FREE EDUCATION. The subject of free education, seems, at this particular time, to occupy and absorb to a considerable extent, public attention.

This election year seems to call forth, in an eminent degree, the philanthropy of all classes, more especially that of politicians manifesting itself in the eager desire of those persons to elevate their fellow men of all classes, colors and conditions, in the scale of intelligence and consequent prosperity.

There are some views of this free education which appear encouraging and others which assume a questionable character. All laws enacted are supposed, by the enactors, to conduce to the public weal of the country for which they are made.

The Georgia young ladies continue to have many admirers, and if friend Richard had not made a large crop of oats we do not see how he could feed so many horses for the young men.

Miss Janie Chalmers, Messrs. Wm. C. Sligh and J. C. Butler, were elected delegates to County S. S. Convention, from the Jalapa S. S.

The annual Picnic, at Mrs. Harp's, on Saturday last was enjoyed by many; dancing in the gym house, little folks playing in the dwelling, young men playing base ball in a pasture, and the candidates speaking in a grove, besides an unusual good dinner, made up the programme, which afforded merriment to all.

A little colored child was found dead in a bed on Mr. G. W. L. Spearman's place on Sunday morning.

A year's subscription to the HERALD will be given by us, to any one giving us a receipt to destroy a green worm now devouring our cabbage.

A shower of rain is now much needed. Candidates are urged not to forget me on the 19th day of August.

W. H. HUNT JR., Chairman G. G. G. Sec'y.

For the Herald. A Card From Mr. Sligh. The following language in Mr. Pope's late reply to Mr. J. L. Keitt's article places Rev. J. A. Sligh in a false position and thereby does him an injustice.

"Mr. Jefferson A. Sligh had heard this charge and his club so voted, though it is just justice to the last named gentleman to say that I am reliably informed that he was not present at the meeting of his club."

The above language, with that which precedes is calculated to mislead those who are not well acquainted with the facts; as the natural inference is, that Mr. Sligh, having heard this charge, communicated it to his club and that his club was influenced thereby to vote against Mr. Johnston.

We, the undersigned delegates to the late County Convention from club No. 1, Township 10, certify that Mr. Sligh was not only absent from the meeting of our club, but that he has not at any time communicated the said charge against Mr. Johnston to any of us and so far as our knowledge goes to any member of our club, and that the club was not in possession of the charge at the time of our meeting.

JALAPA ITEMS. Four of our Willies are to day soiling, they anticipate catching many pounds of fish. That croupy Willie has again ventured into the water.

Mr. E. P. Matthews' crop of Apples is estimated at one thousand bushels. Ezekiel made in one day 30 gallons of cider, of which he shared liberally with us.

Our Jalapa Sunday School continues to flourish; on yesterday the house was filled to its utmost capacity, we noticed eighteen members in the Bible Class, and with so good workers as Mrs. S. E. Kinard, Mrs. Alma Merchant, Mr. Fayette Spearman, Mr. Wm. C. Sligh and others, it will continue to be prosperous.

The Georgia young ladies continue to have many admirers, and if friend Richard had not made a large crop of oats we do not see how he could feed so many horses for the young men.

Tributes to Thos. E. Greneker. Perhaps seldom, if ever before, has death and its shadow so fully affected the common heart of our community as on the recent demise of Mr. T. EDWARD GRENEKER, the eldest son of Mr. T. F. Greneker, of the Newberry Herald, who departed this life at 5 o'clock on the morning of July 15, 1884, in the 19th year of his age, and after an illness of three weeks.

A few brief months ago, while yet a boy, all unconscious of care, he came quickly to realize the feeble condition of his father's health, and bravely and cheerfully took the burden of business from his father's mind, assuming himself the responsibilities of the office. To the gentle, frank and courteous bearing of the boy he added the firm, confident reliance of the man, and at once began a bright and useful business course. He entered as fast and so far as he could into all the business and social relations of the community, identifying himself with its interests, zealously discharging his duty in their behalf, and drawing towards him a host of true-hearted friends. Like a many-sided jewel he was rapidly unfolding beautiful traits; but, alas! they are all extinguished. Yet, as the youngest journalist in the State, his career was brilliant as it has been brief.

His last term is made up and presented to the Master Workman. Will he not pronounce it justified? No longer the music of his footfall breaks the stillness of the home he loved so well, for he hath mounted the golden corridor that leadeth to the land of the dead, where his splendid talents, his virtues and his graces shall have full play in that perfect life beyond!

This has he passed away! In the vigor of youth, handsome, happy-hearted, in easy circumstances, surrounded by devoted friends, to whom he was loyal, and with no regrets and no blot upon his life's ledger, he stood in the beautiful vista, and, beckoning the pale boatman, said: "I am ready to depart from the land of the living."

He was followed to the grave by a very large cortege of sorrowing friends to whom, as the silent years roll by, the memory of his glad young life shall be fragrant as ointment poured forth.

THOMAS EDWARD GRENEKER, eldest son of Mr. T. F. Greneker, of Newberry, died Friday morning, the 15th instant, of typhoid fever, in the 19th year of his age.

We have known few young men who have started out in life with brighter prospects of a useful and honorable career. Notwithstanding his youth, he had already shown decided talents for business, being industrious and energetic, and was looked upon in Newberry as one of our most promising young men. Since the first of May last he had been the sole manager and one of the editors of the Newberry Herald—his father, on account of ill health, having turned over to him its entire management. This trust he had done credit to in every respect, and was especially gratifying to his father and his friends. Socially he was a favorite with young and old, his happy, cheerful disposition made him a pleasant companion among those of his own age, and his uniform courtesy and gentlemanly bearing won him the respect of all. The death of a young man of such character and such promise is a public calamity. The bereaved family, in their sad affliction, have the profound sympathy of the entire community.—Observer.

Tribute of Respect. ORDER NO. 3. NEWBERRY RIFLES. T. EDWARD GRENEKER a member of the Newberry Rifles, departed this life on the 15th day of July, 1884, at the age of 19 years.

Spent young in years his life was spent in such a manner as should cause emulation and admiration, and high esteem of all who knew him. Thoroughly earnest and honest in all good things that his young hands found to do, his loss to us is not only great, but his place in ranks will not easily be filled. It is therefore meet and proper that we should do something in his memory to pay that last tribute which is due to departed worth.

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that a committee of three be appointed to prepare a suitable preamble and resolutions to commemorate the death of our deceased brother.

O. L. SCHUMPERT, Capt. Newberry Rifles. J. W. TAYLOR, Ord. Serg't.

ARMORY NEWBERRY RIFLES. In accordance with the above order, at a meeting of the Newberry Rifles, the following preamble and resolutions were read and adopted:

WHEREAS, An All-wise Providence has seen fit to remove from our midst one of our noblest and bravest soldiers, 5th Sergeant, T. EDWARD GRENEKER.

RESOLVED: That in his death we have lost a true and noble soldier and companion, and the Newberry Rifles have lost a faithful and efficient officer.

RESOLVED: That a page in the minute book of the Company be inscribed with his name, age, and date of his death.

RESOLVED: That we sincerely sympathize with his family in their sore distressed bereavement.

RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and that they be published in the county papers.

J. E. BROWN, 1st Lieut. R. D. SMITH, 2nd " G. B. MCWHIRTER, 3d Corp. Com.

Tribute of Lotus Club. WHEREAS: The Almighty and All-wise Disposer of things has, through his wisdom and power, removed from the midst of us our associate, THOMAS EDWARD GRENEKER, and the esteem which he won from us during his connection with the Lotus Club, prompts us to give expression to our high regard for him, as well as to declare our acquiescence in the ways of Providence, therefore, resolutions be presented to the bereaved family.

Gold in Our Old Fields. When we consider the health to be better than wealth, then must we consider the old field mullin better than gold—at least the medical world so recognizes it, and attests its merits over cod liver oil for lung troubles, made in a tea and combined with sweet gum, it presents in Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullin, a pleasant and effective cure for Croup, Whooping-cough, Colds and Consumption. Sold by all druggists at 25c and $1.00 a bottle.

The Hackberry Cordial. For a long time it was thought that the hackberry was only for table use, but it was known during the late war that in the shape of a cordial it was superior to the blackberry. Dr. Biggers' Hackberry Cordial is the GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY for restoring the little one from the effects of teething and croup, whooping-cough, and all bowel affections. For sale by all druggists at 50 cents a bottle.

The result of the Primary Election in Aiken is as follows: For Senate, John M. Bell; for Representative, E. P. Woodward, J. G. Guignard, Jos. Aldrich, A. S. Slight, W. G. Q. Davis, C. E. Sawyer; for Sheriff, M. T. Holley; Clerk of Court, W. M. Jordan; School Com., R. H. Harley; Prob. Judge, John T. Gaston; Auditor, D. H. Wise; Treasurer, J. G. Murry; Coroner, Wm. H. Harden.

To this end the publishers have engaged on the work a corps of skilled designers and engravers to elegantly and profusely illustrate the lives of these eminent men, now so prominently before the people.
