

Upon the Basis of Fact.

The Charleston Daily News, commenting upon an article in the New York World, which says: "For the Democratic party to begin a new agitation for the repeal of the Reconstruction Acts, would be futile. Negro suffrage is certain to prevail at the South."

This is mainly a practical language, and is being echoed by the press generally in our State. It is true that the centralizing tendency of the extreme Republican party, should be resisted by every patriot and lover of liberty, but it is a question whether the States rights doctrine is not settled, or so much reduced and lopped as to be a nonentity, by the Reconstruction Acts and the amendments to the Constitution.

Let us beware lest we be misled into another protest against facts. In our opinion, these national questions do not materially, and directly affect us now or yet. The question for us is, whether our State government and representation in Congress can be restored to the intelligent, and honest of our citizens.

The great parties of the country are rallying for another encounter, and the issue hangs in the balance who shall conquer; whether the great party that triumphed so signally a year ago, or the great opposing faction. The issues to be settled, are complex: There are some questions of vital moment to us at the South, which do not affect the Northern people at all.

In this very article which the News quotes from the New York World occurs the expression, "negro suffrage will prevail at the South, until after the next Presidential election." And what then? Will it be abolished after that election? Ah! This is the recurrence of the old snare which ruined us before.

The policy, and the only one that has any hope of success, for the South, now, is to avoid any such parties and platforms, and smare, but upon the basis of fact, to pursue such a course of conciliation and recognition of their rights to the colored voters, as to induce a sufficient number of them, freed from the shackles of the party that directs their power to its own aggrandizement, and assured, and guaranteed of the permanent recognition of their rights, to join with the people of the State, in the restoration of honesty and the extirpation of corruption.

This secured, we may, turn to the great national questions that will then interest us as really and truly, a part of the American people. This secured, will be the great true, and moral reconstruction of the Southern people, and will constitute the real and final emancipation of the colored man, when, linked by the ties of policy and sympathy with those whom he best knows, and by whose side Providence has placed him to live and to labor, he shall strike the hands of understanding and concord with his own Southern people.

And until this is secured let the South avoid the dangers of State's rights, and the agitation of settled and silent issues, and turn herself to the great work of restoration and redemption.

This great land, their birthright and heritage will pass forever from her sons unless the effort be made at once. The government the resources, the wealth, the lands, the homesteads will become the prey of the usurper and the conqueror, and the Southern, shall leave the land of his fathers, or look upon it in the hands of the stranger; and the colored man, the tool of a foreign power, used for this purpose of conquest, will have accomplished the work of his Northern leaders, far more merciless than his Southern master, and will pass away.

Let us avoid the shoals of past folly, and turn like men to the practical and immediate duty before us. Timeo Danaos et dona ferentes. Even with the fond promise of the abolition of negro suffrage let us avoid the snares of our Northern Democrats. The Northern Democrats, it seems would use the white men of the South as the Northern Republicans use the colored men, for their own immediate purposes.

For us the duty is to avoid both; to free the colored man from the terrible influence of the party that guides him like a machine, and to woo him to a friendship and confidence with ourselves; and to avoid the delusive hopes and ineffective aid held out to us by the Northern Democracy.

Upon ourselves, our own heroic, practical and united efforts must we depend for our restoration. Let us make this grand and holy effort of patriotism, offering our fond hopes and our clinging prejudices upon the altar of our duty, let us take the facts of our position and turn them into good. Upon such an effort, on the part of a crushed, heroic people, must beam the light of Heaven, in the fullest radiance of success.

Doings in Columbia.

The enacting clause of the Senate bill to increase the salaries of Judges was stricken out, in the House. The bill to reduce the cost of criminal prosecution has passed its second reading in the Senate. Corbin stated in support of the bill that the witnesses fees in Charleston County for one year amounted to $30,000. Hayne stated that in Marion there were sixty witnesses bound over to appear in two cases, that the Solicitor examined them and retained only ten, dismissing the others because their testimony was immaterial. The passage of a law to curtail this enormous expense is eminently wise and necessary, and it is hoped that the bill will pass.

The Sinking fund bill, which provides that Governor Scott and Attorney General Chamberlain be appointed commissioners to sell and convey on behalf of the State all real and personal property of the State not devoted to education or charitable purposes, in such manner and terms as they think proper, the proceeds of which shall be known as the sinking fund and applied to the extinguishment of the public debt, is being discussed in the Senate.

A bill to enforce the provisions of the civil rights bill which provides for the punishment by fine and imprisonment of all common carriers, hotel keepers, managers of theatres or places of amusement, who shall discriminate, in the admission and accommodation, of persons on account of race, color or previous condition, will probably become a law. This is the nearest approximation to miscegenation and social equality that can be made under the sanction of law.

The two houses met in joint assembly at one o'clock on Tuesday for the election of an associate justice of the Supreme Court for the unexpired term of Solomon L. Hoge, resigned. Wright was elected on the first ballot. The vote stood: Wright 72; Whipper 57; ex-Governor Orr 3; General McGowan 1, Thomas Thompson (nobody) 1.

The joint assembly then broke up in confusion. The election for the full term commencing after July next is yet to be made. The Senators vow that they will not meet the House in joint assembly again.

The Democratic members generally voted for Wright, as did all the Senators except Hoyt, Montgomery, Swails, and Wright himself. The colored radicals are jubilant that a colored man has been elected and are telegraphing all over the country.

Wright has received his commission and is seated on the bench. The election for Judge of the fifth circuit is postponed until the 11th inst, Friday next. Among the candidates are Samuel Melton, Thompson H. Cooke, Leroy Youmans, and C. W. Montgomery. Mr. Melton chances are fair. The friends of Mr. Cooke are urging his claims.

The Washington Republican says the President told Mr. George H. Steuart, of Philadelphia, Wednesday that he would shortly appoint Judge Strong to the vacancy on the Supreme Bench, in place of Justice Grier.

REVELS.—It is said that the Honorable Senate of the United States will not admit Revels, the colored senator, because he has not been nine years a citizen, counting either from the emancipation proclamation, or the ratification of the XIVth an amendment, or any other Radical mile-stone on the road to universal glory. This question was mooted while Thad Stevens was in the flesh, and he took the ground that citizenship was a natural and inherent right of all men, and that in the case of slaves, that right was only dormant, and was not considered as any proclamation or constitutional amendment, or other small-sized Radical business. But Revels was born free in North Carolina, and if the laws of that State did not recognize him as a citizen, the right still existed to be asserted when convenient. This is what Mr. Stevens would have said, and Mr. Sumner ought not to say less. It is useless to wince. To this complexion must ye come at last.

THE RURAL CAROLINIAN FOR FEBRUARY.—In a few short months THE RURAL CAROLINIAN has, by its attractive appearance and varied contents of never failing merit, become a standard Agricultural Magazine, and is this day as anxiously looked for and attentively perused by its thousands of readers as if it had been published for a century. Its devotion to the practical and scientific development of Southern agriculture give it a peculiar character and value; not only to the people of the South, whom it more immediately affects, but also to Northerners and Europeans, to whom the South is a sort of China or Japan, but recently opened to their investigation. The number now before us is a splendid illustration of what brains and enterprise can do when aided by the sympathy and interest of our people. With sixty-eight pages of reading matter (four more than the usual number) it has not an article in it that would not please the most practical farmer, and yet there is much to entertain and instruct the general reader. The illustrations are useful as well as ornamental, and the likeness of DeLassepe is worthy of being preserved as a life-like representation of a great man, the moving spirit of a wonderful achievement. The typographical execution is superb, and the publication, as a whole, is one of which our regenerated South may well feel proud. [Charleston Daily News, Feb. 1, 1870.]

The February number of the well-known illustrated fashion magazine—Die Modenschau—has been received. It is a valuable addition to the stock of reading matter actually necessary in a family. Every article of apparel worn by ladies and children is pictured. S. T. Taylor, Canal street, New York, is the publisher.

The Little Corporal for February—Puro, crisp, and brilliant; as usual, full of all the fresh juices of Young American life. It grows better and better. No boy or girl should be without it. One dollar a year, when it is worth double that amount. Published by Alfred L. Sewell & Co., Chicago, Illinois.

STONEWALL JACKSON. Ex-Governor or Letcher announces that the admirers of the virtues and exalted character of the great Christian soldier Stonewall Jackson, propose to erect at the Virginia Military Institute, a memorial chapel, "to testify the respect and honor with which his name is cherished, and to transmit to after generations the veneration due to so renowned a hero."

WEST VIRGINIA.—It is stated that an effort is to be made in the Legislature of West Virginia to remove the capital of that State to Charleston, Kanawha county. The Richmond State Journal believes that they will finally locate it at Richmond and says there is a wish on the part of many of the people of the new State to come back.

The people of British Columbia are petitioning Gen. Grant for annexation. They had better behave themselves, or England will kick them out some morning. The wise statesmen of that country do not put up with such nonsense for any length of time.—The people of British Columbia evidently do not know when they are well off.

A woman was sentenced recently to one year's imprisonment in the New York State prison for murder. The term was made brief because she had an infant, whereupon the New York Court recommends to future juries a verdict of "guilty, with extenuating babies."

DOUBTFUL.—A correspondent of the New York World, writing from Washington, intimates that the late Edwin M. Stanton came to his death by his own hands. This suspicion has been excited by the refusal of the family to allow the remains to be inspected.

ABSCONDED.—The Sheriff of Charendon County, a white scoundrel, has absconded, leaving his securities to fast a considerable balance. Instances of this kind are becoming frequent among the "God and morality party."

THE KENTUCKY SENATE passed a bill on Thursday to establish a new county in that State, to be called the county of Lee, in honor of Robert E. Lee.

COLUMBIA, S. C., JAN. 17TH, 1870. DEAR SIR: I am instructed by a resolution adopted by the SOUTH CAROLINA MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, at its last meeting, "to address a Circular to the most prominent Medical men in the Counties of this State that have no County organization, and urge upon them the formation of Auxiliary Societies, and the appointment of Delegates to the Annual Meeting of the Association," to be held in Columbia on the 3d of March next. The day is long since passed, when arguments were demanded to support, and approval was granted to enforce, the necessity for combined and systematic efforts to advance the ends of Medical Science, and to promote the interests of the Medical Profession. To make known to you the fact that the South Carolina Medical Association is revived, is to elicit for you your hearty God-speed. But I would desire to express upon you the importance of your prompt and earnest cooperation with us in our efforts to further its grand designs. The endeavor may involve sacrifices on your part, but such sacrifices are temporary and trivial when compared with the results for which we are contending. It is to form Auxiliary Societies "without loss of time, and to appoint representatives who shall feel the dignity and importance of the work assigned them. Each County Society is entitled to one Delegate to every four of its regular members. When a County has no organized Society, one Delegate may be appointed by a majority of the profession in such County: provided there are as many as four regular practising Physicians in the County. Each Delegate should receive from the President or Secretary of the County Society a certificate of appointment. Very respectfully yours, A. N. TALLEY, President S. C. Med. Association. feb 5
