

LOCAL MATTERS.

The sheriff advertises valuable property for sale this week.

Prof. Riley addressed the Synod of South Carolina, on the 4th instant, in behalf of Adger College.

We had light frosts on the mornings of November 4th and 5th—the first of the season and the latest making its appearance for many years.

The rain fell in copious showers on Sunday night, Monday and Tuesday night and to-day (Tuesday) it is still raining. The earth is now pretty wet in this section of country.

Mr. Luke Lee and Dr. W. F. Wright have each a contract to build a certain number of miles of the Georgia Pacific Railroad, now in course of construction, and will leave here in a few days to commence their work.

Parting in the Lutheran Church on next Sunday morning in English by Rev. Dr. Smeltzer, after which the confirmation of several members and the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be celebrated. The public are invited.

Elijah Foster, one of the oldest citizens of the county died on Sunday last. He had suffered greatly from rheumatism for several years past. Mr. Foster was an honest, hard working man, and was much respected by all who knew him.

We regret to chronicle the death from typhoid fever, on the 24th instant, of W. A. Addington, which occurred at his home near Franklin, N. C. Mr. Addington was formerly a citizen of our town and doing business here and his many friends will regret to hear of his demise.

Mrs. A. Atkinson, of Williamston, S. G., writes us that Mr. Christopher Johns, her brother, was a native of Columbia, instead of Abbeville, as announced by us last week in noticing Mr. Jones' death, and that he was 66 years old.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the "Clark's Mile End Spool Cotton" in another column. This thread, for machine or hand use, is pronounced by those who have used it to be equal to no superior to any spool thread that is made. It is to be found in most of our stores and its use is becoming quite general throughout our county. Messrs. Ervin & Verner, Wallhalla, are the wholesale agents of this thread and can supply the retail trade at short notice.

J. B. Sanders, Esq., in another column this week announces himself as deputy surveyor and notary public and is prepared to write deeds, mortgages, take dowries and do other kinds of similar work at short notice. Mr. Sanders is well known to our people and needs no recommendation at our hands. Whatever he undertakes to do he will do to the best of his ability. The many land papers executed by him in this county attest his ability and fitness as a surveyor. Read his card elsewhere and when you have papers to fix up give Mr. Sanders a call at Oakway, S. C.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

If you want something that is good in the way of pure liquors go to Biemann's Bar and drink F. W. Wagener & Co.'s "Old Crow" rye whiskey.

I have a nice lot of clothing which I will sell at reduced prices. I am compelled to raise some money. Come and examine my stock. J. M. CAFFER.

If you want bargains in boots and other goods call on J. M. Carter, at Westminster, whose prices are lower than ever before.

ALMOST YOUNG AGAIN.—My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy, inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians and medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A lady in Providence, R. I.—Journal.

WASHINGTON, November 2.—Treasury gossip has it that the advent of Judge Folger will soon be followed by a general cleaning out of the disreputable ring that has fastened and intrenched on that department for the last few years. It is said that a number of high subordinates will lose their heads or be transferred to other fields of usefulness. These rumors cause some disquietude among the officers whose names have been associated with the alleged Treasury ring. They are beginning to get their political influence together to resist the expected inquiry and its legitimate results. They proved too strong for Secretary Windom and expect to beat any reform which may be inaugurated by Secretary Folger.—From the Philadelphia Times.

THE TRUE METHOD.—The world, if ever it is to be reformed by men, and through men, can only be so by the personal intercourse of living men—living epistles, not dead ones. Love, meekness, kindness, forbearance, unselfishness, manifested in human souls, uttering themselves by word, look and deed, and not by mere description of these sentiments, or essays upon them, can alone regenerate man. Neither money, nor schools, nor churches can ever be substituted for living men. Not ministers going their rounds like policemen, with black clothes and white neckties, nor elders taking statistics, nor deacons giving alms, or ladies, treating all good; but we want Christians, whether they be smiths or shoemakers, or tailors, or grocers, or coach drivers, or advocates, to remember their own responsibilities, their own immense influence for good, and to be personal ministers for good.

THE RAILROADS.—The Richmond and Danville Syndicate, without the fear of our railroad commissioners before their eyes, leased last week the road from Statesville to Charlotte, upon which our Charlotte friends congratulated themselves upon the fact that that city would be made the terminus of the Western North Carolina Railroad. It is now rumored the same syndicate are about to lease, or have leased, the Carolina Central Railway, from Charlotte to Wilmington. If so, this will make Wilmington our city by the sea, and the only point on our coast available for a seaport, the terminus of our Western North Carolina Railroad. It will not surprise us if the much abused Richmond and Danville Syndicate does not do for Wilmington, and for other inland cities and towns, what other companies so called North Carolinians, even with North Carolina administration to back them have heretofore failed to do.—Asheville Citizen.

The Greek Government has issued an order that the Bible shall be read in the public schools in the ancient and not in the modern tongue. This introduces the Greek Testament into 1,200 schools, which contain 80,000 pupils.

HYMENEAL.

Married, by Rev. Dr. J. P. Smeltzer November 8, 1881, at the house of the bride's parents, Mr. L. D. Bronncke to Miss Fannie P. Braxton, both of Wallhalla, S. C.

Married, October 27th, 1881, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Jacob Busch, near Wallhalla, by Rev. Wm. Pitt, Mr. Henry D. Ritter to Miss Teva M. Busch, all of Oconee county.

A Fatal Accident.

A sad and fatal accident occurred on Monday morning last, as the freight train was on its way from Belton to Wallhalla by which a young man by the name of Nelson Hooper lost his life. Mr. Hooper was one of the brakemen on the train, and after the cars left Anderson he took his place on the top of one of the cars at the break, and was riding, it is supposed, with his back to the engine, when between Anderson and Pendleton, as the cars were passing under the bridge at Felton's crossing, near Anderson, he was struck by the bridge on the back of the head and shoulders and killed, his body falling on the top of the car upon which he was riding. Whether he died instantly or not is not known, as the fatal accident was not discovered until the train reached Pendleton Factory. At this point Capt. Williams, the conductor, sent a man up to see what had become of young Hooper, who, upon reaching the top of the car, reported back Hooper was hurt, as blood was seen oozing from the mouth and nostrils. Capt. Williams then went up to see for himself about the matter, when upon examination, his life was extinct. As the skull was not broken, it is supposed that death was caused from concussion of the brain. The body was brought down and placed in the conductor's car and upon reaching Pendleton a coffin and burial outfit was procured for the unfortunate young man and his body placed therein and brought home to his father's at Wallhalla. On Tuesday afternoon the body of young Nelson Hooper was buried in the Baptist graveyard, after appropriate religious services. The sympathies of our entire community go out to the bereaved family in this their sad bereavement.

President Arthur has decided to designate Thursday, November 23, as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer.

NASHVILLE, November 4.—River navigation has re-opened, after suspension since August 1st, on account of low water.

It appears that the friends of Guitau are growing in numbers. Under all the circumstances, this is natural.

GALVESTON, November 4.—A dispatch from Paris, Texas, reports a heavy frost Thursday night, which killed the top crop of cotton.

The South Carolina Railroad is laying steel rails between Aiken and Augusta. It has steel rails on the entire line from Brauchville to Charleston.

WASHINGTON, November 5.—A dispatch received at the Navy Department announces the death of Lieutenant Commander A. H. Wright, at Key West this morning, of yellow fever.

The present administration proposes to so conduct itself that the next president will not be an Ohio veteran. Let the conspiracy proceed.

General Sherman and staff is coming to the exposition. It will be in proper order to build him a suit of clothes from cotton grown on the fields over which he rode his war-horse.

It is useless for President Arthur to hum and haw about it, the old gang will not be complete until Balkan is made secretary of war and Robeson secretary of the navy. If the restoration is to come, let it be complete.

LONDON, November 7.—The correspondent of the Daily News at Rome says the Pope has expressed himself strongly in condemnation of the proceedings of the Irish Land League.

PATERSON, N. J., November 2.—Joseph Harrison, while jesting showing some bystanders how to commit suicide, shot himself in the mouth with a pistol and will probably die.

Smallpox is raging in Richmond to an alarming extent. We hope that precautions will be taken to prevent the spread of the disease. It seems that it has prevailed there for a week, but the papers have kept the fact of its existence a secret.

NAPOLEON, O., November 5.—This morning the jury in the trial of ex-Governor Scott, of South Carolina, for the murder of Young Dury, brought in a verdict of not guilty. The verdict appears to give general satisfaction.

President Arthur will take possession of the White House this month. For his own private apartments he selected the room known as "Nellie Grant's room," in the Northwest corner of the building. He did not care to live in the room used by his predecessors, fronting on the South, and known as the "President's room," because of its painful associations.

The Southern Republicans held two conferences in Washington on Thursday night, the purpose of each being to discuss and determine who would be most acceptable to President Arthur should he desire a Southern man in his Cabinet. The result of the conferences is not known, but it is understood there is a strong movement on foot to present the name of John S. W. Lee, a son of the late Henry A. Wise of Virginia, to the President in case the President succeeds in the coming election. Very little is now said about Gen. Longstreet's claim, but some stress is laid on that of ex-Governor Davis, of Texas.

WHAT IS A CONCEALED WEAPON?—In the Court of General Sessions at Newberry a man was put on trial for carrying a pistol concealed about his person. There was no conflict as to the facts. The defense seemed to rely on the fact that a small portion of the pistol was visible. Judge Aldrich held that the fact that a part of the weapon was visible, to wit: the small end, did not bring the case outside of the statute, that the spirit of the law is, that no matter if a part be visible to one man, yet it might not be seen by another who was equally near, and to be not a concealed weapon it must be in such a position that all who are near enough can see it. The jury found the defendant guilty.
