The Political Situation.

The issue has been joined in South Carolina. The Democrats have put their ticket in the field and the canvass is well under way. There is not much enthusiasm in the race, but the white people of the State are as much determined as they ever were to succeed in the contest. Taking the State at large there is not much defection in the ranks of the party and we can see no reason for doubt or anxiety. The contest is for good government and with our experience from 1868 to 1876 we are willing to make many sacrifices for success.

The Greenbackers. So have their ticket in the field, endorsed and to be voted for by the Republicans of the State. The issue therefore has been joined and it is for the people to say who shall rule for the future in South Carolina. This bargain between the Greenbackers and Republicans has produced as corrupt a coalition as was ever formed. The Greenbackers are a mere handful in the State and their only chance of success lies in the vote of the negro. The Greenback sky has a dark lining. The same party that gave us the infamous government during the reconstruction period is at our political doors knocking for admission through the willing hands of a few deluded white men. It is unreasonable to expect that such a trade and transparent trick can succeed. To prevent success, however, on the part of the coalitionists, the Democrats must be up and doing. Spirit and activity must be infused into the campaign and the people taught from the stump, the fireside, &c., that there is danger ahead. Our adversaries have the numbers against us, unless we call to our assistance the better class of the colored people. At every election from 1876 to the present more or less of these people have voted the Democratic ticket. And why should they not do so? The Democratic party is the party of progress and improvement, and this it has always been. In all our contests the rights and liberties of the people have been protected and preserved by this grand old party. It is also the party of reform and low taxes. Compare the present with the Radical party and see which party is with the people and for the people. True, it may be that the Legislature or some co-ordinate branch of the government may do something or omit to do something that works hardly to sections or classes of the people. All cannot be pleased and all cannot be protected from wrong and injury. In the nature of things the government bears more strongly on some than others, but this cannot last long. If errors creep in or wrongs are committed they will be corrected. If representatives of the people lose their balance they can be sent to the rear for any length of probation. The country belongs to the people and they can govern it as they see fit and we are well satisfied they will do so.

In addition to the issue joined in the State canvass we have opposition organized in our county contest. The lines will be drawn in the county as well as in the State, and the battle will rage from the mountains to the sea. We accept the gauge of battle thrown down in our midst. From 1868 to the present time we have had good government in Oconee, except when a Radical treasurer fell short in his accounts. The people do not propose to surrender their decent, honest local government for the Greenback or Republican coalitionists to experiment with. But to retain this government an effort must be made—a united, determined effort of the Democracy of Oconee. The canvass is now going on. When the primary election is over the canvass should be commenced in earnest, and every man, black or white, who is with us in this emergency, will range himself under the Democratic banner to battle to the end for good government, low taxes, prosperity and general happiness.

The largest animal on earth will positively be seen with S. H. Barrett & Co.'s new show at Wahalla, on Wednesday, October 4th.

The Greenbackers do not seem able to even bull doze straight. W. Walker Russell, head of the party, recently wrote to Gen. James F. Islar, Democratic Chairman, to warn Democrats against demanding joint discussions. The letter was directed to "Gen. W. F. Islar" and referred him to section 5,220, Revised Statutes, and "78 Otto." Section 5,220 says: "Any association may go into liquidation and be closed by the vote of its shareholders owning two-thirds of its stock," and there is no such law book as "78 Otto." Whether the Greenbackers are going into liquidation or not is not stated.

The Republican State Convention.

This body of mongrels met in Columbia last week. All the counties were represented by delegates and more than the usual interest was manifested by them in the proceedings. The first contest was for the control of the convention. E. W. M. Mackey, white, and Smalls and Lee, colored, were the aspirants. Lee was successful through the help of Smalls, both being willing to fight Mackey in all preliminary contests. The disgraceful scenes, common to this body in former days, were re-enacted on perhaps a dirtier and lower scale.

The principal discussion was over the question of making a nomination of their own, or of endorsing the Greenback ticket for State officers. The delegates do not conceal their opinions. Politically, they were opposed to the principles of the Greenback party, but, being powerless themselves, they were willing to vote for and make common cause with the Greenbackers for the purpose of defeating the Bourbon Democrats, as they are pleased to call them. Very few of the speakers believed that the coalition would be successful this time, but they looked upon it as the entering wedge that would in the end hand the State over to the Republican party. Not very much consideration was shown in the discussion for the Greenbackers or what was to become of them in the future. Clearly, the object of the Republican leaders was to use the Greenbackers to "pull the chestnuts out of the fire," and then they expected to reap the substantial fruits of the operation. Finally the Republican convention endorsed the State Greenback ticket and for a time at least promised to cast their fortunes, bad as they are, with the Greenbackers.

The angriest and fiercest contest was made over the Chairmanship of the State Executive Committee. Mr. Brayton, of the revenue department, took a hand along with Mackey and Sam Lee for this position. The "revenues" were routed as well as Sam Lee and Mackey were successful. Charges were openly made that Mackey purchased his way into the position and no one has denied it. This gives Mackey control of the party machinery and will enable him thereby to handle the ready cash of the campaign.

Mackey, Smalls and Lee are making a desperate effort to secure the nomination for Congress in the 7th or "Black District." From appearances Mackey will be successful. The convention endorsed Col. Cash for Congress from the Fifth District, thereby blasting the hopes of T. J. Mackey for the position.

The Greenbackers refrained from making nominations for Congress in the "Black District," which shows that the coalition between them and the Republicans is complete and as rotten and offensive as trading in politics can be.

County Convention of the Greenbackers.

The county convention of the Greenback party of Oconee County met in the court house at Wahalla on Saturday last. The convention was called to order by Mr. Henry Harbin, who seems to be the generalissimo of the party in Oconee. A temporary organization was effected by electing Mr. James B. Phillips Chairman and J. Clarke Hinnicutt Secretary.

The roll of delegates was called when it appeared that nine clubs were represented by fifty-six delegates, sixteen of whom were colored. The largest club was represented by twenty delegates on the roll call, though all of them did not answer to their names. The delegates were said to represent five members each, which would give the Seneca club one hundred members. The other clubs were smaller, some of them running to one or two delegates. The clubs represented were Seneca, Double Springs, Little River, Salem, Center, Wahalla, Long Creek, Holly Springs and a colored club, the name of which escaped us.

Mr. W. J. Harbin was made permanent Chairman and Mr. Hinnicutt was continued as permanent Secretary of the convention. Nominations for the Legislature and county officers being in order, the names of Messrs. George R. Cherry, James M. Hinnicutt and Robert Craig were announced by their friends for the Legislature. Messrs. Cherry and Hinnicutt were nominated by large majorities—that of Mr. Cherry being unanimous. The chairman of the convention stated that he had had an interview with Mr. Cherry, who stated that the announcement of his name in the primary election was without his consent, and that he would accept the nomination of the Greenbackers.

The convention refused to make a nomination for Probate Judge. The reason for this as stated was highly creditable to the convention and Judge Lewis and will not prejudice him with his party friends. Mr. J. Clarke Hinnicutt was nominated for School Commissioner.

Messrs. Johnson R. Cleveland, Charles W. Hunt and John W. Cannon were nominated as candidates for the office of County Commissioners.

Mr. J. B. Sanders was nominated for Coroner. An executive committee of one from each club was appointed and were authorized to fill vacancies of nominees if any shall decline.

Proceedings of the Greenback Convention at Wahalla on the 16th instant.

The Greenback Labor Convention of Oconee county met at Wahalla, September 16th, 1882. J. B. Phillips was called to act as temporary chairman and J. C. Hinnicutt secretary. The chairman then explained the object of the meeting to be to nominate two candidates to the Legislature and to consider the expediency of nominating a full ticket for county officers, and do the same if thought proper by the convention, and called for the names of delegates from each club to be given the secretary. Whereupon the following lists of delegates were handed to the secretary:

- Seneca Club—S. C. Moore, U. H. Thomas, G. P. Sears, H. C. Harbin, T. A. Patterson, J. B. Dyar, J. L. Hayes, H. A. Cole, J. W. Hopkins, W. J. Harbin, David Sanders, John Lumpkin, Geo. Sanders, J. M. In the permanent organization W. J. Harbin was chosen county chairman and J. C. Hinnicutt secretary. The following resolution was then offered and accepted, viz: Resolved, That this convention shall nominate members to the Legislature and a full county ticket and the convention be governed by a majority vote.

It was decided to nominate the candidates singly and vote by rising. George R. Cherry was then nominated a candidate for the Legislature by a unanimous vote of the convention. J. M. Hinnicutt and Robert Craig were then put in nomination for the next legislative candidate and by vote of the convention J. M. Hinnicutt was chosen the nominee.

On motion the convention agreed to leave the place of Probate Judge blank on the ticket. J. C. Hinnicutt was unanimously chosen the nominee for School Commissioner; J. R. Cleveland, C. W. Hunt and J. W. Cannon, County Commissioners. J. B. Sanders was then nominated for Coroner.

On motion of J. B. Phillips the convention authorized the county chairman to appoint one member from each club as county executive committee, viz: Seneca Club—J. T. Daniel. Long Creek—G. C. Arve. Double Springs—J. F. Davis. Holly Springs—J. M. Hudson. Wahalla—R. A. Frasier. Little River—W. E. Orr. Martin's Creek—N. Vance. Salem—T. H. Hinnicutt. Center—Moses Cain.

Should any of the nominees refuse to be candidates the executive committee was empowered to fill their places. The chairman gave notice that the executive committee would meet October 3d at the court house. There was no other business before the convention and on motion it was then adjourned sine die after a short and harmonious session. W. J. HARBIN, Chairman. J. C. HINNICUTT, Secretary.

The United States Court recently in session at Greenville has adjourned without dispatching the public business entirely. An extra session of the court will be called in February next. The following persons from Oconee were sentenced as follows: Hardy R. Gilstrap, retailing, one month imprisonment and $100 fine. J. Martin Shelton, distilling, three months and $100 fine. A Card from Hon. George R. Cherry.
MESSRS. EDITORS: I take this opportunity of most respectfully declining the nomination for the House of Representatives at the next election. My health and other circumstances will not permit me to accept. At the same time, however, I must in a few words express to all my friends the most profound sense of gratitude for the honors which they have conferred upon me in the past as well as that which they seem willing to extend to me now, and also to hope that they will be able to elect able, true and conservative men to represent them in the next Legislature. Most respectfully,
GEO. R. CHERRY.

Is Mr. Coleman a Candidate?
WESTMINSTER, S. C., September 18, 1882.
MESSRS. EDITORS: From the several letters that Mr. M. W. Coleman has addressed to your paper we are in doubt as to whether he is a candidate for votes or not. He bails his hook with opposition to railroads, compromises on the fence question and soft soap as to the county division, and we are in doubt as to whether we should bite or not. He is a master of plain English and we wish to know whether he is a candidate or not. If he is really fishing we want to bite his hook. So let him speak.
Yours, &c.,
VOTER.

Abstract of Minutes of South Carolina Presbytery.

The Presbytery of South Carolina met at Richland church, Oconee county, September 14 and continued its sessions till September 16. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. S. L. Morris, last moderator. There were present during the session forty-two delegates, viz: Seventeen ministers and twenty-five ruling elders. Rev. J. L. Martin was elected moderator and Rev. W. G. Nevill reading clerk.

Rev. F. P. Mullyally, D. D., was received from Lexington (Va.) Presbytery and Rev. A. P. Nicholson from Knoxville Presbytery. The name of Westminster church was enrolled, having been organized since last meeting of Presbytery. Carmel church presented a call for the services of Rev. A. P. Nicholson, which was placed in his hands, and he was granted permission to retain the call till next meeting of Presbytery. Call for the services of Rev. J. P. Marion, of Bethel Presbytery, was presented by Rook church, which was returned to the church because irregular in some respects.

The following persons were elected Trustees of Adger College for the term of three years: Major Wm. J. Stribling, Rev. E. P. Davis, Rev. D. E. Emerson, T. C. Gower, Col. W. C. Keith, James McCarey, Rev. A. P. Nicholson, John W. Shelor and J. D. Verner. Petition was received from Pelzer requesting organization of a church at that place. Six overtures were presented to the Presbytery.

First, proposing to change the constitution, so as to make the minister and one ruling elder a quorum of session where there are but two elders in a church, was adopted unanimously. Second overture, whether a church session can discipline a member without the presence of a minister, was answered affirmatively, but the session was recommended not to proceed for prudential reasons, unless impossible to secure the presence of a minister. Third overture, whether the sale of intoxicating spirits in a public bar room as a beverage by a member of the church was a disciplinary offense, was answered: That to the Presbytery it seemed difficult to imagine such a case where the act was not sinful, but each church session must be the judges of the circumstances of each particular case.

Overtures four and five related to the establishment of fraternal relations with the Northern church, and the Presbytery disapproved of the basis accepted by the Atlanta Assembly by passing the following paper almost unanimously: Whereas the establishment of fraternal relations with the Northern General Assembly by the Southern General Assembly upon a basis, at least questionable if not positively dishonorable to the Southern church, has caused great dissatisfaction and much debate and uncertainty in our minds in regard to the basis of the fraternal relations; and whereas the action of the Atlanta Assembly was based upon the "concurrent resolution," which the Springfield Assembly, whilst professing to accept, did, by passing the "Herriek Johnson resolution," really and even fundamentally modify, by declaring that they only adopted it in a restricted sense; and whereas real friendship cannot exist where the terms are equivocal and the basis dishonorable to either party; therefore be it Resolved 1. That this Presbytery, whilst not questioning the motives which guided the Atlanta Assembly to its conclusion, but believing that it acted conscientiously according to the light then before it, when the question was sprung suddenly upon it in its modified form; yet in the exercise of its clear constitutional right to review the proceedings of its commissionaries, does hereby overture the next General Assembly to ask an official interpretation of the "Herriek Johnson resolution," which shall be satisfactory to the Lexington Assembly before our appointed delegates take their seats.

2. That hereafter fraternal correspondence be by letter and not by interchange of delegates. Overture six, in regard to appointing a committee of one to act with the parties having charge of the "Southern Chataqua Institute," was withdrawn. Rev. W. G. Nevill was elected Presbyterial Sunday School Superintendent instead of Rev. E. P. Davis resigned.

Rev. J. R. Riley, Rev. W. F. Pearson and R. C. Gilliam were appointed to prepare a suitable memorial on the death of Rev. John McLees for adjourned meeting at Synod. Central, in Pickens county, was chosen as the place of the next meeting of Presbytery. The name of "Hopewell Pendleton" church was changed to Pendleton. A committee, consisting of Revs. J. L. Martin, E. P. Davis, F. P. Mullyally, S. L. Morris and Elder L. W. Perrin, was appointed to consider and report to the next Presbytery touching the overture of the General Assembly in regard to the marriage of one with his deceased wife's sister.

Thanks of Presbytery were tendered Richland community for their generous hospitality and to the railroads for favors shown. S. L. MORRIS, Stated Clerk.

A Card from W. J. Stribling, Esq.
WAHALLA, S. C., September 19, 1882.
MESSRS. EDITORS: In your last issue "Tax Payer" requests an expression of the views of the different candidates for the Legislature on the question of the proposed constitutional amendment, providing for the formation of new counties. In compliance with this request I have to say that I am opposed to the amendment, shall vote against it, and have already been exerting myself, and shall continue to do so, to defeat it before the people. If it should be adopted by the people, and I am sent to the Legislature, I shall then endeavor to prevent its ratification, unless a majority of the people of Oconee county vote for it, in which case I should feel bound to carry out the will of the people fairly expressed by a majority vote, though it should be contrary to my own convictions. If it should finally be adopted as a part of the constitution, in spite of efforts to defeat it, I should then try to prevent the taking any part of Oconee county to form a new county.

The arguments for and against this amendment, and the consequent formation of new counties under it, if it should carry, have been so fully discussed in the papers and in the canvass by myself and others, that I shall not give my views upon them at length in this connection; and more especially shall I refrain from intruding on you my reasons for the position I occupy, as I understand that it is only the position on this question of the different candidates and not their reasons for it that is asked by "Tax Payer." I think, however, that I have good reasons for the faith that is in me and am ready at all times to give them. Respectfully,
W. J. STRIBLING.

Every tremendous and rare feature advertised will positively be exhibited by S. H. Barrett & Co.'s New United Monster Railroad Shows at Wahalla, Wednesday, October 4th.

Keith has been invited and has agreed to address the meeting on this occasion. Other speeches will be made by the candidates, all of whom are expected to be present. The Greenbackers are also invited to attend and discuss with us the political issues of the day.

A Big Show.
S. H. BARRETT & Co.'s NEW UNITED MONSTER SHOWS—THE MOST STUPENDOUS RAILROAD MENAGERIE AND CIRCUS EVER ORGANIZED.
Indefinite announcements made of the coming to Wahalla of the grand and new Menagerie and Circus have been quite sufficient to make a sensation, and now that on Wednesday, October 4th, is positively announced as the date of its appearance, there will be a regular old fashioned awakening. Surely the bills tell of enough to drive sleep from the eyes of the young, and to revive in the hearts of the old man of the consuming circus fire of youth, and when the splendid street parade arrives, with its elephants, camels, dromedaries and wild beasts in caravan, its grand and gorgeous chariots, cars and cages; its three fine martial bands and new Leviathan Locomotive Steam Orchestra, and its hundreds of wonders and amusing sights, everybody will be attracted to the half million yards of brilliantly electric lighted tents.

It is unquestionably the most stupendous railroad menagerie and circus ever organized in America, and can lay fair claim to the title of "Universal Living Exposition." That it is vast and inviting beyond precedent, and fully and fairly up to its advertisements, is amply vouched for by the hoary enormities of both the press and public wherever its canopied wonderland has halted, and that it will many times repay the expense and trouble of a visit is equally certain. We need not now recapitulate the many genuinely rare and exclusive features it has collected from every clime, at fabulous cost, and alone presents. From the only living White Nile Hippopotamus and the fourteen wonderfully beautiful and intelligent performing horses to the Electric Light, they have been more talked about than the great ship canal and any one of at least a baker's dozen of them is a first-class show alone; while in the splendid and varied street parade will be seen a free display to dazzle and delight the wonder rounded eye. It is a truly great and most liberally and carefully managed exhibition which all can patronize with both profit and pleasure.

The parade will commend itself to all lovers of the attractive in spectacular effects, and as arrangements have been made with all the railroads for cheap excursions, it amounts to almost a certainty that the surrounding population will avail itself of the privilege and be in town at an early hour, so as not to miss the procession and also the free outside accession on a single invisible wire.

A Request.
If you have used Norman's Neutralizing Cordial and found it good, send us your testimonial and tell your neighbors about it. You may save some mother many sleepless nights by your kind information as to its efficacy. We specially recommend it for teething children.

Three times the smallest elephant ever seen comes with S. H. Barrett & Co.'s new show to Wahalla, on Wednesday, October 4th. The Star Route thieves convicted are to have a new trial. The government has no idea of convicting the tools and letting the principals go free. The trial will be in December next.

The Orphan Need Your Help.

In the Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton S. C., there are thirty seven children. They are good deserving boys and girls, gathered from five different States and six different denominations of Christians. They are supported by the hand of God's people. They do all that children could reasonably be expected to do for themselves—all the cooking, washing, ironing, gardening, &c., for the entire establishment. And now our Orphans need your help. Our treasury is empty. Nothing has been received for your support for fifteen days. A gift from you, kind reader, is needed at once. Your prompt assistance may also be some aid in enabling us to decide on the twenty eight applications for admission now before us. One dollar will support, clothe and educate one of these orphans for a week. Five dollars for one month. Sixty dollars for one year. Send your gift by post office order on Laurens C. H., or by registered letter to our Treasurer, Wm. B. Bell, Esq., Clinton, S. C. WM. P. JACOBS, President.
