

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING.

JAYNES, SHELOR, SMITH & STECK

R. T. JAYNES, Editor; D. A. SMITH, J. W. SHELOR, J. A. STECK

Subscription, $1.00 PER ANNUM. ADVERTISING RATES REASONABLE.

Communications of a personal character charged for as advertisements. Obituary notices and tributes of respect, of not over one hundred words, will be printed free of charge. All over that number must be paid for at the rate of one cent a word. Cash to accompany manuscript.

WALHALLA, S. C.:

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 25, 1905.

THE DISPENSARY IS DOOMED.

The election in Oconee yesterday on the question of dispensary or no dispensary resulted, so far as heard from, in an overwhelming vote in favor of abolishing the great moral institution in this county.

There was no marked interest in the election and a light vote was polled. Not all of the boxes have been brought in as yet and the figures given below, while practically official, are not given as absolutely correct. When the official result is declared, however, the variation, if any, will not amount to more than a half dozen votes one way or the other. They show conclusively the trend of sentiment throughout the county:

	No Dispensary.	Dispensary.
Walhalla.....	97	16
Westminster.....	92	2
Seneca.....	123	27
West Union.....	26	1
Chenoweth College.....	6	3
High Falls.....	16	1
Madison.....	18	1
Richland.....	20	1
Fair Play.....	17	1
Tamassee.....	13	1
Taber.....	6	4
Double Springs.....	28	1
Holly Springs.....	5	1
Tamassee.....	18	3
Total.....	485	60

This result shows that the citizens of Oconee are tired and disgusted with the dispensary system and have not hesitated to express their dissatisfaction. Their work, however, is not finished. Each citizen must hereafter do his full duty in seeing that the laws are enforced, violators brought to justice and punished and illicit dealing in whiskey kept down, or yesterday's good work will not only prove a farce, but will be made a curse indeed.

Let no man shirk his duty and all will be well, and during this winter many a wife and child in Oconee will have comforts at home that have heretofore been impossible because the dispensary got the money that rightfully belonged to them.

This is a fight for the home and against the greatest home-destroyer. Let not politics or friendship stand as a barrier between you and the performance of your duty as your conscience dictates.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF FORM.

Ex-Congressman Jerry Simpson died in Kansas City last Monday morning.

The President is on his travels through the South and is receiving quite an ovation.

Interested labor never watches the clock.

The man who attends strictly to his own business usually finds a growing business to attend to.

There is but one land in which all men and women enjoy equal rights, and that is in dreamland.

Men who think they are set in their ways find out that it was only imaginary when they get married.

A ninety-eight-pound lump of feminine loveliness can make a two-hundred pound man look like a grain of sand in a nickle's worth of sugar.

Mr. Zimmerman, a former clerk in the State Treasurer's office in Columbia, is charged with stealing $12,500 worth of State bonds from the office.

The authorities have arrested four negroes charged with the murder of Julian Wilson, near Kingstree, and have the suspected parties in jail at Kingstree.

When President Roosevelt met Mrs. Jackson in Charlotte recently he exclaimed, "What! the widow of the great Stonewall Jackson! it is worth the whole trip to shake your hand."

The young man Cunliffe, who stole $101,000 from the Adams Express Company in Pittsburg, Pa., has been arrested by Pickerton detectives in Bridgeport, Conn., and $80,000 of the money was recovered.

The Presbyterian Synod of South Carolina, which was in annual session last week at Rock Hill, adjourned last Friday night to meet next year at Laurens. The meeting was largely attended and was of great interest to the Presbyterian people.

[News and Courier, October 23d.]

As is not infrequently their wont, the Southern people are giving full sway to their impulses in the cordiality of their welcome to President Roosevelt. His trip from Washington to Jacksonville has given occasion for a succession of ovations which could scarcely have been equalled, and certainly could not have been excelled, in enthusiasm, in any other section of the country. And it should be said, too, that if the hosts of the occasion have given themselves over to a veritable riot of personal and patriotic fervor, their guest has entered into the spirit of their ecstasy with a readiness and an abandon which has balked at nothing which promised to promote the continuance of the revel.

At Raleigh, so a correspondent of the Baltimore Sun informs us, President Roosevelt assured certain gentlemen that he was as ardently opposed to social equality and intermarriage of the races as any Southern white man could be; at Richmond and Charlotte he stood before Confederate monuments and proudly proclaimed the pride which he took in the men in whose honor they were erected; to the neighbors of his mother in her girlhood he recounted the deeds of his kinsmen who served under the Stars and Bars and asserted his fellowship with the men who honored them and their cause.

In a more serious vein, during the course of his set speeches, he has dealt with national problems with which his auditors were mostly intimately concerned, and for vastly the most part he has professed to see them from a viewpoint which is vastly popular in the South. It is not too much to say that the President's tour of the South has resolved itself into an apparently unadmirable meeting of a mutual admiration society, of which he and his hosts are the members, and the competition between them as to which shall express the most cordial liking and esteem for the other grows constantly keener as it is continued with the progress of the journey.

In Atlanta the President dwelt upon the menace contained in the rapid growth of individual wealth. He declared the Federal regulation of corporations an inevitable necessity of the future, and he sought at some length to justify the faith that was in him. But he warned his hearers that industry and enterprise must not be impeded by the imposition upon them of a restraint and control which would hamper or retard them. His reference to the life insurance scandals was somewhat vague in terms, but it was sufficiently specific in intention to satisfy those who reprehend the abuses uncovered by the Armstrong committee that he is with them in purpose. Realizing the shock that had been administered by these things to the public conscience, he declared that public opinion must be looked to to redress its own wrongs by outlawing the men and measures reprehended. He dwelt upon the South's concern in her great staple production, and promised to seek to remove causes which appeared to menace its best interests. The boycott in China being one of these, he discussed ways and means of an equitable adjustment of that situation.

This is quite an imposing list of important subjects to be discussed in the space of a single brief address, but President Roosevelt accomplished the task in a manner that was always interesting.

And so his triumphal progress proceeds. Between felicitations of his hosts upon their marvellous achievements in the past and the present, and prognostications concerning the yet more marvellous things that they, in common with their re-united countrymen, will accomplish in the future, the stages of the Presidential journey are proving one continuous round of pleasure and edification.

Neither party to this delightful reunion of hearts and mind has as yet given any sign of exhaustion. The wave of good fellowship constantly rises higher and higher. If there was more popular ecstasy in Atlanta than there was at Raleigh, so was there more rein given to President Roosevelt's individual and official confidences. To what point it will all come when high tide is reached at New Orleans it is needless to inquire. One may only say that sufficient unto each day have been the delights thereof so far, and permit the morrow to fashion for us what new joys it may.

The constitutionality of the Brice Law has been attacked in the Federal Court. Judge Pritchard has been asked for a mandamus requiring the board of control of Union county to restore to J. G. Howell his office as dispenser and re-open the dispensary. Judge Pritchard issued an order to show cause, returnable before him on October 31st.

The dispensary at St. Stephen's has been closed. Inspector Floyd checked up the books and found the dispenser $496.68 short. The dispenser, H. H. Lorenz, says he may be a little short, but he denies those figures. The county board has met and elected his successor. The present dispenser is under a $5,000 bond from a reliable guarantee company and the State will lose nothing.

A shortage has been found in the office of State Treasurer in Columbia, the sum of $12,500 in bonds having been abstracted between the years of 1891 and 1901. With interest the amount is $16,500. Daniel Zimmerman, who was bond clerk in the Treasurer's office during that period, has been arrested charged with the crime. He has given bond in the sum of $17,000 for his appearance at court.

When you want

Hardware, Don't fool with Cash Bargain Stores, but go to Carter Hdw. Co., WALHALLA, S. C.

They are reliable and guarantee all the Goods they sell to be just as represented and besides they handle nothing but Hardware and buy in large quantities and get the right prices.

Try them and be convinced.

Dots from the Sage of Tugaloo.

Tugaloo, October 24.—We have had a most propitious fall. Never saw better weather for harvesting hay, fodder, etc., and there has been an unusual lot of it made and saved. We think there will be little demand for western forage next year.

Now if we farmers would not sell our cotton seed, but feed them to our milch cows and other stock, and convert them into fertilizers and put on our lands and let commercial fertilizers go to—or lion merchants, we would be much better off in the future than now.

There was, as usual, a large congregation at South Union on Sunday. Rev. S. A. McDaniel prevailed on that venerable man of God, Rev. J. R. Earle, to preach in his stead, and it was the decided impression of every one present that the Rev. J. R. Earle preached one of the most earnest, effective sermons that any of them ever heard. His subject was "Church Fellowship." We don't believe there was a single person in the congregation but what was benefited.

There was a collection raised by the Sunday school and ladies' missionary society for the Connie Maxwell Orphanage amounting to between $30 and $40.

Well to-day is the day to see if we want more orphans. If we do, vote for the dispensary. May the good Lord help us to kill it dead.

On next Sunday the Rev. S. A. McDaniel will preach (D. V.) a special sermon to the Independent Order of Old Fellows at South Union. Of course everybody will be welcome.

The last all-day singing for the season will be at South Union on the first Sunday in November. Everybody come, and please don't forget that proverbial well-filled basket.

Pumpkins, persimmons, potatoes, pork and 'possums are ripe. Congratulations to the junior. L.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Our Governor in Atlanta.

Atlanta, October 21.—This morning Governor Heyward paid a semi-official and personal visit to Governor Terrell at the State House. Governor Heyward, among other things, discussed the recent Act of the Georgia General Assembly as to the boundary between Georgia and South Carolina. The question appears to have arisen with regard to the possible use of certain water powers in the Piedmont section between Oconee and Habersham counties. There does not appear to be any merit in the Georgia contention, and Governor Terrell has tentatively abandoned the possible claim of Georgia as to either the Tugaloo or Keowee rivers, and the contention of South Carolina seems all right.

Governor Terrell had the situation investigated, and the tentative opinion rendered him was: "I am, therefore of the opinion that originally the Keowee and not the Tugaloo river was the boundary above the confluence forming the Savannah river, but by the treaty of Beaufort and Georgia's long acquiescence therein she is bound by the agreement therein made, and that under that agreement the Tugaloo river is the boundary and the thread of the stream is the dividing line."

Governor Heyward's advice was along the same line and this about settles the matter.

There is quite a strong personal regard between the two Governors, and Governor Heyward's trip has practically settled the possible dispute.

Dispensary Election in Saluda County.

Saluda, October 21.—The question of "dispensary" or "no dispensary" will be submitted to the qualified voters of Saluda county on December 19. The Supervisor has just ordered an election for that date. The petitions were filed on August 12. After a long delay it has at last been decided that the requisite number of names are signed thereto.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

All Liquor May be Seized.

Columbia, October 21.—Assistant Attorney General Youmans rendered an important opinion to the Law and Order League at Prosperity, in which he holds that liquor shipped into this State may be seized under the storing and keeping in possession clause of the dispensary law, though it is for personal use, and regardless of how small the quantity. Measured by the decision yard stick every club in the State is violating the law. The opinion points out that though the State Supreme Court at first decided it was not necessary to get the Commissioner's certificate, it later decided that this was necessary and although under the Federal Supreme Court decision the stuff cannot be seized after it reaches its destination.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

Contract for Steward.

THE Board of County Commissioners will let, on Friday, November 3d, at 2 p. m., at their office, at the Court House, Walhalla, S. C., the contract for Steward of poor farm for year 1906. The Steward will be required to obey all orders of the Board regarding work at the poor farm and receive and work such convicts as sent to the farm by the Board. All applicants are required to give number in family and ages. None but sealed bids will be received, which must be filed not later than noon of November 3, 1905. Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. L. H. V. HOBSON, Supervisor. October 25, 1905. 43-44

REAL ESTATE BOUGHT AND SOLD.

Say, Listen :

THERE are thousands of people more each year, but no more land. I have 15 farms, from 50 to 250 acres each, nice level land; every one a bargain; will give terms if wanted. Also, some nice lots in Seneca. Come quick.

JAMES H. ADAMS, SENECA, S. C.

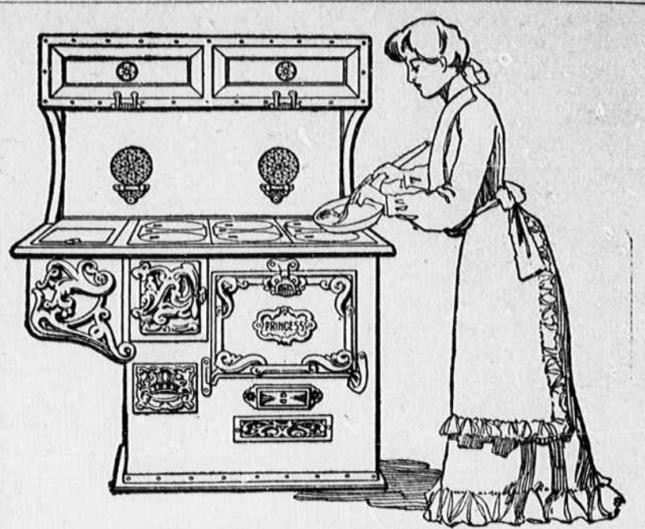

September 13, 1905. 37-41

For Sale,

House and barn and 1 1/2 acres of land, in town of Walhalla, known as the property of the widow of D. P. Robins. Enquire at residence for further information and price. It will be sold cheap if taken at once. R. A. WAITE.

FOR SALE :

ONE SHINGLE MILL AND ONE BOILER AND ENGINE, mounted on wheels. This is a bargain, and will be sold on easy terms. For further information apply to CAMPBELL COURTENAY, Newry, S. C. October 18, 1905. 42-41

Special Low Prices on Stoves and Ranges.

First Class Line

DRESS GOODS.

Broadcloths, Silks, French Suitings, Tricots, Etc., with Trimmings to match.

CLOTHING.

Men's, Boys' and Youth's.

SHOES, ETC.

The best Line I have ever carried. Complete Line of Notions, Hats and Caps. Best Goods for the Money.

M. S. STRIBLING, Westminister, S. C.

NORMAN'S BARGAIN STORE WALHALLA, S. C.

Specially Low Prices on Shoes, Hats, Pants, Shirts, Trunks, Valises, Lamps.

Wall Paper, Window Shades, Crockery, Tin.

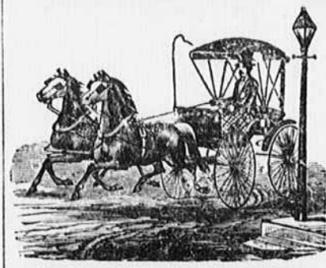

ALL KINDS SEEDS. 5 AND 10-CENT COUNTERS.

HOME REMEDIES.

Every family has a list of favorite recipes upon which they depend in case of minor ailments. We take pride in compounding these home prescriptions. They get the same careful attention that we give to all doctors' prescriptions. Let us prepare your winter's supply of these remedies now.

The Seneca Pharmacy, SENECA, S. C.

I AM DETERMINED TO DO THE LIVERY BUSINESS

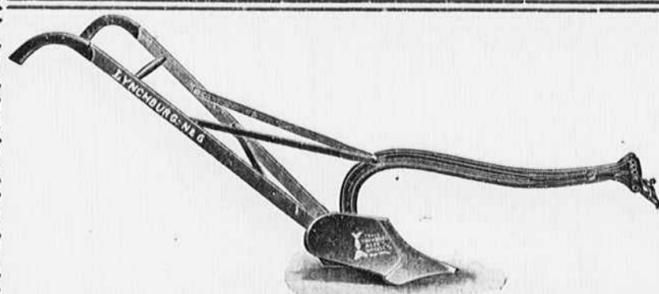

for this community. Come on and get your teams.

Hauling Teams, Single and Double Buggy Teams and Saddle Horses, Always on hand.

Prompt and polite service at reasonable prices. Teams sent out at any hour, day or night. Phone 10 or 11 for quick teams. C. R. HOUGHINS, Walhalla, S. C.

You Watch the "Cotton Market."

Why not watch the Prices we are giving on Hardware, Building Material, Etc. We have the Goods, our Prices sell them.

We have just received "A Big Shipment" of "Avery's Steel Turning Plows," the best yet made, and our prices are "Way Down."

We also have the Mallon Combination Plow, Lynchburg, Syracuse and Oliver Chilled Plows, Coles Grain Drills and Distributors combined, Rubber and Canvas Belt, all kinds Saw Mill and Shingle Mill Supplies, Corrugated Roofing, Sheet Copper and Copper Pipe.

Our Line of Blue and White Porcelain Ware cannot be surpassed.

MATHESON HARDWARE CO. WESTMINSTER, S. C.