

Special and Local. THURSDAY AUGUST 23, 1883. SPECIAL NOTICE—Business notices in this local column are inserted at the rate of 15 cents per line each insertion.

THE NEWBERRY HERALD HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN TOWN, COUNTY AND STATE.

This paper may be found on file at Geo. P. Howell & Co's Newspaper Advertising Bureau (10 Spruce St.) where advertising contracts may be made for it in New York.

Mr. L. S. Bowers, postmaster, at Prosperity, is our authorized agent at that place.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Greenville Military Institute.—Jno. B. Patrick. Day West Female College.—J. P. Kennedy.

Death. Died in this county on the instance of James R. Somley in his 23rd year.

The deceased was a most estimable young man, a native of Abbeville County, having removed here about a year ago to clerk for Mr. J. O. Havird; this position he was compelled by his illness recently to leave, and he died at his mother's—Mrs. Sally Halfacre; which rest he found only in death.

He was afflicted from childhood in other ways also than by consumption, and this combination of afflictions wrought in him, as afflictions often do, the placid and cheerful Christian character.

The funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon last, by the Rev. Mr. McClintock, at the Associate Reformed church of this town, and the remains interred at Rosemont Cemetery.

Lime. 110 bbls. Fresh Stone Lime, of superior quality, just from the Kilns at S. P. BOOZER'S, aug. 1, 31—4t.

Wood Wanted. Pine and oak wanted at the HERALD office, it will be taken in exchange for subscription to the HERALD office.

I have known and watched the use of Swift's Specific (S. S.) for over fifty years, and never have known or heard of its failure to cure any case of Blood Poison where properly taken.

H. L. DENNARD, PERTY, Ga. 33—1m.

Protracted Meeting. The Rev. A. A. Gilbert requests us to give the following notice: "The protracted meeting of Hopewell Church, North Newberry Circuit, will commence Saturday next (25th), Prof. W. W. Duncanson will preach Saturday at 11 o'clock and Sunday at 11."

Another Invitation. We acknowledge receiving an invitation from Mrs. J. A. Long to a picnic at Bethel Academy on the 24th. We fear we must number this with many other pleasant occasions of like kind, which had health been deprived of us enjoying. If not present in person, however, we will be in spirit.

Broke His Leg. On Wednesday last J. M. Crowell was working in his saw mill, when one of his legs was accidentally caught in the carriage. Before he could extricate himself the leg was broken. The injured member was quite badly shattered. Dr. Stoddard set the limb, removing several pieces of bone.—Greenville News.

Catalogue. A very neat catalogue of the Clinton College and High School for the present year, comes to us bearing the imprint of the Clinton Printing House. We are pleased to see this evidence of improvement in the Art Typographic. There are 85 students in the college. Rev. Wm. F. Jacobs is the President, and Prof. W. S. Lee, A. M., in charge of the Collegiate Department.

A Serious Accident. Mr. J. Aiken Keller, a son of Mrs. F. A. Keller, while out hunting on last Saturday, was accidentally shot by a negro who was along with him. The whole load entered both thighs and inflicted a very painful wound. We are glad to hear, however, that he is doing very well under the circumstances. Mr. Keller is a student of Newberry College, and a youth of considerable promise.—Times and Democrat.

An Early Fall. Naturalists and hunters predict an early fall this year. It is said that several species of migratory birds which usually pass through this section on their way south about the middle of September, have been killed in the suburbs and on the islands, being a month in advance of their usual time. The large congregation of swallows, too, is pointed out as another indication of the approach of the fall season.—News and Courier.

The Knife and the Stick. A difficulty occurred last Friday between Ex-member of the legislature and ex-burgmaster, Thomas Keit, col., and Mr. Bartow Caldwell, during which Keit was cut in several places by Mr. Caldwell with a pocket knife. The latter received some severe blows on the arm from a stick in Keit's hand, breaking the small bone of the arm. The wounds, though painful, are none of them considered dangerous. The difficulty arose out of a dispute about some hay.

OBITUARY. "Life is a span, a fleeting hour; How soon the vapor rises; Man is a tender, transient flow; That e'en in blooming days."

Died July 15th, near Beth Eden, of Congestion of the Brain, Rufus Carlisle, infant son of Albert C. and Amelia Sligh, aged 2 years and 7 months. The little sufferer was sick but two days and a night. His death creates a vacancy in the hearts of his parents that is hard to bear. May the grace of God enable them to resign to His will, and submit to His decree. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. Of such is the kingdom of heaven. J. D. SHIRLEY.

MOTHERS FRIEND Quick and Easy Child-Birth. This is the most wonderful medicine ever known to cure the most distressing and dangerous diseases of women. It is a safe and reliable remedy for all cases of difficult labor, and is the only medicine that can be taken during pregnancy without any danger to the mother or child. It is sold by all druggists and is the only medicine that is guaranteed to cure.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS. They are compounded of Roots, Herbs and Gems of the most healing and beneficial kind. As a Family Medicine they are unrivalled, curing Head-ache, Constipation, Liver Complaint, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia—clearing the blood of all impurities—acting on the Liver, Kidneys and other important organs, removing the waste matter of the system to the liver of all who use them.

A Perfect Remedy in 20 Diseases. ANFIELD, MASS. I am verging on eighty years, and deem it my duty to suffering humanity to say that my long life is due to BRANDRETH'S PILLS which have been my sole medicine for half a century. I know the last forty-three years of my life costing solely to their use. Your PILLS saved me many times after the best medical skill in several States had given me up as hopeless. I have had many conversions to religion with BRANDRETH'S PILLS, and have seen them perform almost miracles of cure. For children, a few doses have cured measles, scarlet fever, and whooping cough. In all female troubles and weakness, I have never known them to fail. In adult males I have known them to cure the worst cases of dyspepsia, rheumatism, kidney diseases, dizziness and diarrhoea; even dropsy, paralysis and apoplexy have yielded to a persistent course of BRANDRETH'S PILLS. In fact I have found them the true Life Elixir. They set us continual preventives against the effects of time, disease, and labor. JOHN H. MANN.

Misses Kate and Alice Mayer, after a pleasant visit of two or three weeks to friends at Lexington C. H., returned home last Friday.

Mr. E. W. Thomason has removed his auctioneering establishment to the store under the Opera House once occupied by the Messrs. Koppel.

Hon. Y. J. Pope absent from the town on a business trip to New York, is expected back to-morrow. Alderman Hunt occupies the Mayor's chair during his absence.

The Rev. R. D. Smart reached Greenville on Saturday last. He is the guest of Mr. Bowman. He is one of the most thorough and progressive young chemists and mining engineers in the State.

Mr. G. A. Maffett returned from his Western trip Monday—full of it. He said he and Mr. Goree were in the fifth story of the Kimball House when it caught; that Goree was frightened terribly, but he got a bit. On the return from Louisville he left Mr. Goree at Chattanooga.

Postmaster Boone left Tuesday for Baltimore where he will seek medical advice as to a troublesome throat. During his absence, his worthy lieutenants, Messrs. Gus. Housell and James Kinard efficiently discharge the duties of the Postoffice.

Miss Julia Hunter went Tuesday to her uncle's Mr. Jacob L. Aull—to be present at the nuptials of her cousin, Miss Rowena Aull, who marries Mr. Daniel, formerly a student of Newberry college, now a Methodist minister.

The Rev. A. A. Gilbert, and his son, the Rev. Thomas Gilbert, of the South Carolina Conference, preached the first in the morning, and the second in the evening, at the George Street Methodist church, on Sunday the 12th inst. at New Haven, Conn. The Register of that city says that both sermons were interesting.

Mr. Kelly, one of the great team engineers in the Newberry store of Mr. D. C. Flynn, has been called to the Union store. We understood that Mr. Flynn will open another first-class store in the town of Anderson. It will require considerable tact and no little vim to run three stores, but as he is a largely a self-made man, we are confident we look soon for him to be ranked among the South Carolina millionaires.

Chappells Chaps. Since the rains everything has put on new life; cotton and corn are doing finely and we in this section hope to make at least 75¢ of a crop.

Chappells is now dignified with a dancing school. Prof. Berger, the dancing master of the South, is with us and will open a school this week.

For several nights past the hunter's horn has been heard in the land. Twice have we been aroused from sweet slumbers to join the chase after old Reynard, and although a hundred hounds bayed deep and strong and a hundred voices cheered them on, sly Reynard proved himself too wily and each time gained his liberty.

We are represented at the grand exposition by Mr. George T. Reid and family.

Mr. Robert Williams and family who were at home a few days last week have returned to the Mountain City to stay until frost.

The protracted meeting which has been in progress at Cross Roads for several days has been well attended and characterised by great religious zeal.

Ben Hutchison and Rubie Greenwood, two colored youths, "hitched" Monday about ten cents. Hutchison was laid out by a brick-bat on the head from the hands of Greenwood, and continued for some time in a comatose state, but the negro skull is usually finally triumphed over rock, and Hutchison awoke.

The members of the Hook and Ladder company, which are doing so much of help in getting their uniforms, subscription lists have been at Messrs. W. T. Tarrant's, B. H. Cline & Co.'s, and Edward Scholtz's; and all are united to lend a helping hand. An uniform is necessary to give spirit to the company.

A correspondent of the News and Courier, writing about the "Southern Belle" and Beau mentions our townsman Col. Chris. Suber and the Hon. George Johnston. "Chris" has already made his fame there, hence he is spoken of as "the familiar face of that popular gentleman." Col. Johnston has just entered that arena of fashionable Southern society and bids fair there soon to shine.

Messrs. J. B. Clary & Co. ran an excursion train from Prosperity to Greenville last Friday, returning Monday afternoon.

The length of their stay in Greenville prevented their undertaking being a success financially. They, however, had a very enjoyable trip. From Greenville they went on to Caesar's Head.

education. Woman, he thought, should be taught in the school to do every thing that she is called upon to do in the domestic relations; the mechanic's bench should be in the school and the boy taught a trade. In the moral and physical phases of education the free school system was deficient.

The distinguished Secretary of State, Col. Lipscomb, followed Col. Aiken and was like him opposed to the free school system—indeed he was opposed to any governmental education. The auto bellum system that produced such "Dollie" was good enough for him. He closed his speech with an earnest appeal to the whites to educate their children at their own expense; in the private school, they would receive better training morally, mentally and physically.

The State Senator from Edgefield, Col. Allison, closed the argument. He made a strong appeal for the free school system. Until a better scheme could be devised he was in favor of giving hearty support to that system. His remarks on education generally were most eloquent. We do not like to appear invidious, but must say that we heard it whispered that Edgefield, as usual, carried off the palm. An excellent dinner closed the performance.

We appreciate your remarks last evening on the death of our estimable citizen, James W. Williams. QUANTUM.

Various and all About. Good rains at last. The weather is delightful. Sow turnips, plant Irish potatoes. An excursion from Columbia to Greenville yesterday. Harriet Simkins, a respectable old colored woman, died Tuesday night.

We saw a man the other day who was all voice. He needs squelching. Get your land ready for oats and barley and sow largely when the fine comes for sowing.

We are anxiously waiting the time when a little money will be paid in on subscriptions.

Mr. Robert Moorman has an addition to his family. He is not a mother but a father this time. A fine boy.

Clean your premises of all dead vegetable matter and all other filth, otherwise the rains will produce sickness.

Editors and printers all complain of the heat, therefore it must be hot when such uncomplaining men as they are say so.

Dr. Cannon tells us that his neighborhood gives an old fashion, free "one" to-day, at John Calvin's. Thanks for an "invite."

The congregation of Smyrna Church, Newberry County, has extended a call to the Rev. Walter Query, of Lancaster. News and Courier.

The infantine wall is also heard at Mr. William Johnson's. A fine specimen again—bearing the name of James McIntosh Johnson.

Dr. A. Page, Rushmore, O., says: "I have prescribed Brown's Iron Bitters in several instances, and in each case obtained good results."

Do you want to make glad the heart of one of the best men in town? Pay up your subscription to the HERALD, and he will skip like a lamb.

Our office is now supplied with all the essentials to do first-class work, and that at a low price. We have a large lot of paper, cards and envelopes to select from.

Look at the date next your name on the HERALD and you will see if your time of subscription has expired or not. You will confer a favor on the editor by looking.

Prof. Hawkins, the blind music teacher, of Newberry, was in town Wednesday night. He gave a musical entertainment at Capt. Lewis's.—Greenville News.

We hear that Mr. Henry H. Bleese and Fred K. Werber, Jr., Esq., have applied to the Governor to be appointed to the office of Trial Justice made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Packer.

Now is the time to have your bill note heads and other kinds of Job Printing done. If you want cheap work, good work, and expeditious work, bring your orders to the HERALD office.

There seems to be a sore feet epidemic going the rounds among the children. There is a good thing about it—they can't wear shoes—as they should not in the summer. Good, not only for the children, but also for their parents' pockets.

Maffett, in narrating his Western experience, said "a river boatman took me three-quarters of a mile out on the Ohio for twenty-five cents. One of his audience remarked "Yes, and he would have drowned you for two dollars and a half."

The September Eclectic offers a splendid table of contents. It is the best magazine of its kind we receive, and is worthy a place on every table in the land. Published by E. E. Falson, 25 Bond Street, New York. Terms 25 cents per year; single copy 45 cents.

Ben Hutchison and Rubie Greenwood, two colored youths, "hitched" Monday about ten cents. Hutchison was laid out by a brick-bat on the head from the hands of Greenwood, and continued for some time in a comatose state, but the negro skull is usually finally triumphed over rock, and Hutchison awoke.

Col. F. W. Dawson is once more at the helm of the News and Courier, having returned from the old country, where he has been travelling for the last ten months—principally on the Continent. He returns, we trust, renewed in body and no doubt inspired by the scenes of his travel—thoroughly equipped to achieve fresh and greater editorial fame.

By the way the Greenville News feels now that United States Senators will not be too rashly made.

The Right Hon. John Duke Colebridge, Baron Hieron, Lord Chief Justice of England, is now on the ocean bound for this country. He is grandnephew of the poet, Samuel Taylor Coleridge, sixty-two years of age, and a man of eminent judicial and social qualities. He ought to call on Judge Heller while here.

The watermelon season in New York is virtually at an end. The receipts from Southern ports have been 414,898 melons, which were sold at wholesale at from 62 to 9 cents apiece.

Mr. Silas Feaster who wrote to the New York News Co. will please call at the Newberry HERALD office, and get the information desired. That company having written to us on the subject.

"D. D. W." writing from Woodruff's, S. C., to the Greenville News, says: "Dr. Cannon, from Newberry, has been up with a view of purchasing a house here. We hope he will cast in his lot with us."

The doctor says he likes that country very much, but that the property-owners at Woodruff have "their sights a little too high."

There is a laudable effort on foot to organize here a society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. A meeting for this purpose will be held at an early day, of which due notice will be given. Mr. W. H. Hunt, Jr. has with much appropriateness taken the initiative in this matter. We say appropriateness, for it is to his uncle, Gen. Ike Hunt, that the society of this kind in Greenville owes its origin and present useful existence.

Last week we mentioned that Dr. Simpson had been beaten, and that the cause of the beating was unknown. The following special to the Sunday News gives the cause:

WINNSBORO, S. C., August 18.—The circumstances giving rise to the recent assault upon Dr. Isaiah Simpson, a dentist of this place are as follows: About the year 1874, or a little earlier, Dr. Simpson took into his family a white orphan girl, who was then somewhat over six years of age. There she remained until last October, when she left under circumstances giving rise to the suspicion that there had been improper relations between Simpson and herself. In June last it was reported that the girl had become a mother in North Carolina. Simpson, when approached upon the subject, acknowledged his crime. He was at once expelled from the church of which he was a member.

On the night of the 8th inst., as Simpson was returning from prayer meeting, in company with his sister, he was approached by a party of masked men, numbering six or eight, and was miserably beaten. He was taken to his home, and he is now turning out, not very severely beaten. Two of the men laid hold of the lady, holding her in order to prevent her interference. She was somewhat bruised, it is said, but she was not hurt and not hurt. The party gave Simpson notice that he must leave town in ten days. A day or two afterwards he did leave, having first sold all his property here. He has not been seen since.

The universal feeling in the community upon Simpson's conduct, is one of the utmost indignation and disgust. There is no one who attempts to palliate his crime in the slightest degree. This community have been especially outraged by his producing a letter purporting to come from the ruined girl, in which she assumes the blame of the disgraceful affair. As to the assault, so sympathetically felt for Simpson, though, by some, it is thought that the time was ill chosen. There is general disapproval of the seizing of the lady.

Gentlemen:—The bottle of Norman's Neutralizing Cordial you sent me to test, I think has benefited the case which I administered to so much so that I am inclined to continue its use. If you will send me another bottle by express to Ailsen and prepay charges, I hope to be prepared ten or fifteen days hence to give you a certificate that it is a good medicine in the treatment of the diseases which it is recommended to relieve. I will forward the money as soon as I hear from you. Very Respectfully, J. M. GLENN, M. D.

Postal Card II. WALLACEVILLE, FAIRFIELD CO., S. C. May 19th, 1883.

Gentlemen:—The cases in which I prescribed Norman's Neutralizing Cordial, the results have been satisfactory. I would advise every family to keep a bottle of it in their medicine chest, as it is a good medicine of all stomach and bowel irregularities. Very Respectfully, J. M. GLENN, M. D.

A colored man on the plantation of Mr. J. J. Ziegler, seven miles from here, went to the field yesterday morning at 6 o'clock to shoot some squirrels that were eating his corn. He saw a squirrel on the fence and walked towards it, and so intent was he on the killing of the squirrel, that he passed a rattlesnake and was bitten without knowing it. He shot the squirrel and then shot the snake, when he began to feel the bite. He started for his home, which was about a half mile distant, but could not reach it without the assistance of a companion. Only a pint of whiskey could be had in the immediate neighborhood, and a man was sent to Midway to get more whiskey and a doctor, but before the whiskey and the doctor arrived the man was dead.—Cor.
