

The European War Day by Day.

Germany's Fearful Howitzers.
Petrograd, June 26.—German attacks north of Warsaw are increasing in violence. The war office admits that under the terrific bombardment of Howitzers the Russians were forced to evacuate the fortifications wrecked by the enemy's fire.

Fighting between the Omulew and Orzez rivers is growing intense. In Southeast Galicia the Russians are resisting all attempts of the Austrians to cross the Dniester.

Defend Gas Bombs.
Berlin, June 26.—In an official statement the government defends the use of asphyxiating gas bombs. The statement declares that the French and English used them first, and adds that the allies flooded the German trenches. Bombs are not more inhuman than high explosives.

Pushing Toward Warsaw.
Berlin, June 26.—The war office announced to-day that the Germans have launched a violent attack on the Russians north of Warsaw. Wurtemberg troops stormed and captured the Russian position at Oglenda, north of Przemysl.

Dutch Steamer Torpedoed.
Copenhagen, June 26.—The Dutch steamer Cress, 1,700 tons, was mined or torpedoed in the Gulf of Bothni. The crew was landed on the Swedish coast. The captain believes the steamer was torpedoed. He says he saw a submarine half an hour before the explosion.

Russians Hold Dniester Line.
Petrograd, June 26.—The Russians are continuing successfully to hold their lines along the Dniester. After a six-day battle the Austro-Germans have been defeated at Kozara and Rudzany, northeast of Halicz. At Martinove a similar attempt to gain a foothold on the Russian side of the river failed, Grand Duke Nicholas' troops capturing 40 officers and 1,700 men.

At Kosmierjine the Austrians are repulsed on June 22 and 23, after having previously been defeated at Snovidow, fighting a rear guard battle and losing heavily.

These reverses have caused a German concentration in the vicinity of Kosmierjine, and new and stubbornly contested battles are imminent.

A German force attempting to cooperate in that region is descending the Dniester valley, and is being steadily opposed.

300 Inhabitants of Town Are Left Like Adam and Eve.
Guaymas, Mexico, June 28.—Advices received here from the interior state that Yaqui Indians raided the mining town of Sauze, 100 miles inland from Guaymas Saturday, assembling the 300 inhabitants and stripped every one naked, then, while a detail guarded the gathering, others looted the town, packing everything transportable on mules.

When the raiders departed they took with them four young girls. No casualties are reported.

When the Indians approached, the inhabitants assumed they were a body of troops approaching to protect them and offered no resistance.

Capt. Ashley Robertson, of the cruiser Colorado, and Major Wm. N. McKelvin, of the marine corps, accompanied by three other officers, motored through the American settlement in the Yaqui Valley Sunday, and found everything quiet. The settlers have built barricades around their houses, and say they will stay, fighting the Indians, if necessary.

Mexican troops are now garrisoning all the farms in the valley, and no further raids are expected, as the rains have set in. It is reported that Gen. Maytorena has ordered his troops to take the offensive against the Indians.

Death of Young Colored Woman.
Zola Jones Brown, colored, died June 24, near Courtenay, aged about 21 years. The funeral took place from the Double Springs Baptist church, of which she was a consistent member. For several years she was a pupil of the Seneca (colored) Graded School. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. Wiggins, colored, of Seneca, who used as his text John 4:35: "Look upon the fields, for they are white for the harvest." He preached a strong, impressive sermon. Her old teacher, W. J. Thomas, gave a short "sketch of her life's work, both in the school room and in church and Sunday school." He then sang pathetically a solo, "Abide with Me." A tombstone will be erected to her memory by church and friends. A Friend.

To Drive Out Malaria
And Build Up The System
Take the Old Standard GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents

Russians Retreating.
Vienna, June 27.—The Austro-Hungarian general staff statement says:

"After their defeat south of Lemberg the Russian main army retreated eastward and took up a position on the heights to the east of Mikolaid. On this front our troops, after several days' fighting, captured the enemy's advanced positions, then stormed the enemy's main position and finally penetrated the same at numerous points, throwing back the enemy, notably along the sector near and south of Bobrka.

"Since early this (Sunday) morning the Russians again have been in retreat along the entire front. They also are retreating north of Zolkiew and north of Rawa Ruska, where they are retiring before our pursuit."

Italy Sees Three Years.
Rome, June 27.—Italian military authorities to-day asserted that all the arms, ammunition and explosives factories in the kingdom were working day and night, making ready for the possibility of a continuance of the conflict for three years.

German Sub. Reported Sunk.
London, June 27.—A dispatch from Amsterdam says word has been received there that a German submarine which left Emden for the North Sea sank last Tuesday near the Island of Borkum after a severe explosion, the cause of which is not known.

The message giving this report says that the officers in command were in the turret, and are thought to have been saved. The remainder of the crew were drowned.

Tentons Advance.
Berlin, June 28.—The town of Halicz, in Galicia, on the Dniester, has been occupied by German troops, according to to-day's official announcement. The statement also announces that the Dniester has been crossed by the Germans along the entire front.

Steamer Indrani Sunk.
London, June 28.—The British steamship Indrani, 3,640 tons gross, was sunk Sunday by a German submarine, southwest of Tuskar, Ireland. The crew was saved.

French Bark to Bottom.
London, June 28.—The French bark Dunfriesshire, 2,565 tons gross, which left San Francisco January 22 for Dublin with a cargo of barley, was sunk to-day by a German submarine. The crew was landed at Milford Haven, Wales.

This Morning's Dispatches
from the European war are very meagre. Berlin reports continued drives against the Russians, who have at points been forced back into Russian Poland territory. The Germans also report minor successes in France, but the general trend of affairs on that front seems to indicate pretty much of a standstill.

The French report claims minor gains along some of their fronts, while some ground was lost Monday night in a severe attack by the Germans, but part of these losses, it is asserted, were regained.

The brunt of the fighting at present, as for some weeks past, seems to be falling on the Russians, who at present are hard pressed, with no indication as to where their present retreat will end and they be able to make a stand.

WEDDING AT WESTMINSTER.
Foster-Sheldon Marriage Charming Affair—Other Local News.

Westminster, June 29.—Special: One of the most beautiful home weddings of the season was that of Miss Bess W. Foster and J. Laurens Sheldon, which occurred at the home of the bride last Wednesday morning, June 23d, at 11 o'clock. The main rooms of the home were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and pot plants, the color scheme of yellow and green being carried out in the reception hall and dining room, while pure white and green were used in the parlor. A lovely arch of green from which suspended a beautiful white wedding bell, formed a most artistic setting for this elegant wedding.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Clarence E. Gray and ushered into the reception hall, where, amid banks of yellow lilies, they were served punch by Miss Sue Haley. After the guests had assembled in the parlor, Miss Jennie Lu Irving, of Elberton, Ga., sweetly sang "A Perfect Day," accompanied on the piano by Miss Littlejohn, of Ga. After this song the wedding march was sounded, and Rev. J. E. Wallace, the bride's pastor, entered first, followed by Miss Daisy Foster and Harry Sheldon, Miss Louise Sheldon and Harry Foster, who preceded the bride and groom. The ceremony was most impressive, the ring service being used.

Immediately following the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, where a most appetizing luncheon was served by Mesdames J. J. McLeskey, W. C. Peden, Mrs. Irving and Miss Pat McClanahan. After the luncheon the bride and groom "gave the guests the slip," and, instead of taking the train here as all expected, stole through a side door, jumped into a waiting automobile and were whirled away to Richland and caught the train there for Asheville, N. C., thereby eluding their friends and also the showers of rice, old shoes, etc.

Mrs. Sheldon is the beautiful and accomplished young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Foster, and her happy, sunny disposition gains friends by the hundreds. Mr. Sheldon is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sheldon and a young man of sterling worth. The popular young couple have the best wishes of friends throughout Oconee county.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Irving, Miss Jennie Lu Irving, Elberton, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dorroh, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Glenn, Liberty; Misses Dollie Knox and Floride Propst, Fair Play; Dr. and Mrs. Sheldon, Liberty; Mrs. Pullen, Lavonia, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Verner, Mrs. Jane Verner, Retreat; Mrs. S. P. Stribling, Fair Play; Mrs. Neill and daughter Alice, Gainesville, Ga., and others.

Local Notes.
C. E. Gray is spending a few days at Easley on business.

Revival services are still in progress at the Baptist church. There have been several additions to the church. The ordinance of baptism was administered to 14 candidates Monday evening.

A gloom of sorrow spread over our town Saturday morning when it was learned that the spirit of Miss Frankie Phillips, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips, had passed away to be with God. She died at a sanatorium at Asheville, N. C., Friday evening, following an operation. She was a beautiful young lady, just blooming into young womanhood, and her father and mother, brothers and sisters are prostrated over her death. She had been in Asheville for some time, working in a private telephone exchange with her older sister, and it was while her sister was spending a short vacation here with home-folks that she was taken ill. The remains were brought here Saturday evening, and amid a host of sorrowing relatives and friends the body was laid to rest in Eastview cemetery Sunday afternoon. She was a most beautiful young lady, with a lovely Christian character and will be sorely missed. To the bereaved ones we join with hosts of other friends in extending sympathy and condolence in their deep grief.

M. A. Herndon, of Hapeville, Ga., attended the funeral of his granddaughter, Miss Frankie Phillips, here Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Smith, of Greenville, are spending a few days here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Terrell held a family reunion at their home on Walhalla street last week. This also celebrated the 66th birthday of Mrs. Terrell. About 100 guests were present, and altogether a most delightful day was spent.

One of the most pleasant social events of the week was the reception given in honor of the bride,

GEORGIA'S NEW GOVERNOR.
Mr. Harris Takes Oath of Office—Favors Enforcement of Laws.

Atlanta, June 26.—The largest throng of people which has gathered for an inauguration in Georgia since the Civil War overflowed the hall of Representatives at the Capitol this morning when Governor Nat. E. Harris took the oath of office and delivered his inaugural address.

The members of the Assembly and the hundreds of interested Atlantans made up less than half the crowd, as nearly 2,000 Macon people came for the special purpose of participating in the inaugural parade and giving their distinguished fellow-townsmen a proper send-off.

Following the administration of the oath of office by Chief Justice W. H. Fish, of the Supreme Court, Governor Harris delivered his address. He expressed the hope that the European war would be a blessing in disguise in teaching Georgians to rely on and develop to their fullest extent their own great natural resources.

He called attention to the fact that Georgia bears the painful distinction of appearing in the group of four States showing the largest percentage of illiteracy in the Union. He stated categorically that he was in favor of some form of compulsory education as a principal factor in the solution of this problem.

The passage of a compulsory education measure, he said, would justify a revision of Georgia's entire common school system.

He said he was in favor of a strict enforcement of Georgia's prohibition laws. "Liquor selling is not allowed in Georgia; therefore liquor selling should cease just as gambling and stealing and murder and other crimes should be put down. For my part I believe the prohibition law is salutary, reasonable, economic and an aid to good government. Georgia has been somewhat lax in the enforcement of this law. It is time for investigation and for determination. If the law needs strengthening, see that it is done."

Rev. Pendleton Will Be There.
The Courier is requested to announce that Rev. W. H. K. Pendleton has accepted the invitation to address the gathering at Oakway's big picnic on Saturday. He will be one of the principal speakers of the occasion, which is being anticipated with great pleasure by all interested in Sunday school work. Rev. Mr. Pendleton is one of the foremost Sunday school workers in the State, a man of rare ability. Those who have heard him will make special efforts to hear him on this occasion. Those who have never heard him should take advantage of this opportunity. Everybody is cordially invited to attend, and a hearty welcome awaits all at Oakway next Saturday, July 3.

Mrs. J. Laurens Sheldon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sheldon, Saturday afternoon. The guests were met at the door by Mesdames W. F. Sheldon and E. Zimmerman and ushered into the parlor. In the receiving line were Mesdames J. D. Sheldon, J. Laurens Sheldon, W. C. Foster, Miss Sheldon and Mesdames Dorroh and Neill. Mrs. W. C. Peden then ushered the guests into the spacious living room, where cool and refreshing punch was served by Misses Daisy Foster and Lucile Zimmerman. In the dining room Mrs. C. E. Gray in her genial manner saw that the hour passed pleasantly and that each guest was supplied with delicious cream and cake. A bevy of pretty young girls served these refreshments, the while Mrs. S. L. Brownlee rendered some breezy selections on the piano, interspersed with some beautiful vocal selections by Mrs. D. I. Mulkey. Indeed all went "merry as a marriage bell" and each guest went away thanking the hostess for a most delightful afternoon. About 65 guests were present.

Miss Anna Maret, Belton Maret and Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Maret have returned from a trip North. They visited several Northern cities while away.

Miss Lillian Breazeale returned Monday from Richmond, Va., where she had been for the past three or four weeks.

Mrs. Neill and daughter Alice, of Gainesville, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sheldon.

Mrs. N. A. King, of Atlanta, Texas, is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Terrell.

Miss Lois Singleton entertained a few of her friends at rook Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Jessie Young, of Greenville.

Rev. T. C. O'Dell, presiding elder of the M. E. Church, Anderson District, preached at the Methodist church here last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Breazeale and little son, of Ashland, Ky., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Breazeale.

Mountain Rest Locals.
Mountain Rest, June 24.—Special: Mrs. Will P. Henry, of Gainesville, Ga., accompanied by her children, Master Conley and little Miss Mary Louise, arrived at their country home here this week, where they will spend the summer with Mrs. Conley's mother, Mrs. M. E. Conley. Her many friends look forward with pleasure to her yearly visits here.

Mrs. Rosa Calaway, of Walhalla, is spending a few months in the mountains. She is stopping at the home of Mrs. M. E. Conley.

Miss Ethel C. Angel, of Atlanta, is at the home of her aunt, Mrs. M. E. Conley, where she expects to be for some time. Miss Angel is a teacher of the Critchton-Shumaker Business College of Atlanta, where she has been for a number of years. Her many friends in Oconee will regret to learn that she has been forced to temporarily relinquish her duties in the college on account of impaired health. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Cotton Blooms Coming In.
The Courier has so far received three cotton blooms for report. John W. Oliver, as usual, is the first to report for this immediate section, the bloom handed to us having come from the field Saturday, June 26.

Marshal Frank, of Fair Play, writes, under date of June 24: "I enclose you a cotton bloom picked from my field yesterday, the 23d. I live on the farm of Mrs. M. C. Harris." This was a red bloom and had evidently appeared in the field on the 22d—last Tuesday.

S. B. Golden, of Westminster, Route No. 3, sends us a bloom in a letter postmarked on the 26th. Appended to the bloom are these words: "I have had cotton blooms for some time, but just didn't think about sending them."
