and midway the desert, Col. D., J. W. D., and J., with another, took a lunch in the road. However, it was cooked elsewhere. Here we saw a pig—yes, a live, frightened, fleeing pig. I inquired who lived near by. They said no one, and we concluded the little fellow was in quest of water.

The assessor passed through here getting the value of the land. He asked A. what his land was worth. "Worth?—you say worth? Here are 3,000 acres that are worth nothing except they serve for a bridge for my cattle to pass on over to Brushy Branch for water."

This country lies between Columbia and Camden and is known as the Sand Hills. Elsewhere the people seem to be far ahead of our Newberry and Laurens people in their farming operations. They still feel their loss by Sherman's army, and some find it hard to forgive. Oh, they were horribly treated. The country is quiet and good health generally prevails.

Our little town is a very thrifty place; a fine cotton market, and as moral as any place I ever knew to its size, and is healthy. Come over and see. Wishing the Editor and HERALD and all connected success, I will close this ramble at Tribute of Respect.

AMITY LODGE, NO. 87, A. F. M.,
NEWBERRY, S. C., February 7th, 5876.

The Great Architect the Almighty God, has removed our beloved Brother, REUBEN SIMMS CHICK, from his completed labors in the Lodge below to his blissful and eternal rest in the Lodge above. God in His inscrutable, yet wise Providence, has seen fit to lay the parental hand of affection upon our Fraternity and we bow in humble resignation. Our departed brother closed his useful and exemplary life on the 4th day of February, A. L. 5876, to receive in Heaven above the welcome plaudit, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." His was the life of the good and upright, and his was "the death of the righteous." Therefore, be it resolved,

I. That in the death of our brother, REUBEN SIMMS CHICK, this Lodge and the Masonic Fraternity have lost a bright ornament and an unfailing support; and the County of Newberry and the State of South Carolina a truly good citizen and patriot, whose death we deeply deplore.

II. That with the family and friends of our deceased brother we join in sorrow for their irreparable loss, and tender to them our heartfelt sympathy.

III. That a page in the records of this Lodge be devoted to the memory of our deceased brother, whereon the Secretary shall enter the date of his birth and of his death.

IV. That the furniture and jewels of this Lodge be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days, and that the brethren wear the usual badge of mourning for the same time.

V. That a copy of these proceedings be presented to the bereaved widow of our deceased brother, and that the same be published in the newspapers of the town of Newberry.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

GREENVILLE AND COLUMBIA RAILROAD,
COLUMBIA, Jan. 1, 1876.

The following resolutions having been adopted by the stockholders of the Greenville and Columbia Railroad Company, at their annual meeting in Columbia on the 29th of April last:

Resolved, That for the more satisfactory arrangement of the Company's bond and general debt, authority is hereby given to the Board of Directors to create a First Mortgage on the road and property of the Greenville and Columbia Railroad Company, subject to the following conditions and restrictions:

That the amount of the mortgage shall not exceed three million dollars.

That not more than two millions five hundred thousand dollars of the bonds, made under the mortgage, be used for the arrangement or settlement of the debt. And,

That the balance, five hundred thousand dollars, be held in trust, applicable only to such acquisitions and additions to the property as have been authorized and approved by the stockholders—

The Board of Directors, in the exercise of the authority given to them by these resolutions, have executed a First Mortgage on the road and property of the Company to the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of the City of New York, in accordance therewith, and now offer for sale the Bonds made under the said mortgage at 75 per cent. cash, or the equivalents of that price in any of the Company's outstanding obligations in whole or in part. These Bonds are dated July 1st, 1875, bear interest at 7 per cent. and mature in twenty years. The Bonds and Coupons are payable in the city of New York.

Their superior claims to the confidence of capitalists are sufficiently established by the fact that the past exceptionally unfavorable year to Railroad interests exhibits—

The gross earnings of the Greenville and Columbia Railroad	$540,000
The current operating expenses	295,000
Leaving applicable to interest	$245,000
The confident expectation of the Board is that the $2,500,000 of Bonds now offered will absorb every obligation of the Company, and leave the net earnings as shown above, subject only to the charge of interest on these Bonds, which, at seven per cent, would be	175,000
Balance of earnings over expenses and interest	$ 70,000

Provision has also been made in the arrangement of the Bonds of this issue for their Registry at the option of the holders.

Any further information which may be desired will be furnished on application to the Treasurer, at the Company's Office, in this city.
