Mrs. J. B. Pickett has been seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Wright, of Greenwood, for ten days, suffering from pneumonia and serious complications. Her children have all been summoned to her bedside, and grave fear is felt that she will not survive. Mrs. Pickett lived for many years near Seneca, in the Bounty Land community, until about three years ago, when she went to Sandy Springs to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Mac Milam, and was visiting Mrs. Wright when stricken with this serious illness. There are hosts of friends in Oconee who will anxiously await news from her, who are hoping this dear old lady will recover. Little hope is held out by the attending physician owing to her advanced age, Dec. 18 having been her 79th birthday.

In the election held yesterday there were but 25 votes cast—18 being against the annexation of Midway to Walhalla, and seven in favor of annexation. Little interest was taken in the matter except on the part of those directly interested in the question of coming into Walhalla. The great consideration on the part of the Midway people was, we understand, an unwillingness to assume the high tax rate that is burdening the people of Walhalla. Only three votes, we are informed, were cast by residents of Walhalla.

Just received, a shipment of the well known High Point buggies. Call and get one. (If you ride, ride right.) W. M. Brown, Walhalla, S. C.—adv.—38-tf

There are many friends of Jas. M. Hughs in Oconee who will be glad to hear from him, and especially to learn that he has recently received a promotion in his work at Martha's Haven, Mass., where he has been engaged for some time in connection with the Owen Farm, breeder of fine poultry. His latest promotion is to the position of superintendent of this well known farm, which is one of the largest in the entire world. James M. Hughs is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hughs, of Richland, and a brother of T. H. Tughs, of Walhalla.

There are hosts of friends in all parts of Oconee and in adjoining States who will regret to learn that Mrs. Mary N. Ansel is critically ill at her home here. Mrs. Ansel has been in a serious condition for some time, but for the past week her recovery has been despaired of, her condition having become alarmingly worse. No hope for recovery is held out by her physicians, and the end may be expected at any time. Mrs. Ansel has proven herself a true and tried friend to hundreds in her long years of usefulness, and wherever she is known the announcement of her serious condition will bring genuine sorrow.

The managers of the People's Department Store have been run almost to death the past week by customers who wanted to buy "some of those 5c. sweaters." By reason of an error in the advertisement in The Courier last week these calls for 5c. sweaters were made—in fun, of course. The quotation of prices was

In reality "from 95c. to $3.50," and in the advertisement it appeared "from 95c. to $3.50." In another part of the advertisement the figures "$1.50" did not show up as plainly as they should have. We regret the errors, as we try to have such matters correctly given, but errors will "slip by" despite every precaution, now and then.

One of the most elaborate affairs of the season was the banquet tendered the Walhalla football team and the High School "cheer leaders" by the Chamber of Commerce last Friday evening at the Alexander Hotel. The dining room was tastefully decorated in purple and white, the school colors, and the long table where the players and cheer girls were seated, was unusually attractive, the centerpiece being a genuine football in the school colors. Candelabra were burning at either end of the table and dainty hand-painted place cards of football design were at each guest's plate. A tempting menu was served. Music was furnished by Miss Ruth Martin and the "cheer girls." Mayor James M. Moss acted as toastmaster for the evening in his usual happy manner. Short and peppy speeches were made by Coach Singleton, Manager Poore and Capt. Lynn Davis for the school, while Lewis C. Harrison, J. B. S. Dendy, M. R. McDonald, H. R. Hughs Revs. Barr and Langston, and others, responded for the Chamber of Commerce. This pleasant affair was given in appreciation of the splendid records of the team this year, and more than seventy-five enthusiastic guests were present.

Earle's Grove Local Notes.

Westminster, R. F. D., Dec. 18.—Miss Myrtle Richey is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Richey. We understand she will be in this community about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lafoy Whitfield, of Cross Roads, were the week-end guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. J. W. Ables.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Richardson delightfully entertained the young people of this community at a fruit supper last Friday night. A nice time is reported by all present.

Earle's Grove school will close on next Friday, Dec. 22, for the Christmas holidays. On Friday night there will be an entertainment and a box supper. Everybody invited.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. L. M. Richey. Her many friends hope for her early recovery.

T. B. Ables made a business trip to Seneca last Saturday. Miss Sue Ellen Cox and Mrs. Beatrice Blackman, teachers in Earle's Grove school, spent the week-end with their parents.

Notice to Trustees.

There will be a meeting of Oconee County Trustees' Association on next Friday, Dec. 22d, at 10 a. m., at the Court House. Each and every trustee in the county is expected to attend. Several speakers have been invited. Respectfully, L. C. Speares.

BOUNTY LAND-RICHLAND NEWS.

Mrs. J. B. Pickett Seriously Ill—A Number of Flu Cases Reported.

Bounty Land, Dec. 18.—Special: There is quite a good deal of sickness in this community, a number of cases being victims of "flu."

Every member of the family of Gus James has influenza except the oldest son, a lad of about 13. The family is being cared for by near neighbors.

The entire community and friends everywhere of Mrs. J. B. Pickett are saddened on hearing the news of her serious illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Pickett, who has made her home for the past several years with her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Milam, in Sandy Springs, left a few weeks ago to visit another daughter, Mrs. J. R. Wright of Greenwood where she is now confined to her bed suffering from both pneumonia and lackage of the heart and little hope is entertained for her recovery.

Frank Marette who has been engaged in the carpenter's trade for the past two weeks is at home until Jan. 1st. The Long Creek students, Charles Cater and Misses Sara Cater and Etta Adams, will be in their respective homes here the latter part of the week for the Christmas holidays. Mrs. G. A. Lynch has been quite indisposed for several days. We hope she will soon be convalescent. The many friends of Miss Etta Rankin will be rejoiced to learn that she returned Saturday from the Anderson Hospital where she had been confined for over six weeks, having undergone quite a serious operation. We hope for her entire recovery. Little Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wilson, is quite ill of pneumonia. A physician was called yesterday, and it is hoped the little one will soon be well.

Burgess McDonald had the misfortune of breaking a leg last Wednesday while playing ball at Richland school. We hope, however, that the young man will not lose all the anticipated pleasures of the coming Yuletide, but will soon recover from his injuries.

Mrs. S. B. Wyly and two sons, of Seneca, spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Marette. The two boys were ill during their stay, but are convalescent.

Misses Mattie Sue Marette and Emily Corbin have been employed as salesladies in Max Uden's dry goods store at Seneca for several Saturdays past.

Both the Richland and Bounty Land schools will celebrate Christmas by erecting a Christmas tree on next Friday afternoon in each school. The pupils are jubilant with anticipation.

Mrs. A. S. Rollins arrived Saturday for a few days' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Peritt. Mrs. Rollins is returning from quite a pleasant trip to Chicago, Indianapolis and Cleveland, and will leave for her home in Charleston Wednesday.

We regret to learn that Mrs. W. T. Hubbard, who has been suffering from influenza, is not recovering as rapidly as it was hoped that she might. We join with numerous other friends in the hope for her early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Hubbard and children have all been quite indisposed, but are better.

C. K. Rankin, of Jordan, visited his mother, Mrs. R. N. Rankin, Sunday.

Our Winthrop girls, Misses Olive Lynch, Willie McDonald and Ida Beth Doyle, are expected Thursday to spend the holidays with their respective parents in the community.

Happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year to The Courier force and to all The Courier readers!
