

PICKENS SENTINEL.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. J. M. Welborn's young son weighs eleven pounds. H. O. Bowen, Esq., attended court at Greenville last week. The railroad is coming. Get down to city prices for real estate. Miss Nettie Rodgers, of Spartanburg, is visiting Mrs. H. C. Grady. Miss Annie Warren, of Pendleton, is on a visit to Mrs. C. E. Robinson. Mr. and Mrs. Trez Folger paid a visit to relatives and friends here last week. W. A. Lesley, Jr., of Laurens county, was among his Pickens friends last week. Col. J. E. Hagood came up from Charleston last week to be at the railroad election. Mr. Trez Folger and wife go to Arizona instead of Tennessee as was stated last week. Henry W. Farr has moved his sawmill up above E. F. Loper's on the place purchased by Mr. P. Panel. Misses Charlotte Murff and Stella Newberry are visiting the family of Dr. Littlejohn at Gaffney. Mr. Francis Rogers has the frame of his new dwelling up and ready for the cover and weatherboarding. The Presbyterian oyster supper at Easley netted the church $16, and besides, was most enjoyable social gathering. The infant of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Stephens died last Monday night, and was buried Tuesday at Concord church. Don't forget the Sunday School picnic at Mountain Grove next Saturday. Let everybody turn out and have a good time. Mr. Freyling Nelson, who is now ninety years old, was out last Saturday and voted for the subscription to the railroad. Bonnie T. McDaniel left last week for Savannah, Ga., to accept a position on a railroad. He was given the position by Bunch McLee. A shaper got off a good one at Easley last week. He sold a tin cup for something over $30. He was probably part of Forepage's show. Barnett Allgood, son of W. B. Allgood, is seriously ill with fever. He is attended by Drs. Easly and Gilliland. He was improving at last accounts. The United States Circuit Court convenes in Columbia next Monday. Maj. J. Lewis, of this place, and A. M. Foyler, of Easley, are drawn to serve on the jury. The young people who are just entering married life, could not get a better thing than subscribe for the Sexton's Dictionary. Easley has taken a step in the right direction by her efforts to secure a public cemetery for the town. It is always best to have the burying ground outside of the town. James Childs, a son of Dyer Childs, of Broad Creek, Anderson county, had his head badly torn up in Coby Brook, on the 12th inst. Dr. James Rosmond dressed his wounds. Miss Lila Riley, of Easley, has been engaged to teach school at Liberty Hill, in Kershaw county. She will take charge early in December. Miss Lila is a splendid teacher. Did everybody see the moon in eclipse last Sunday night? It was clearly seen from this place through the different stages of eclipse except toward the first when a small cloud obscured it a little. Bright Gilstrap's mule became frightened last week at a pile of cotton seed near Mr. G. W. Dorris, and ran away with him. The mule threw him out of the buggy and skinned him up considerably. Mrs. J. D. Cureton has our thanks for a waiter containing a most handsome bouquet of flowers, a Chinese quince and a most delicious plate of citron preserves of her own make. They are certainly elegant. Mr. J. H. Martin, of the Old boy section, expects soon to emigrate to Texas. Nothing short of a good prospect of a gold mine would induce us to leave such beautiful lands as Ham has among those remaining hills. Mr. A. N. ... Anderson ... a few days ago and paid up his subscription to the Sexton's in advance and ordered one of our best dictionaries. Mr. Grant, and we guess many others, began to sow wheat last week. It is about time we were having a good wheat crop, and if we are as careful with it as we are with the cotton crop, we will see quite a revolution in this respect next summer. Mrs. R. M. Pickens, of Greenville, died at the home of her husband in that city last Friday morning. Her remains were interred at the Pickens family graveyard the day following her death. She was a sister of Mrs. J. B. Newberry, of this place. Married on the 12th inst., at the home of the bride's parents, a Miss Jones to Miss Mary Hunt, a daughter of Mr. H. Hunt. We wish them a happy and successful life. If they would subscribe for the Sexton's, it would contribute much to their happiness. Rev. A. W. Walker preached his farewell sermon at the Methodist church on the 8th inst. As this is his last year his friends hope for his return. In the midst of much affliction in his family he has done a great work on the Pickens circuit during the year 1891. Many of the SENTINEL'S patrons are availing themselves of the opportunity of procuring a Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, by accepting the premium offer made to subscribers who pay up all arrearages to the first of January, 1892, and to all new cash subscribers. Married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Canby, on the 22nd inst., Mr. W. F. Barron, of Henderson, N. C., to Miss Edna Canby, of this county. Rev. J. M. Stewart officiated. We wish them abundant success in life, and they would make a good start by subscribing for the Sexton's. Capt. Thos. M. White, Anderson, died last Thursday afternoon. He was about sixty years old and one of the most prominent and substantial citizens of that county. He was known to many of our citizens who will regret to learn of his death. A large circle of friends and relatives are left who will deeply sympathize with the bereaved family. Rev. J. F. Anderson preached his farewell sermon at Easley last Sabbath. This is his fourth year at Easley and, of course, he will not be returned. He has been a most faithful laborer in the vineyard, and has won many friends by his high christian character and humble, pious walk among those with whom he associated. His labors have not been in vain. Mr. E. F. Allgood, of Slaton, was on a visit to W. B. Allgood, of Greenville, last week. He has purchased an improved farm in Montague county, Texas, of about 240 acres. He will pay it a visit soon. If the drought breaks in time, he will have a hundred bushels of wheat on the place. He will be under the supervision of his son, Henry, next year.

RAILROAD!

LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS WHILE THE BELL RINGS, OR THE WHISTLE BLOWS!

Easley, Pickens and Eastatoe Overwhelmingly for It, and Hurricane Did the Right Thing Too.

Foot! Foot! Foot! The Cars are Coming!

The election which was held last Saturday to decide whether or not the town of Easley and the township of Pickens C. H., Eastatoe and Hurricane should subscribe $20,000 to the capital stock of the Pickens railroad company is entirely satisfactory to the friends of the enterprise. The $20,000 was apportioned as follows: The town of Easley, $3,600; Pickens C. H. township, $10,000; Eastatoe township, $3,500; Hurricane township, $2,500.

Those interested in the road turned out on the day of the election, rolled up their sleeves and secured a victory for subscription to the railroad. The vote was as follows: For, Against, Easley, 44 10; Pickens C. H. township, 266 7; Eastatoe, 57 2; Hurricane, 73 29.

Hurricane township was the only one any doubt was expressed about, but there was found seventy-three men in that township who said by their votes they thought the enterprise worth that much to them. They did right and will never regret it. We hope and truly believe that it will not be long before the road will be completed, and double daily trains running from Greenville to Pickens. There is one thing sure, the people saw the golden opportunity and seized it, and they will never regret it.

G. M. Pridmore died in Greenville last Sunday. Dr. Bonner, of Gaffney, was here this week on business. Mr. John C. Carey is buying cotton in Toccoa this fall. One member was received into the Baptist Church last Sunday. E. W. Cox has pitched his tent among us and is ready to take your picture. Leavell, Allen & Co. have been delayed in coming to Pickens by sickness in the family of Mr. Allen.

Mr. T. Thornton, of Seneca, expects soon to move to Anderson. He will still be in the employ of the R. & D. Railroad company. Jim Morgan, colored, and a child to fall into the fire last Saturday and severely burned. The child is expected before Dr. Williams attends to it. Rev. A. W. Walker will preach in the Methodist church at Pickens on the fifth Sunday, 11 a. m., and at 7 p. m. Rev. W. R. Justice will occupy the pulpit.

Mr. W. J. F. Haynes brought us a cotton bloom in Friday, which had that long extended its petals to the frosty air. It made a heavy start on the 30th inst. A protracted meeting is in progress at the Presbyterian church in that city. Dr. J. K. Riley, assisted by Rev. J. A. Willson, of Seneca. Mr. Willson is preaching some very able and instructive sermons. For the money, our premium offer, Webster's unabridged dictionary, is a marvel of excellence. Call and see it, or send us $1.00 besides your subscription to the Sexton's, and have one delivered free from this office.

Mr. Luke L. Arrial died at his home in Easley last Friday morning, and was buried the day following in the graveyard of the Methodist church. He was a consistent member of the Methodist church for many years, and lived to the advanced age of eighty-two years. Many relatives and friends are left to mourn his death. Not long since V. A. Ferguson missed his fine coat. He finally discovered him in the smoke-house in a barrel of molasses, but the molasses were on the ground and the steed stepping around in them up to his ankles. He rather the boys would attend to drawing the molasses, so he traded off the enterprising coat in a few days. The Palmetto Collegiate Institute, Lexington, S. C., offers excellent advantages at lowest cost. Holders of its certificates will get first grade teachers' certificates. Best equipped school of its class in the State. Seven teachers. Board and tuition from $8 to $10 per month. For full information write the principal, P. E. Rowell. Capt. O. R. Doyle, the polite and accommodating depot agent at Easley, resigned some time ago, his resignation to take effect on the 1st inst., but at the earnest solicitation of the company, he remains until a suitable man can be procured to take his place. Capt. Doyle goes to take charge of a farm at Fort Hill. He and his charming wife have the kindest wishes of many friends.

Jessie, the little daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Allen, of Central, died last Friday, the 13th inst., after a lingering illness, of pneumonia. She was a precious jewel lent from heaven to the fond parents, and now the only consolation in their bereavement—the only halo for their bleeding hearts is they are assured that their little treasure is in heaven. She will be as precious there and safe from the poison of sin. A light has gone out in the home but it shines with a softer and brighter glory beyond the river.

SHOOTING NEAR CENTRAL.

George Lovingood Downs Manuel Burton for Lovin' Too Good Mrs. Lovingood.

George Lovingood, alias Arial, colored, is in jail. On last Sunday night at a negro church near Central, he shot one Mansel Burton, colored, for, it is said, paying too much attention to his (Lovingood's) wife. The weapon used was a .42 calibre self-loading Smith & Wesson revolver. The ball entered one side of Burton's body and came out on the other. Soon after the shooting Lovingood left and tried to make his escape by going to the mountains. He got breakfast at Joe Stephens', colored, who lives on D. A. Allgood's place. He then started on his way to North Carolina and met with Jake Griffin, colored, and got Jake to take his buggy and carry him as far as he could toward North Carolina. Mr. D. A. Allgood saw George and concluded he had some something wrong, and he made arrangements with Jake to go a certain road with him and to drive slow, until he could come to town and find out and get assistance and arrest him. He secured the assistance of Constable H. A. Bowen and returned and captured him near Seneca church. After he was arrested he said he was not the one that shot Phil Eilenburg, and upon further enquiry he told them what he had done. He was lodged in jail to await developments.

Attempted Robbery and Murder. Last Saturday night three negroes, tramps, attempted to break into the store of Meers, Wyatt & Latham at Easley. They were frightened away by some means and thwarted in their purposes. They went from there towards Pickensville and Sunday morning went down toward Liberty. They stopped at the house of Philip Eilenburg and asked for something to eat but were refused it. After they left, Eilenburg concluded to arrest them, and calling some of his boys, he went after them. He had heard that they had attempted robbery or had robbed some parties in Greenville and had a description that fitted them. They were overtaken and one of them arrested. The other two ran and made their escape. Eilenburg told his boys to follow them and he would hold the one he had. After the boys left the negro turned upon Eilenburg and said he was going to kill him; then he struck Eilenburg in the back with the left shoulder a severe lick and then a knife and stabbed him twice in the back, just above the kidneys and in the region of the kidneys. The scamp then made good his escape and at this writing has not been heard of. The other two were captured near Mr. Abe Mauldin's Sunday evening and are now in jail.

The negroes were interviewed by a Sexton's reporter and the following facts ascertained: The two in jail said their names were Robert Brandon and Grant Price, and that their homes were in Danville, Va. They said they were on their way to Florida to pick fruit. The one that shot Eilenburg was named John Lewis and claimed to be from the same place. Said they had never been on the "road" before; that Lewis was the leader and that they were following him and that he had told them if they did not stick to him he would kill them. Brandon said his father lived at 561 Dne street, Danville, Va., and that he, himself, had been raised by and with Lewis. He said he had a good opinion of his father, but that he is a good boy from general principles. His occupation, heretofore, was rolling and stonning tobacco. They reached Easley about twelve o'clock Saturday and went off toward Pickensville; they returned to Easley that night and made their way to Liberty, where they were captured by Dr. Gilliland and dressed his wounds. At last accounts he was doing very well, but is in a critical condition.

Robert Brandon and Grant Price were taken from the jail on Monday night by Constable S. N. Wyatt, and carried to Greenville, to answer some charges against them there.

Reckless Surveyors. Mr. Burkhalter made the first step toward railroading last week, and made his first promise good. Civil Engineer Powell and Mr. Granly came up last Wednesday and began the survey of the Pickens and Easley Railroad. The first line they will make is to go on W. Meares' lot, just below the big house, about a straight line to the Easley mill, out by J. M. Neely's. The first thing they want to do is to see which is the best route to come in this place. They do not apprehend any trouble with the line if they can get high enough up two cables from town to come into town on an average grade. The second line will come by Wolf Creek bridge on the Easley road, up by Lee's house, passing around the hill near F. C. and J. H. Newton, and into the Glassy Mountain road near the Cemetery. The third one will be Capt. Kirk's survey of the Cumberland Gap road, by Lee's house, passing around the hill near F. C. and J. H. Newton, and into the Glassy Mountain road near the Cemetery. Hurrah for the railroad!

Easley Well Worked. Last Wednesday, 11th inst., a musical showman, H. H. Enloe, advertised a free show at the Academy. As is usual, such shows a good crowd was drawn. He regaled them for awhile with music simultaneously drawn from six instruments. The next exciting feature of the program was the showman wanted to know which was the most popular young lady in the village, and this could be ascertained by no other means so well as by an election in which all were eligible to vote as many times as they had dimes to throw in the showman's hat. There were several nominations. There was an exciting election which was won by Miss Estelle Folger, with Miss Muggie Wells a close second. The showman won about $35.00. He brought on the town council for not charging him license. He said all towns should do as he is well received wherever he goes.

You know you owe us, and you know it is due. Why keep our money? We have no goods or debts. Can't you do something the right time. Lewis & Morris.

Business Notices. The great question of the day is: "How to keep the Irish dynamite excitement in a manageable condition." Easy enough. Give each man a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, 25 cts. The triumph of the age—Salvation Oil, a first-class liniment for 25 cts. S. J. Johnson, contractor and builder. Work done on short notice, and satisfaction guaranteed. Address Piedmont, S. C. P. B. Hickey, 1298 Main street, Lynchburg, Va., writes: "I was broke out all over with sores, and my hair was falling out. After using a few bottles of Botanic Blood Balm my hair quit falling out and all the sores got well. Do you want a new store? Tinware of any kind, made from the best material, or some of the best and cheapest. Jeany's now offered in Pickens county. If so, go to Lewis & Morris, the popular corner store. J. W. Yates, Tallahassee, Tenn., writes: "It does me good to praise Botanic Blood Balm. It cured me of an obsession on the lungs and asthma that troubled me two years and that other remedies failed to benefit."

HAGOOD, BRUCE & CO. Are now receiving and selling their FALL GOODS. Bought by Mr. W. M. Hagood in New York. Watch this space for further particulars and come their store for STYLES AND BARGAINS. HAGOOD, BRUCE & CO., Pickens, S. C. October 20th, 1891. We have arranged to buy cotton for a near factory, and hope to be able to give fair prices for it, notwithstanding the heavy decline the past week. There is little hope for a rise, and we urge parties who are owing us to bring us their cotton without delay. We didn't hold our flour and bacon in the spring for higher prices, and it is not fair for you to keep back the pay when we need it. HAGOOD, BRUCE & CO.

GREAT REDUCTION In Prices! A change in our firm is contemplated at an early date and from this date until our present stock is disposed of we will offer our entire stock at a great reduction. DANTZLER & SMITH, 63 and 65 Main St., GREENVILLE, S. C. Telephone Nos. 64 and 38. 2,000 Stitches Per Minute THE NATIONAL PRIDE! The Standard Rotary Shuttle SEWING MACHINE! WE ARE Proud of its beauty. Proud of its uniformity of its stitch. Proud of its quietness. Proud of the variety of its work. Proud of its speed. Proud of its ingenious mechanism. FACTS WORTH THINKING ABOUT. The "Standard" has the biggest bobbin of any lock-stitch machine. Holds 100 yards of cotton. The tension is released when taking out the goods. The finest goods are not drawn or puckered. Less noise. Runs fifty per cent. lighter than vibrating machines. The most expensive, beautiful and practical set of attachments. Bent wood work of the finest finish ever made. Shortest needle used in lock-stitch machines—therefore less liable to bend and skip stitches. Will wear twice as long as other lock-stitch machines. Every part is independent of every other part, and can be replaced at a trifling cost. Therefore you can keep a "Standard" practically new a life-time. For sale by LEWIS & MORRIS, Pickens, S. C.
