THE NEWS OF BOUNTY LAND.

Grandmother's Convention Proves to be Interesting Occasion.

Bounty Land, July 10.—Special: One of the most delightful occasions at all was the convention of grandmothers last Tuesday morning from 9:30 to 12 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. D. Foster, the assemblage being in response to the following unique and original invitation: "I invite you to come, on the Fourth of July—"

So gay we shall be—how the moments will fly! With needles so busy, we'll follow the ways Of fair Mistress Ross of Colonial days."

The modest, cozy little home looked most inviting with pored decorations of graceful, luxuriant ferns and bowls of gorgeous crimson lilies.

After the guests arrived and half an hour had elapsed, spiced with delightful intercourse, each guest was given a piece each of red, white and blue bunting, with the request that they imitate the example of Mistress Betsy Ross, whereupon these busy seamstresses of 1922, equipped with scissors, needles and bunting, were quite industrious for a while in the construction of wonderful facsimile reproductions of the U. S. flag, although some of their stars bore striking resemblance to splashes produced by frogs jumping into a pond.

At the close of this interesting contest Mrs. R. M. Davis was declared prize winner receiving a beautiful hat pin, while Mrs. J. J. Ballenger received the "booby," a paper of needles, with which to practice flag-making. During the next few moments the guests were engaged in trying to recognize pictures of the "Debutantes of the Seventies," the grandmothers of today. In this Mrs. Sallie Cox was most successful and was presented an elegant picture.

A questionnaire on our flag was the next feature of entertainment, and it was then that the contestants fully realized just how little they really knew of our dear old flag, even though they had just constructed quite a number of crude imitations, which were hanging up for inspection. Mrs. W. H. Hughs' answers were more nearly correct, thus winning for her an artistic sweet grass basket containing a lovely geranium in full bloom.

In the rear of the hall, beneath a picturesque green bower Mrs. Dean Davis presided over the punch bowl and served refreshing draughts of feed punch throughout the morning. Before the departure of the grandmothers delicious ice cream and cakes were served.

This memorable occasion was enjoyed by the following guests: Mesdames J. J. Ballenger, Sallie H. Cox, W. H. Hughs, M. T. Hughs, D. A. Perritt, W. T. Hubbard, T. B. Wylie, R. M. Davis, Julia D. Shanklin, C. E. Gambrell, J. L. Smith, Mattie J. McDonald, W. C. Foster, E. M. Foster, H. P. McKie and Miss Laura Perritt.

The Bounty Land school will open July 24th with Miss Lalla Ballenger as principal and Miss Carrie McMahon as assistant. All patrons are urged to be present with their children at the opening.

Mrs. Freda Hughs Berry and little son Bill are visiting relatives in Pickens.

Miss Ida McMahan, of Greenville, and Mrs. Sadie Sligh, of Birminghams, Ala., are guests in the home of W. T. Hubbard.

Mrs. Blackman, of Townville, who is attending the summer school at Clemson, is a guest of Mrs. Jesse Hubbard.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Jordan and daughter, Miss Emily, of Greenville, and Mrs. Alice Doyle Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Emily Shoemaker, of Granbury, Texas, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stribling.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pickett and two children, Samuel and Elizabeth, of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. B. Pickett, of Sandy Springs, were late guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wright.

Charles Hardy, of Seneca, spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blackwell.

Miss Frances Blackwell spent a recent fortnight with her aunt, Mrs. Hugh Holleman, in Seneca.

Miss Maude Hardy, of Anderson, is a guest in the home of D. H. McKie.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Poore and three children, of Chattanooga, Tenn., are expected guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus McDonald.

The Rock Springs missionary society met Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Dean Davis.

Some unknown party stole from the clothes line the washed clothes, bedclothes included, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Marett a few nights ago. This will be a warning to everybody against leaving clothes out over night.

Miss Dessie Wynne, of Carrollton, Ga., is a guest of relatives in this vicinity.

The members of the Gypsy Smith Circle are looking forward to the next meeting, which will be held on next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with Mrs. J. C. Sanders. The improvement association will meet at 7 o'clock at the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Owens had as their guests the week-end Mr. and Mrs. H. M. DuPre, of Walhalla.

J. J. Ballenger and his Sunday school class of young men met at the old Mauldin mill place and worked out the crop of one Mr. Morgan, who has had sickness in his family for some weeks.

Mrs. Dean Davis' Sunday school class of young people, together with a number of others, had a delightful picnic in J. P. Stribling's pasture Friday evening.

Davis Sanders left Friday for Greenville, where he will complete the course in stenography begun in the Seneca High School.

Mrs. J. H. Alley's friends are glad to know that she has returned from the Baptist Hospital of Columbia, but regret that her condition is very little improved. We hope, however, that early developments will be encouraging and that her health will be entirely restored.

The guests for the week-end in the Marett home were Mr. and Mrs. Swift Bruce, of Seneca, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Allison and son, of Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McKie and five sons, of Wilsonville, Ala., are guests of Mrs. McKie's mother and sister, Mrs. E. D. and Miss Cornelia Foster.

Marion, Grover and Miss Cora Hubbard motored to Greenville last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McDonald, Mrs. Julia D. Shanklin and E. R. Shanklin were among those who attended the district conference at Walhalla last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Adams and sons, Lalton and Horace, visited C. E. Callahan, of Townville.

Homer, John and Miss Pearl Ballenger and Miss Vera Cox attended services at Easley Sunday.
