IN THE PILOT HOUSE.

"Yes sir; this kind of work obliges a man to keep sober as a judge. Of all men in the world, steamboat pilots and railroad engineers should be liquor alone. For on their clearness of sight and coolness of head depends the safety of life and property."

Keating's hand on the wheel as he said this, Mr. A. Brock of No. 22 Silver street, Chicago, added: "Of course, some of 'em drink; but the sober ones have the best positions and the best pay. Yes, the work and exposure sometimes tells on 'em; but for my part, I find PARKER'S Tonic to be all the invigorant I need. I've got a bottle aboard here now; never go on a trip without it. When I haven't my appetite, or am in any way out of sorts, it sets me up in no time. If drinking men would use the Tonic, it would help 'em to break off. (No, that isn't a high tone; it's a star, low down near the water.) As I was saying, the Tonic is new life bottled up. You see that flag-staff? Well, with a bottle of PARKER'S Tonic in the locker I can keep malaria as far from me as that, all the time. My wife has used it for three years for summer complaints and colic, and as an invigorant, when she's tired out from overwork, she says the Tonic is a daisy. Good-bye! Don't break your neck going below."

"This preparation, which has been known as PARKER'S GINGER Tonic, will hereafter be advertised and sold simply under the name of PARKER'S Tonic. As unprincipled dealers are constantly deceiving their customers by substituting inferior articles under the name of ginger, and as ginger is really an unimportant ingredient, we drop the misleading word."

There is no change, however, in the preparation, itself, and all bottles remaining in the hands of dealers, wrapped under the name of PARKER'S GINGER Tonic, contain the genuine medicine if the genuine signature of HENRY C. PARKER, C. O. is at the bottom of the outside wrapper.

We will simply say that our stock of Hats are complete, all sizes, all styles, all prices.

NOTIONS. Hosiery, 5, 10, 12, 15, 20, 25 cents and up. Black and white laces of every kind; Ladies', Misses', and Gents' Linen Handkerchiefs at 8, 10 and 25 cents.

All who are owing us will please come forward and pay up promptly, or else an officer will call on you shortly.
