ALEXANDER BROWN, of the Fork of Edisto, is hereby announced as a candidate for County Commissioner by MANY FRIENDS.

Mr. Editor—Please announce GEO. W. BAXTER, from the Fork of Edisto, as a candidate for the Lower House of the General Assembly, at the next Election and oblige MANY VOTERS.

FOR SHERIFF. The numerous friends of the Hon. THAD. C. ANDREWS, our present efficient Judge of Probate, announce him as a CANDIDATE for SHERIFF of Orangeburg County, for the next Term. NUMEROUS FRIENDS. May 10, 1872.

ANNOUNCEMENT. MR. EDITOR—Please announce D. A. PORTER as a Candidate for Sheriff at the next Election and oblige his many friends in the FORK.

FOR SHERIFF. Many friends of Herpin Riggs Esq., the present Sheriff, announce him as a candidate for re-election. FRIENDS AND VOTERS.

THE NEWS HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE COUNTY. Thanks to the Hon. F. A. Sawyer for copies of speeches made by him in the U. S. Senate.

EUPHRASIAN SOCIETY.—The Euphrasian Society of the South Carolina College, Columbia, will celebrate its sixtieth anniversary on Thursday, June 27th. The orator of the occasion is Mr. John P. Arthur, of Columbia. We are indebted to Mr. R. J. Boone for an invitation to attend.

CLAUSSOPHIC SOCIETY.—The above Society, also connected with the South Carolina College, will hold its final celebration on Wednesday evening, June 26th. Mr. J. Quitman Marshall is President, and E. G. Craydon Secretary. W. F. Wright, of Anderson, delivers the valedictory oration. We return thanks for a card.

The Elliott boys are wonderful fellows, and Sheriff Riggs is "one among ten thousand, and altogether lovely"—except when making an arrest or levying an execution. The boys have already had the frame for their truck house made, and the Sheriff did the work. There will be a "raising" next week sometime. "High" times are anticipated.

All persons interested in the subject of license—and where is the man who is not?—will please bear seriously in mind that the present fiscal quarter expires with the current month and that "trouble begins" again on the first of July. Those who don't pay up on that day will run the risk of being particularly inquired for by a constable or deputy sheriff. "Nuff sed."

CORN.—Mr. Eschiel has just received 500 bushels white corn—just the thing for meal and grist—so don't grumble about that money and meal any more, but just step over to Mr. E's where you will find the polite and accommodating Mr. Wallace always ready to give you good weights in corn, groceries and any other article in his line. And if you can spare the greenbacks, he can supply you with as good a watch or clock as ever ticked, and the finest jewelry in the State. See ad.

TAXES! TAXES!—Auditor Van Tassel urgently desires all holders of personal property to read, remember and act upon his advertisement (which is to be found in another column) concerning assessments and returns for purposes of taxation. Owners, agents, guardians, executors, and all other parties interested will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly. If they don't, they will regret it to the tune of a 50 per cent penalty. The returning is cogent—go and make out your papers.

CLARIN UNIVERSITY.—The anniversary exercises of this institution, occurred on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. The pupils, in their recitation, gave evidence of praiseworthy improvement and progress. The school was a good deal broken in upon, during the past few weeks of the session, by sickness. It is the intention of the board of trustees thoroughly to reorganize the institution before the commencement of another term, and to make it in every respect a first class school.

The editor of the Reedsburg Press refers to the occurrence of "a little female incident" at his house which prevented his strict attention to business last week.

A new baby having been garrotted and robbed in Jacksonville, Ill., the Chicago Times says that highwaymen will be attacking reporters soon, as those gentlemen stand next below newboys in the scale of journalistic opulents.

A printer, having been "dug" by his sweetheart, tried to commit suicide. The "devil" found him out and took him to the sanatorium where the editor was writing duns to delinquent subscribers. The picture of despair presented by the editor reconciled the printer to his fate. He began to consider himself as comparatively happy.

In order to get the streets cleaned, a Little Rock paper prints this pleasant paragraph: "We have at elegant assortment of first class obituaries, from which we shall select, with pleasure, fitting ones for each of the aldermen, when he dies from the cholera or other disease, superinduced by the filthy condition of our streets and alleys."

A waggish journalist who is often merry over his personal plainness, tells this story of himself: "I went once to a drug store for a dose of morphine for a sick friend. The night-clerk objected to give it to me without a prescription, fearing I was going to kill myself. 'Pshaw,' said I, 'do I look like a man who would destroy himself?' Gazing steadily at me, he replied: 'I don't know. Seems to me if I looked like you I should be greatly tempted to kill myself.'"

These "devils" seem to be brought up with a sad misapprehension of facts concerning editors, but this is no reason why they should pour out their feelings in such miserable verses as the following:

If I was a local editor,
Wouldn't I have a time?
I wouldn't print a cussed word
For less'n a $ a line.
I'd get my grub and tucker free,
& tickets to the show,
I wouldn't pay for buggy hire,
& wouldn't I ware good cloze!

DON'T GIVE LIQUOR TO CHILDREN. One of the first literary men in the United States said to the writer, after speaking on the subject of temperance: There is one thing which, as you visit different places, I wish you to do everywhere, that is, to treat every mother never to give a drop of strong drink to a child. I have had to fight as for my life and all my days to keep from dying a drunkard, because I was fed with spirits when a child. I acquired a taste for it. My brother, poor fellow, died a drunkard. I would not have a child of mine take a drop of it for anything. Warn every mother, wherever you go, never to give a drop to a child.—Ed.

A precocious boy in a public school out West, who stands high in geography was recently asked by his teacher where Africa was located. He promptly answered: "Ah over the United States."

A reporter on an Illinois newspaper, in describing a recent tornado, first informs his readers that it "swept every movable thing from the face of the earth," and later on says that the hurricane was attended with no loss of life, and that, "as far as heard from, the farmers have lost none of their stock."

A Boy's Composition.—Here is a late boy's composition: "The Horse is the Most Useful Animal in the world. So is the Cow. I once had 13 Ducks and 2 was Drakes and a Skunk killed 1. I knew a boy which had 7 chickens, but His father would not let him raise Them so he Got Mad and so he bored a hole in his mothers Wash Tub. I wish I had a hors a hors weighs 1000 pounds."

THE PEOPLE'S STAMP OF VALUE.—The Government endorsement, which legalizes the sale of Plantation Bitters, is not the only stamp affixed to that famous Vegetable Tonic. It bears, in addition to that official sanction, the still more valuable stamp of public approbation. This indelible voucher of its rate properties as a tonic, Corrective and Alterative, is of much earlier date than the Grand Specific of the Age long before Congress thought of taxing proprietary medicines. It is unnecessary to repeat, in detail, the properties of this wonderful Vegetable Invigorant. The best reference that can be offered to those who desire the full particulars of its virtues, is the General Public. Ask those who have tried it for a remedy for dyspepsia, condition than the Government credential; for millions of sick persons had prostration, biliousness, intermittent fevers, nervous debility, rheumatism, sea sickness, low spirits, or loss of vital power, what Plantation Bitters has done for them, and be governed by the response they make to your inquiries.

So general has the public confidence become in Dr. Ayer's medicines; and so great the demand for them, that unprincipled villains are attempting to deceive the unwary by imposing upon them their worthless nostrums under a similarity of name. Cherry Pectoral Lozenges, Dr. Ayer's Troches, Ayer's Pastilles for Coughs, Cherry Pectoral Cough Drops, Ayer's Fever and Ague Cure, Dr. Ayer's Indian Pills, &c., &c., (none of which are of Dr. Ayer's manufacture or composition) are specimens of this villainy and deceit. They not only defraud the sick of their money but of their health; of the recovery of their health, which is far more important than money. From actual counterfeits the people are protected by law which the Doctor promptly enforces, but these evasions sometimes elude the law, and purchasers must protect themselves by refusing to be deceived by them.—Dover (N. H.) Bee.

THE VILLAGE CHURCH.—It should not look like a barn or a storehouse. It should be a building, the very sight of which would cause devout feeling in the breast. A well-carved cross should point to heaven; massive paneled doors should impress the visitor with the solemnity of the place into which he is entering; staine glass should throw a mystic light athwart the aisles; pulpit, altar, ceiling and galleries should be ornamented with figurative mouldings, and the columns that support the galleries, and the balusters that fall them in, should be of classic patterns. Any congregation wishing such a church should send their orders for finishing material to Mr. P. P. TOALE, importer of French stained glass, and manufacturer of and dealer in Doors, Sashes, Blinds &c., No. 20 Hayne street, Charleston, S. C.
