Since the war he has been engaged in the insurance business. He was a man of more than ordinary intelligence and culture, of fine address, and of a pleasant and genial disposition. The first rain, of any consequence, that the larger portion of this County has had since the 30th of May, fell Monday, the 1st. It was a good rain at the Court House and vicinity; and from the appearance of the clouds we suppose it was general.

The Summer Advance

Finds its way to our sanctum this week, and finds hearty greeting not only for its bright appearance and general excellence of get up, but on account of acquaintance with its proprietors. We do not think the low rates of advertising adopted are either wise or fair. Success to the Advance, however.

Satisfaction.

This is the dull season, but fortunately it only affects business, people become brighter, their wits are sharper, they are forced to think, to put this and that together. Sharp merchants prepare for the times, and sharp people keep their eyes open, and when they have to buy go where they can do the best. The signs of the times guides them. It is an incontestable fact that Kingsland & Heath, of Columbia, can give perfect satisfaction, not only in quality and variety but in prices. Their stock of china, glass, crockery and household goods cannot be excelled. Try them.

WADLEY, EMANUEL CO., GA.,

Oct. 10, 1879.

Gentlemen: While attending the General Assembly this summer, I tried your Star Curine on my leg, it being affected with an old sore caused by a wound received during the late war. After having thoroughly tested it I am compelled to say that it is a success, for I have had experience with different physicians and remedies, and found nothing to cure me, until I used your Star Curine, which has cured a remarkable bad case. Wishing you success, I am yours, respectfully,

JOHN BELL.

From C. D. McCurry, Newnan Co., Georgia.

I take great pleasure in recommending to the public Dr. Cluency's Expectant and Croup Preventive. My little son had been a great sufferer from spasmodic Croup during the night. Dr. Cluency, about two years ago, prescribed for him his Croup Preventive, which has most miraculously cured him. I find it equally beneficial in all cases of Coughs. I consider it a blessing in my family. Every one should keep it in their houses.

Try Smith's Scrofula Syrup for your blood. It removes all skin eruptions and will give you a beautiful and clear complexion. For sale by Dr. W. E. PELHAM.

Preaching to commence on Saturday at 11 o'clock.

The new Methodist Church will be dedicated on Sunday at 11 o'clock by Rev. J. B. Campbell, of Newberry. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

No Good Preaching.

No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a law suit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a little Hop Bitters.—Albany Times.

The Nimble Pistol.

A difficulty occurred at Hannah Church, near the Croft place, Thursday last between Coleman Hix and his son Frank Hix, on one side, and James Little on the other. Frank Hix shot Little in the head with a pistol, inflicting a wound that was at first supposed to be fatal, but which turns out not to be very serious. Hix shot twice, one shot missing its aim. The parties are all colored. The Hixes were committed to jail Friday to await the result of Little's wound.

A Woman's Missionary Society

Was organized at the Methodist Church Sunday. The following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. T. F. Greneker.

Vice-President—Mrs. S. F. Fant.

Recording Secretary—Miss Nellie Chapman.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Mary Pope.

Treasurer—Mrs. L. W. Simkins.

The Society will meet at the church to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Pomaria Dots.

Crops in the near vicinity of Pomaria have suffered terribly from the protracted drought. There are acres of corn near here that will not make a peck to the acre. Cotton has been out of very considerably, but by good seasons from now on and a late fall, it may mature; we may get a tolerably good "top" crop. But cotton is an uncertain crop. Our people seem troubled about the future. Food for man and beast will be very scarce. The ground is so dry that peas will not come up and hence we will miss our pea vine hay. But the Lord knows best and He will provide.

The Hendersonville Excursion.

The excursionists returned Saturday evening from Hendersonville, highly pleased with their trip. Mr. A. C. Jones did all in his power to make the trip a pleasant one, and the accommodations were just as good as on a regular passenger train. The hotels were too crowded to accommodate all the visitors; but the citizens of the place very kindly opened their houses, and all found comfortable quarters. The party spent Friday in driving around and in visiting Flat Rock, the French Broad, and other places of interest. Friday night a grand ball was given in Pelham's Skating Rink in honor of the excursionists. The mountain scenery along the Spartanburg & Asheville R. R., which was new to many, was greatly enjoyed.

The Drummer.

L. in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian, goes for "der drummer" with gloves off. While there is a large proportion of drummers who are gentlemen—in refinement, culture and good breeding—there are certainly some that fill the description given by L., as every one knows who has occasion to travel much on railroads or to stop at hotels. And, unfortunately for the better class of drummers, it is the rude, selfish, loud-mouthed, brazen fellow that is everywhere conspicuous—bound to be seen and heard—that gives a bad reputation to the class.

Taking drummers as a whole we believe they are as good as other men; and it is very uncharitable to vilify a whole class because some of the number are not what they ought to be. There have been many ministers of the gospel detected in very vile behavior; yet L. (who is no doubt a minister) would feel it a great injustice should any one judge ministers as a whole by these isolated cases.

A Grave Charge.

Mr. Jno. Sheppard, of Helena, swore out a warrant a few days ago before Trial Justice Carlisle, charging Mr. N. B. Davenport, a wealthy and respected planter of this County, with grand larceny. The preliminary examination was held the 27th ultimo. Mr. Sheppard testified that he went to Mr. Davenport's 14th to buy a cow; that he paid for the cow while sitting on a bench in Mr. Davenport's porch; that he took out two parcels of money at the time and laid them on the porch, one containing two $20 gold pieces; that he did not pay out of this parcel, but out of the other; that he then went to the pasture and drove the cow home; that at night he missed the gold; that he had no recollection of having had it since being at Mr. Davenport's. The next morning, accompanied by his son Jno. W. and Mr. Geo. Ropp, he went back to Mr. Davenport's; called him out and asked him if he had seen the gold, describing the parcel; a little son of Mr. Davenport's standing by said, "I found something like that," when Mr. Davenport turned to him, and said, "Hush; you know nothing about it." Being asked about his servants, Mr. Davenport said there were only two on the premises that day, one was sick, and the other was as honest as anybody. Mr. Sheppard then said that if the money were not found he intended to get a detective and investigate the matter; and Mr. Davenport asked him how long he would give.

Returned.

Hendersonville and all its attractions was left on Saturday last, and we are at home again and at work; but we cannot return to the humdrum of every day life without an expression of the great pleasure experienced during the four weeks of our sojourn in that delightful mountain retreat, our only feeling of regret being that while we were in the enjoyment of that cool, invigorating atmosphere, you, dear reader, were sweltering in the heat of this low-lying region. Hendersonville is the most healthful and charming summer retreat in our whole country and is now filled with guests not only from this State, but from Georgia, Florida and other Southern States, so much so that the want of more ample hotel accommodation is seriously felt. The hotel keepers, among whom we mention our friend Chase, do all that they can to make their guests comfortable, but often find it difficult to find room to put away the crowds which nightly arrive, and yet, notwithstanding they are always full, they find some place for the tired traveler. On the other hand it is pleasant to say that there is no lack of table comforts; the supply of good things is limitless, and not once during our stay did we notice any falling off. The citizens, too, very generously throw wide open their doors for the reception of guests and spare no pains to make their stay pleasant. We do not mention the crowded condition of Hendersonville to deter others from going there, for room can be found for many hundreds more, and we advise our friends, if they have the time and means, to make the trip, feeling satisfied that they will have no cause to regret it. In conclusion we have never in the same space of time had more
