

LOCAL.

SATURDAY, JAN. 31, 1874.

TIMELY WARNING—

But four more days to pay your taxes.

That New Street has turned out a humbug, or there is a screw loose some where.

Mr. Thomas Boyd is opening in addition to his well assorted stock of Boots and shoes, a fine lot of groceries.

We learn that Mr. Wm. Sain was thrown from his buggy on Tuesday the 29th, but we are glad to say he was not seriously hurt, and is able to be out.

Mr. D. Louis is offering his entire stock of goods at and under cost. Now is the time to get bargains, as Mr. L. never says any thing but what he means. His stock is large and well assorted.

Our friend Mr. T. Cartmill has just such goods as the public wants, and will sell them at prices that will be advantageous to buyers. So step in as you go by and examine his stock and buyers.

The Enterprise Grocery Store is filled up with every thing to make up a first rate dinner, and Mr. Lewis ever ready to serve customers with goods at moderate prices.

Our City Fathers, it seems, have entirely forgotten something. Wonder what it is? It can't be that New Street, as they mean the whole Council, inspected the route it is to follow several times, before the holidays.

GARDENING—

Everybody is busy preparing his garden as the weather is favorable for the business. We wish all success in the above enterprise, and to secure that success go to Messrs. Crook & Copes and buy your seeds.

Mr. A. Fischer and Dr. J. T. Butler are always on hand to present their customers with good cigars, tobacco and liquors. The Enterprise Saloon cannot be beat this side of Charleston, as the above gentlemen are wide awake to the wants of the thrifty.

Mrs. Wm. Vince is offering a fine assortment of millinery and fancy goods, of which she has a good supply on hand at low prices. Mrs. V. is well up in her business, having had many years experience in the City of Charleston. We guarantee that all who favor her with a visit will receive every attention.

Mr. Wallace has recently returned from the city by the sea with a good supply of everything and anything that housekeepers need. Mr. Cannon is too well known for us to be of much service to him in the way of a puff and there fore we will leave him to the public for inspection—of rather his stock of select groceries and liquors.

READ! READ! READ!!!

Messrs Kohn & Bro., our readers will observe by referring to their large advertisement in another column, have you down their prices. They have a large stock of goods and a corps of polite and gentlemanly clerks to deal them out to the public, and no one will be allowed to go away from their store displeased.

Tax payers are under many obligations to Messrs Williams and Albertotti for the polite and accommodating manner in which they wait upon and answer all questions asked. They have been engaged day and night ever since the Treasurer's office has been opened for the collection of taxes, and seem as ready and willing to accommodate all who call upon them as when they first entered upon their duties. We wish them a long and prosperous life.

CANDIES—

Mr. Sherod Reeves presented us with a sample of the large and varied assortment of fine Candies Dr. Duke has just received. Mr. R. never forgets the poor printer, consequently when he forms a copartnership for life we will publish that little notice free of cost. All ye lovers of sweet and bitter articles will find them at the drug store of Dr. D. and with friend Sherod to deal them out we are satisfied they will be dealt with fairly.

TEMPERANCE—

The above cause is steadily advancing. There was a large division instituted at Branchville last Monday night, by several members of the Grand Division of the State. Among them our worthy friend Oliver Hewitt Esq., was the most active in the noble work and put through business in a manner not to be excelled by any one. Mr. H. is widely known in our State and his friends will be pleased to learn that he is in the bloom of health. We hope he will, ere long, give us a call.

At a meeting of the Orange Base Ball Club held Thursday evening, the 29th inst., the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing quarter: President—J. S. Albertotti. Vice-President—J. A. Edwards. Secretary—L. H. Wannamaker. Treasurer—S. B. Fowles. Directors—P. G. Cannon, W. L. Harley, Wm. Lucas, E. S. Salley. The Club are making arrangements to put the ball in motion at an early day to the joy of many of our young people.

LIBERAL—

We return our thanks to that enterprising firm over the way, under the name of Messrs Mosely, Crook & Copes for a full supply of garden seeds, and beg leave to state that we did not get near all they have on hand, and if our friends have not supplied themselves, we heartily recommend them to the above firm. These gentlemen are liberal business men, and we are satisfied that all who patronize them will agree with us in making the assertion. Their advertisement will attract your attention in another column.

EDUCATIONAL—

We call attention to the Advertisement of James S. Heyward, in which he publishes that his tuition for teaching Primary and Intermediate scholars is $1.50 and $2.00. Mr. Heyward does this to put the advantages of the Orangeburg Academy within the reach of every one. In the primary Department the instruction is thorough in spelling, Reading Writing and Arithmetic; in the Intermediate, instructions are given in Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Execution, Composition and Geography. The school throughout is open to both sexes. Miss E. Fogartie has charge of the smaller pupils.

HA! HA! HI! HI! HO! HO! WE SHALL SOON HAVE ANOTHER DEPOT!

The Charleston News, &c., (no lack of Courtesy meant, brother News, in thus restricting your fair proportions) says that "Orangeburg is to have a new depot." Well, the day of judgment is coming too, and several other things. But if Orangeburg does have a new depot (and she needs it just as much as some people need the day of judgment to come quickly)—and why an Orangeburg has a new depot—we reckon Orangeburg will owe a large meed of thanks to this lively little country journal for that very same new—or News—depot. The New Street is coming too, sometime. But if our city fathers don't hurry up that last little affair we shall soon have our city mothers going for their hair. Have we said all our good words of "Mosely and his men" in vain? We hope not.

The Question Settled.—Those eminent men, Dr. Jas. Clark, Physician to Queen Victoria, and Dr. Hughes Bennett, say that consumption can be cured. Dr. Wistar knew this when he discovered his now widely known BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and experience has proved the correctness of his opinion.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 20th, 1870.
