Briefs from Coneross.

Coneross, Feb. 21.—Special: Our pastor, Rev. L. H. Raines, will fill his appointment at Coneross next Saturday at 3 p. m. and on Sunday morning at 11 a. m. Everybody is cordially invited to attend all of our services. The W. M. S. will hold their regular meeting next Saturday at 2.30 at the church. Every member is urged to be present, as there is a special program to be carried out. G. L. Barker and family are among the influenza patients this week and last. We are glad, however, to note that they are improving and that their cases are not of a very serious nature. —666 cures chills and fever.—adv

THE LOCAL NEWS OF SENECA.

C. S. Lowery Quite Sick with Pleurisy—Young Set Entertained.

Seneca, Feb. 21.—Special: Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Burley and little son, Boyce B., Jr., returned to Clemson Sunday afternoon, after a week-end visit to relatives here.

J. J. Norton arrived home last week after an absence of some weeks. Mr. Norton has a host of friends who are glad to see his genial face, and only wish that he could arrange his business affairs so as to spend more time in Seneca.

Mrs. T. B. Jones and two children, Allen and Hunter, were recent visitors in Anderson.

Mrs. C. N. Gignilliat and son, G. W. Gignilliat, and Francis Wallace went over to Spartanburg Wednesday for the purpose of attending two of the Billy Sunday meetings.

R. D. Neill was called to Washington, D. C., several days ago on account of the serious illness of his brother, Wm. Neill. The numerous friends of Mr. Neill are grieved to learn of his illness and sincerely hope the crisis has passed and that he may have a speedy recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Neill resided in Seneca for a number of years, during which time they greatly endeared themselves to our people.

The men's Bible class of the Presbyterian church was given a spiritual treat Sunday morning when Dr. R. N. Brackett, of Clemson College, addressed the class on the subject of the Sunday school lesson.

A large number of Senecaites were in Spartanburg the past week for the purpose of attending the Billy Sunday meeting.

We are pleased to note that Miss Sara Thomson has sufficiently recovered from a ten days' sickness to be able to return to school.

Lewis Cromer, Kenneth Mattison, Robert Dilworth, James Henry Harper, Wallace Kay and Victor Brock, pupils of the high school department, attended the reception Monday night at Greenville Woman's College. They remained in the city band.

C. S. Lowery is quite sick at his home on Fair Play street. He is suffering with an attack of pleurisy. His family is seeking medical attention from his family and physicians. His friends join with them in hoping that he may soon recover.

Miss Viola Bradberry was in Greenville Tuesday night to hear Sousa's band.

Clay Denny was host Friday evening to a large number of his school friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Denny. The spacious parlor, living and dining rooms were en suite, and on every side there were distinct suggestions that this was the season of St. Valentine. Progressive valentine games and contests were enjoyed. A jolly time it was from beginning to end. Miss Mary Knox having lead in the contests, was presented a heart-shaped box of home-made candy. A sweet course, consisting of gelatine, cream and heart-shaped cakes, was served. The young host was assisted in entertaining by his mother and his sister, Mrs. Hugh Macaulay, and by Miss Thain.

A representative meeting of men from all the churches of Seneca was held Monday night to take steps to prepare for the county-wide evangelistic meeting to be held at Seneca next September, to be conducted by Rev. Gipsy Smith, Jr., a preacher of wonderful power. A preliminary organization was had, with Rev. I. E. Wallace as chairman and J. W. Todd as secretary. In furtherance of this great movement a meeting was appointed for Friday, March 12th, at 3.30 p. m., in the Chamber of Commerce, and all the pastors of all the churches, of every denomination, are invited to attend this meeting, and also one layman from each church. It is hoped that there will be a full attendance. Let there be, in fact, a real revival already begun.

Rainfall and Temperature. Below is a record of meteorological observations taken by H. W. Brandt, co-operative observer of the Weather Bureau of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, during the week ending February 19, 1922, at 7 p. m. (The instrumental readings are from government standard instruments exposed in the manner recommended by the chief of the Weather Bureau):

Mr. Barnaby Bird, the boss of Plagg county ... O. H. Schumacher, Jr. Mr. Mulberry, Chief Counsel for the ... M. R. McDonald.

Brutus Ferguson, a clerk in the general offices ... D. B. Darby. Artie, an office boy ... Louis Seaborn.

Mr. Perry Allen, a young gentleman farmer ... W. D. White. Jessamine L. e., The Girl, ... Mrs. Wm. Bell.

Mrs. Van Dyne, an agent for the P. D. Railroad. Miss Lucy Brandt. Imogene McCarty, a stenographer, ... Miss Ethel Counts.

Mrs. Beavers, from Plagg Corners. Miss Marguerite Brennecke. Rosa Bella Beavers, the Belle of Plagg Corners. Miss Sara Henry.

Mrs. Perry Allen, Jessamine's chum. ... Miss Florence Hetrick. Dilly, Mrs. Beavers' hired girl, ... Miss Alice Belle McLees.

Synopsis. Act I—The private office of Cyrus B. Kilbuck on a morning in March. Cupid gets busy in a railroad office.

Barnaby Bird, the Early Bird, from Plagg Corners. The Bird in a tree. The insulted office boy. Bad news from college. Father and son. Some stormy interview. "Get out, earn your own living, make good!" Exit "Tony."

Act II—The sitting room in Mrs. Beavers' boarding house, Plagg Corners. A morning in July. A lazy boarder. "I'll get him up if I have to throw a bucket of hot suds through the transom." Rosa Bella Beavers, the belle of Plagg Corners. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Allen arrive to meet Jessamine. Tony blossoms out as a regular business man. The Bird in the bush. Tony buys the River Road. "Ruined! Ruined!"

Act III—After dinner. Jessamine shows her faith in Tony. Mr. Bird takes a drop too much and is rebuked by Dilly, the hired girl, and the corresponding secretary of the Young Ladies' Cold Water Society. The Bird in the hand—(trapped by Jessamine.) Sold for half a million dollars. A regular business man at last.

Don't fail to see this most excellent little comedy. It is brimming over with fun from beginning to end. There will not be a dull moment during the performance, even the intermissions being filled with music or some comic stunt. The Civic League will sell home-made candles while the band plays. Come early and get a good seat, for everybody is going to be there.

Remember, at the Walhalla High School Auditorium, Friday night of this week, Feb. 24th, 8 o'clock. Admission, 20 and 35 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. McCurry Neville returned last week from their wedding trip to several points in Florida. They are at present at home to their friends in West Union.

C. F. Hetrick and Jas. F. Neville have been drawn as grand jurors and Louis A. Lay as a petit juror for the March term of the Federal Court to be held at Rock Hill.

Have you paid your municipal license for the year 1922. The time for paying business licenses will expire the last day of this month. Pay during the next few days and save the penalty.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Harrison and little son, of Greenville, spent the past week-end in Walhalla visiting the former's mother, Mrs. G. A. Harrison, and at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Sloan.

Mrs. C. F. Hetrick sustained quite painful injury on Thursday of last week, when she fell near her home, the fall resulting in breaking a rib. Her many friends will be glad to learn that she is getting along nicely and hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. G. A. Harrison will leave this week for Greenville, where she will make her home in the future with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Harrison. Mrs. Harrison's many friends in Walhalla regret her departure, and hope to see her often in the old home town.

At the municipal election in West Union last week E. O. Hutchison was re-elected intendant and the entire warden ticket as elected, there being no opposition except in the race for intendant. J. H. Alley made a good race for the latter place, but Mr. Hutchison was re-elected.

The Star Theatre, Walhalla, has the following pictures booked for the balance of the week: Wednesday, "The Scoffer"; Thursday, Constance Binney in "Room and Board," and Friday, Charles Ray in "Scrap Iron."

This is an unusually attractive program and one which will be sure to please all patrons of the theatre.

Mrs. Jesse W. Rankin is at home this week recuperating from an attack of the flu. Mrs. Rankin informs us that the disease is very prevalent at Norton's where she is teaching, a number of people being sufferers from pneumonia as well as flu. Mrs. Rankin holds the position of principal of the Norton school.

Used Tractors and Trucks FOR SALE.

I have several good used Fordson Tractors, which will offer at a big bargain. Will sell three One-Ton Trucks at less than one-half of what they are actually worth. Why not own a good used Passenger Car? I have some that are just as good for service as if new. The only difference is that they will cost you only a fraction of their intrinsic value. Terms can be arranged on these goods for as much as one year at 6 per cent interest.

Local Notes from Tamassee.

Tamassee, Feb. 21.—Special: The School Improvement Association met on Feb. 17, Friday afternoon, with the largest number of members that we have ever had present at a meeting. This was indeed encouraging to those who are always there. The school children entertained us with a dialogue, songs and recitations. We celebrated Washington's birthday at that time, after our business had been transacted. We enjoyed refreshments later, which were served by Misses Gantt, Nicholson and Mrs. Chatham.

On Friday night we gave a masquerade party, which was largely attended, and all who attended appeared to enjoy it immensely.

The patrons and friends of the school gave a working on Monday to clean off the grounds. The men worked faithfully digging up the stumps, etc., and the ladies served a lunch and hot coffee at noon. We wish to thank each person individually who helped us.

(Misses Gantt and Nicholson spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dock Nicholson near Salem. They report a pleasant visit.

J. C. Rankin, of Picket Post section, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rankin. He has been sick for some time, but is better at this time.

The night school is being well attended. It is under the direction of Mr. Alexander, principal of the Tamassee school.

vice again will prove of great accommodation to the public. The friends of W. V. Davis are sorry to learn of his misfortune in falling from a three-story building at Columbia, Miss. When the scaffold on which he was standing broke he was given a heavy fall. He was, however, not seriously hurt, but is pretty badly bruised up.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. S. N. Hughs at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of Friday, Feb. 24th.
