May Festival.
We were among the guests of the young ladies of Rev. W. G. Connor's Female Seminary, at their May entertainment on Thursday evening last. We have seldom attended a social gathering, where there was more of real enjoyment among all participants, in the simple and genial amusements which made the hours "speed on rapid wings"; and where there was as soon dispelled that atmosphere of chilly reserve which frequently casts a damper upon such occasions. Believing as we do, in educating young ladies in the graces of social life, as well as cultivating their minds, we are glad to see anything in connection with a female educational institution, which has a tendency to instruct the young ladies who are students there, in the ways of refined society, while at the same time affording them pleasant recreation. The entertainment at Rev. Mr. Connor's was of a character to achieve this result; and was admirably conceived and carried out in all its details. After an hour or two spent in the usual social amusements, an adjournment was had to the supper-table, in a hall decorated with evergreens and flowers, where all enjoyed the sumptuous supper there prepared, and which warranted comparison favorably with similar entertainments in our better days of "auld lang syne." Wit, gallantry and good appetites did justice to the feast, and then came music and gay pastimes in their turn, until at a reasonable hour, all wended their homeward ways, ever to look back with pleasant regard to this May festival of '67.

Pass Him Around.
We are informed by one of our most worthy colored residents, that a darkey, who has been rambling through the country, trying to sell land-certificates to the freedmen at $2.00 apiece, made his appearance in this town on Wednesday last, and announced that he would address the citizens of Orangeburg that evening, on matters of great importance. As he called himself "Sanders" at this place, and has been rejoicing in the name of "Stanford" in other localities, his expected auditors regarded him with great suspicion; and upon their making rather close inquiries into his antecedents, the said Sanders, alias Stanford, vanished. In his conversation with our informant, he pretended to possess extraordinary authority and power, said that "he could go on the railroad track anywhere and by waving his handkerchief at a train, they would recognize him and stop for him as a distinguished passenger," and that "the telegraph was under his control, and he had stopped it completely for that day, until he should leave Orangeburg, when he expected to permit it to start operations again," and various other absurdities. Our colored friends acted very wisely in giving him no opportunity of ventilating his nonsense in this place.

Robbery.
On last Monday night, the store of Messrs.
T. A. JEFFORDS & Co., of this place, was burglariously entered and a large sum of money, two pistols, and several pieces of bacon and other articles stolen therefrom. Circumstances having pointed to a mulatto fellow by the name of William Thomson, temporarily in the employment of Capt. J. C. Rowe, as one of the guilty parties, a warrant for his arrest was taken out, but he unfortunately succeeded in eluding the officers of justice, and effected his escape. A search warrant was also obtained, and articles were found which had been stolen from the store of Messrs. T. A. J. & Co., the night before, while his valise contained articles stolen from the same store some time ago, some of the clothing of which Messrs. EZEKIEL & KOHNS' store was robbed last month, and also several articles which connected this Thomson with the robberies at the Rail Road Depot, which were such a mystery at the time.
As the said William Thomson has left "these parts," and may turn up ready for rascalty in some other section, we give a description of him, for the benefit of the public.

He was formerly the slave of Capt. JOSEPH WHITNER of Darlington. Afterwards Sergeant in the 104th Regiment U. S. C. T., Colonel FRAZER. He is about five feet eight inches in height, inclined to be stout, marked by small pox in his face and over his body, left eye destroyed by that disease, also with a large scar on the front of each leg from the same cause. Was lately employed as nurse at the freedman's hospital at Orangeburg. Light brown face; dark brown hair, silky, with slight inclination to curl. Ready spoken and civil in manners, and can read and write. Is very well acquainted in Beaufort, and at Combahee Ferry, and Pocotaligo.

[COMMUNICATED.]
Pic Nic.
Mr. Editor:—It is not always an easy task to place our thoughts on paper, especially when we attempt to record the many interesting events which transpired at a Pic Nic which took place at "Ebenzer Church" in this District, in honor of esteemed and aged citizens Mr. and Mrs. Smoke.
That your numerous readers may better comprehend the tenor of this communication, I will state that by previous arrangements it was understood that, as far as it was possible, the living descendants of the Smoke family should assemble at Ebenzer, thereby rendering the First of May agala day, in the "Smoke Town Settlement."

Scarcely had the crystal dew-drop vanished from the beautiful green foliage which every where decks and ornaments our roadsides, when the rattling of vehicles could have been heard wending their way to the appointed place of meeting. Tens, twenties, fifties, and hundreds came, until the number approximated five hundred individuals!
Benches were arranged, for the comfort of all parties, under spreading branches of stately oaks, whose dense foliage answered as an excellent covert from the rays of the sun.
In this shady grove and in conspicuous seats, sat the venerable and patriarchal looking Mr.
Smoke Sr., and his beloved Companion,—respectively 84 and 82 years of age. Around them and in uniform order, were congregated their numerous progeny. To the front and in the centre of this numerous assembly, was suspended the drawing of a majestic old Oak symbolical of the Family Tree, which was executed by Messrs. Ostrander & Baldwin. Issuing from this tree or trunk are thirteen arms or limbs representing the thirteen heads of families, or the thirteen children of Mr. and Mrs.
Smoke, of which nine were males, and four females. From each of these arms in their turn, are offshoots respectively representing the number of heirs of each family, which in the aggregate makes a sum total of 292 descendants, twenty-five of whom have died; two died in the war, the rest from other causes. It is a remarkable coincidence, and, I think, worthy of record, that there were present on this interesting occasion 267 living bona fide representatives of the Smokes.
Rev. Mr. Connor was introduced to the aged couple, when he made some felicitous remarks in his usual easy and elegant manner of delivery, appropriate to the occasion. After the speaking, a table was spread measuring over fifty yards in length, and which actually groaned under its weight of eatables, to which full justice was done. Dinner over, the crowd dispersed to their respective homes, carrying with them many pleasant recollections of the gala day never to be forgotten. MEDICUS.

Registration in New Orleans.
We clip the following from the New Orleans Times:
"The registration of votes, yesterday, did not proceed, in some of the districts, at least, as satisfactorily as might have been desired.
As we feared, the large discretion left in the hands of the registrars, and the action to which it has given rise, have created a very general feeling of dissatisfaction among our people.
Unless the course adopted by the registering officers has been sadly misrepresented, they have carried into the performance of a grave public duty their own partisan prejudices, and many of their decisions are so manifestly illegal that, unless revised and reconsidered, they will amount to a practical denial of justice to the great mass of the white citizens of Louisiana. On the text of the law by which certain of our people are disfranchised, we have already commented, and have also given the opinions of eminent jurists on the subject. But the registrars have adopted, as it would seem, a far more rigid interpretation, and rejections were made by them yesterday which we think will be pronounced by all sound thinkers as illegal and unjust. Instead of construing such doubts as may arise in favor of liberty and personal freedom, they have followed an opposite course, and have been led into errors which are glaringly erroneous. Armed with convenient 'doubts', they reject the claims of citizens whose right to vote cannot be questioned on any legal, moral or constitutional grounds. In view of these facts, we trust that Gen. Sheridan will exercise a portion of that authority with which he is legitimately vested, so as to remove existing and well founded causes of dissatisfaction.

Unless such a course be pursued, the 'fantastic tricks' of irresponsible agents may serve to tarnish a high military reputation and check that spirit of returning loyalty among our people which every true patriot and statesman should encourage. If the object be to restore harmony, the registry law should be liberally interpreted; but if it be simply to secure a party triumph by the disfranchisement of the great mass of our white citizens, the exclusive course inaugurated yesterday will prove eminently successful."

Items.
Switzerland will post an army of observation on the French frontier.
At Paris, it is officially stated that the Emperor has expressed satisfaction with the negotiations now in progress for the settlement of the Luxembourg question.
It is said that the Russian government will receive from the United States a fleet of iron clads instead of a stipulated sum of money in payment of the cession of the Russian possessions.
Queen Victoria has written a letter to the King of Prussia, in which she takes ground in favor of the recent moderate propositions of France in regard to the disposition of Luxembourg, and advises him to accept the plan of compromise, to which Napoleon is not unwilling to accede.

The Prussian government signified by Telegraph its acceptance of the proposition made by the Queen of England for a General Conference of the Great Powers, to be held at London, to settle the Luxembourg dispute on the basis of neutralization of the Grand Duchy to be guaranteed by all the powers represented at the Conference.
At Memphis, Capt. Estes, commanding the post, has forbidden a procession, speeches, or public demonstration in honor of the Confederate dead. Military interference will be avoided by confining the arrangements to simple acts of mourning for dearest relatives.

The Connecticut Legislature was organized on the 1st inst. Governor English in his message says that the situation of public affairs is important in its every aspect. He urges that as citizens of a common country, we should endeavor to extinguish the vindictive resentments engendered by the late war. He says that the great object of that strife has not yet been attained, and that the national Union is not yet restored. That ten States are still denied participation in the national Government, by the action of Congress, which is wholly unwarrantable; and that if the measures which it has adopted are still persisted in, they will transform the Government into a despotism.
He deems the course of legislation pursued by Congress as fatal to the Union and the Constitution as is the doctrine of secession. That the legislation of the 39th Congress was, to a large extent, a series of usurpations and infractions of the Constitution. He argues that Congress has no more power, under the Constitution, to establish Military Governments in the Southern States, than to institute an order of nobility in England, and claims that Congress assumed that power only for the purpose of accomplishing, more thoroughly, the subversion of the States. That if Congress can legislate for those States, it is not difficult to enforce a like interpretation upon the other States of the Union.

THE SOUTHERN

DRUG STORE!
For the liberal patronage which I have thus far received from the citizens of Orangeburg District and the confidence shown in me by very numerous friends. I take the opportunity of expressing my sincere gratitude in this, the first issue of the "ORANGEBURG NEWS." The encouragement of past patronage and kindness induces a strong faith in future success, and, while thanking my friends for past favors, I can assure them that nothing will be left undone to deserve their continuing patronage.
My Store will be essentially a DRUG STORE; and I will warrant Genuine and Pure. I have arranged to supply my customers with Medicines of the very best quality afforded in the market. I avoid all cheap useless articles, and yet my prices shall be as reasonable for VALUABLE, GOOD, FRESH MEDI-CINES as any body's.
I invite the PHYSICIANS of the District to call and examine for themselves. They are judges to whose opinions I submit. Send your Orders and they will be filled to your satisfaction. To the Citizens of my native District who have tried me, I say don't give me up, try me a little longer, and you'll not regret it—you'll find I'll stand a long race, as well as a short one; and your faith in me shall not be misplaced. To those who have not yet tried me, now is your time to begin. As before, if you want good, pure, family MEDICINES, such as Laudanum, Paregoric, Castor Oil, Sweet Oil, Epson Salts, Glauber Salts, Cream Tartar, Carb. Soda, &c., &c., or Dye Stuffs and Paints, and Brushes, Concentrated Lye, &c., or even Patent Medicines of all kinds. Now, just call at that Little Store on Main-Street, and you will be sure to get what you want.
This Drug Store looks small, but your surprise will be great when you enter to find how appearances deceive, and what a quantity of good things are within this same Little Store.
