

LOCAL.

SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 1874.

Robbin shooting is all the go at present.

Our market is well supplied with fish.

The Governor has appointed Edward Argoe a Trial Justice for this County.

See law card of Messrs Humbert & Fordham, in another column.

Board without lodging will be found in our advertising columns.

The Legislature adjourns to-day subject to the call of the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House.

The appointment of James J. Mitchell, a Trial Justice by the Governor has been confirmed by the Senate.

See advertisement for sale in this issue. A rare opportunity for a fine plantation.

The alarm of fire was given last Thursday afternoon, which proved to be the stove-pipe in Mr. H. Riggs' carriage shop. No serious loss was sustained.

The stockholders of the South Carolina Rail Road Company will find something to their interest in our advertising columns this week.

Mr. Ransdale on Broughton Street has some fine Segars. We have tried them, and pronounce them very good. Give him a call.

Moseley, Crook & Copes have just received a fine lot of cloth; for the Spring trade. Call and examine their stock.

We would call attention to an advertisement headed lost and truly hope the article will be found and returned to the owner who is an orphan and prizes the pin very highly as it is a relic of her departed mother.

Wake up City daddys and open that new street, before it is planted or it will cost a little more by and by. You need not ask a young fellow for money for war are aware you can get it. So rouse up daddys and to the work!

Messrs Vose & Izlar have a large and attractive advertisement in this issue. Rest their stock of groceries and the low prices they sell them for will far exceed their notice, in fact, their stock is complete in every respect, and the public will find it to their advantage to call on them.

We were pleased to notice that our polite and efficient Post Master Mr. W. E. Williams is having the store room of the Engine House fitted up for the Post office. No better location could be found.

Since the above was written the Post Office has moved into its new quarters.

Our young friend Mr. G. Passaiguie of the S. & A. Telegraph Company, we are sorry to say has left us and gone to other fields of labor. He made many friends while here who regretted to see him leave. Mr. P., was a first class operator and strictly attentive to business. Mr. Zimmerman has taken his place.

We beg to return our thanks for a specimen of Messrs Straus & Street's Rice which we assert cannot be excelled for cleanliness and lower broken grains by any other Rice Mill in the State. These gentlemen have spared neither means or labor in fitting up their mill which is now complete in every respect. They buy rough Rice and pay the highest market price in greenbacks for it.

ALEX. H. STEPHENS.—The Atlanta Herald of Thursday, says: "Newspaper accounts from Washington continue to represent the Hon. Alex. H. Stephens as in very precarious health, and wholly unable to attend to his duties in the House. We regret to say that our private advices, received at this office within the last few days, are still more unfavorable. It is feared by many that our distinguished representative will never again resume his seat, his feeble frame being unable to weather the present attack. This news will be felt throughout the State, if not the

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the committee therein mentioned: Whereas, at the anniversary parade of the I. Y. A. F. E. Co., on the 24th February 1874, we, the committee appointed for the Decoration of our Truck, were materially assisted in our work of Decoration by the contribution from the hands of the fair ladies of Orangeburg. And whereas, it is the part of chivalric courtesy and gratitude to express to the fair ones our appreciation of the taste as well as the kindly and cheering interest manifested for us.

Resolved, That in this kindly interest, we find a holy incentive and cheering encouragement to maintain our Organization, preserve our discipline, and thus to be ready when duty calls. Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Orangeburg Times and News.

L. H. WANNAMAKER, D. E. SMOAK, J. S. BULL. Committee.

At a meeting of Physicians in Levisville on the 17th of Feb., the following preamble and resolutions were submitted by a committee and adopted: Whereas, We the members of the medical profession, engaged in practice in the upper portion of Orangeburg County, feel the urgent necessity of adopting some measure whereby we may secure to ourselves a just and proper remuneration for our services in the future.

Therefore, be it resolved: 1st. That we keep and exchange with each other accurate lists of all parties who do not pay their medical accounts and will withhold from the same all aid in the future. 2nd. We will be governed in making our charges by the regular established fee bill, and will not discount any bill under twenty dollars. 3rd. We will not make contracts with persons for practice. 4th. We claim a settlement of our accounts on the first day of November in each year. 5th. We will still extend the usual charities of our profession to the deserving poor in our respective communities. 6th. That the public may know our proceedings, we publish these resolutions in the County papers. Drs. A. I. Da by, W. T. U. Bates, Wm. L. P. Lee, C. R. Taylor, Charles S. Darby, F. G. Geiger, M. J. D. Dantzler, J. H. Smoak, Thomas Keller, W. C. Whistone.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is a combination and a balm indeed for healing and curing diseases of the throat, lungs and chest. It cures a cough by loosening and cleansing the lungs, and allaying irritation; thus removing the cause, instead of drying up the cough and leaving the disease behind. Gen. A. C. Garlington, of Atlanta, Ga., has been chosen by the students of Wofford College to deliver the annual address before the literary societies at commencement.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 20th, 1870. To the Editor Orangeburg News: Sir—I have the honor to inform you that at a meeting of the Board of Officers, created by an Act entitled "An Act to Regulate the Publication of all Legal and Public Notices," the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the "ORANGEBURG NEWS" is hereby designated as the OFFICIAL PAPER for the Publication of all Legal Notices and Official Advertisements of the County Officers in the County of Orangeburg.

Respectfully, &c. F. L. CARDOZO, Sec. of State and Chairman Board. Per W. R. JONES.

Iron in the Blood PERUVIAN IRON TONIC SYRUP MAKES THE WEAK STRONG. The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protochloride of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Tonicing up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood purifies, renews every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon. This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bolls, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in and depending on a debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution. Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women, and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial. See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Pamphlets Free. SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Proprietors, No. 56 Harrison Av., Boston. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS GENERALLY. J. C. EDWARDS. oct 18 1y

DR. J. C. AYER & CO. LOWELL, MASS. PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has won for itself such a reputation for the cure of all varieties of Lung Complaints, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recite evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use, and its efficacy is well known, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

NOTICE OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR, ORANGEBURG COUNTY, Orangeburg, S. C., Nov. 14, 1873. To all whom it may Concern: Pursuant to Title 3, chap. 18, Revised Statutes S. C. Section 58 requires: Sec 58. If any person, company or corporation shall commence any business in any County of this State after the first day of September in any year, (the legal day properly employed in which shall not have been previously listed for taxation in said County, and shall not within thirty days thereafter make such report to the Auditor of said County as is required in the sixth Section of this Act, he or they shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, which shall be collected by civil action in the name of the County Commissioners, and paid into the County Treasury for the exclusive benefit of the County. Add process in such cases may issue out of the Court of Common Pleas of the County in which such business was commenced, directed to the proper officer, and be served in any County of this State. JAS. VAN TASSEL, Auditor. nov 8-17 Co. Auditor.

Fever and Ague, from which mankind suffer over a large part of the globe, is the consequence of a diseased action in the system, induced by the poisonous miasm of vegetable decay. This exhalation is evolved by the action of solar heat on wet soil, and rises with the evening vapor from it. While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers near the earth's surface, and the virus is taken with it through the lungs into the blood. There it acts as an irritating poison on the system, and creates a morbid condition of the body. The liver becomes torpid and fails to secrete not only this virus, but also the bile from the blood. Both the virus and the bile accumulate in the circulation, and produce violent constitutional disorder. The spleen, the kidneys, and the stomach sympathize with the liver, and become diseased also. Finally, the instinct of our organism, as if in self-defense, creates a morbid condition, concentrates the whole blood of the body in the internal excretories to force them to excrete out. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes into the external excretories, and creates a morbid condition in the CHILL. But in this effort it fails. Then the fever follows, in which the blood leaves the external organs and rushes to the surface, as if in another effort to expel the irritating poison through that great excretory—the skin. In this effort it also fails, and the system abandons the attempt, exhausted, and waits for the recovery of strength to repress the morbid action, and create a morbid condition of the system. Such constitutional disorder will of course undermine the health if it is not removed. We have labored to find, and have found, an antidote, which neutralizes this malarious poison in the blood, and stimulates the liver to expel it from the body. As it should, so it does cure the disease with disorder with perfect certainty. And it does more, or rather does what is of more service to those who are afflicted with this disease, than any other remedy from the system as it is absorbed, and those who use it free from its attacks; keeps the system in health although exposed to the disease, and cures the most violent cases of Ague, Fever, and the great variety of affections which are induced by this malarious influence, such as Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb, or Muted Ague, Periodical Headache, Rheumatism, Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Rheumatism, Toothache, Barache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitations, Painful Affections of the Spleen, Hypertrophy of the Liver, and Painful Affections of the Stomach and Bowels, all of which, when cured from this cause, will be found to assume more or less the intermittent type. This "Ayer's Cure" removes the cause of these derangements, and cures the disease. This it accomplishes by stimulating the excretories to expel the virus from the system; and these organs, by degrees, become habituated to do their office of excretion, and the disease ceases. We term this "Acclimation." Time may accomplish the same end, but often life is not long enough to see the patient through this "Acclimation." Ayer's Cure does it at once, and with safety. We have no reason to believe this is a surer, as well as a more certain, remedy for the whole class of diseases which are caused by the malarious influence, than any other which has been discovered; and it has still the important advantage to the public, which is, that it is cheap as well as good.
