

Proceedings of the Union Republican Convention of South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, July 26, 1867—The Convention met at 10 o'clock, A. M.

A communication was received from Mr. L. Booser, of Lexington, regretting that the state of his health prevented his attendance at the Convention.

President Gleaves announced that the Convention had proceeded thus far harmoniously and pleasantly.

The platform adopted was democratic, not aristocratic; it was for the benefit of the poor man as well as the rich man.

Gen. Sheridan has removed Gov. Throckmorton, of Texas, on the charge of his being an obstruction in the reconstruction of that State, and has appointed E. M. Pease to succeed him.

LONDON, July 28.—Japan advices via Hong Kong, report the American ship Anna Kimball as seized and heavily lashed by the Commander of the American squadron, for a violation of the treaty stipulations between the United States and China, in bringing a cargo of rice from a port not open to trade.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Senator Romero, Mexican Minister, departs on leave of absence, next month, for home. He has been on duty here for eight years.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—General Grant has ordered additional troops to Tennessee, and ordered General Thomas to distribute his forces so as to secure order.

Official as well as private accounts represent great danger from outrages in all parts of Tennessee. On Thursday, General Thomas telegraphed the President that he had ordered all the troops from Kentucky.

It is officially announced that Otterburg is in charge of affairs in Mexico. A despatch from Ellsworth, Kansas, reports fifteen cases and five deaths of cholera.

The President undoubtedly intends transferring Sheridan to other duty. Internal Revenue receipts, to-day, $1,189,000.

The Freedmen's Bureau has advices that the extreme destitution in the South and South-west has ceased. The issue of rations, except to hospitals, orphan asylums, and in extreme cases will cease August 20.

RECEIPTS. The following persons have paid on their subscription to the Union, as follows: Lemuel Hendricks, $1.25; Albert McCarry, 2.50; Maj. Geo. Seaborn, 2.00; J. B. E. Sloan & Co., 2.50; J. B. Sloan, 1.25; J. B. Snellgrove, 1.25; A. J. Perry, .50.

MARRIED, on Sunday evening, the 28th ult., at the residence of W. H. Barrett, by J. B. SASSERS, Esq., MR. WM. G. LEAVELLES to MISS SUSAN G. BURDITT, all of Pickens.

GLoucester, Mass., July 30.—A series of gas explosions occurred in the cellar of the Mansion House, last night, and burned seriously fifteen or twenty firemen; one died.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The following was issued to-day, addressed to District Attorneys and Marshals of the United States: ATT'Y GENERAL'S OFFICE, July 30.

By direction of the President of the United States, you are hereby instructed to observe with vigilance all persons who you have reason to suspect of combining unlawfully for expeditions into the territory of any foreign nation, and to promptly interpose the authority of the United States, when you have probable cause for believing that any person has violated the neutrality laws of the United States.
