The Wadlington Will Case. It will be remembered that letters of administration were granted to Jos. L. Kelt and Thos. W. Kelt on the personal estate of Thos. B. Wadlington who died in Dec. 1882.

An issue was framed for the jury to this effect: "Did Thomas B. Wadlington, last will and testament substantially the same as that propounded by the plaintiffs?"

The Judge delivered an able charge of some length, and the jury retired between 7 and 8 o'clock. After remaining out somewhat less than an hour, they returned with the verdict "No," thereby finding in favor of the defendants and sustaining Judge Felton's decision.

We have never known any other civil case to excite half so much interest as was manifested during the progress of this. Even during the night sessions—for the trial was carried into the night—the crowd in the Court House continued large, and the interest was unabated till the close of the trial.

The case was argued by Messrs. Geo. Johnston, Thos. S. Moorman, and LeRoy F. Youmans, for the plaintiffs, and Messrs. J. F. J. Caldwell, Y. J. Pope, and C. H. Soper for the defendants.

The jury at first stood two to ten, but the two yielded, and two ten made a verdict.
