The mountains, North and West of Walhalla, were white with snow during the whole of last week. There was also plenty of ice and very cold weather.

Winnsboro Cotton Market.

Prices for the past week have ruled be-tween 131 and 14c On yesterday 131 was 106 N C Robertson, tween 13] and 14c. On yesterday 13] was the best offer. The news from every q 'arter indicate a large crop with every prospect of lower prices. Foreign news, also, has a strong tendency to reduce current prices. We have only to advise planters to sell, pay up their debts and pocket all the surplus. We see no prospect of making money by holding on for a spring market. To all who think otherwise, we are authorized to say, that low middling cotton can be sold in Winnsboro, advanced at just 117 Copes & Duva, what prices the same cotton may be worth what prices the same cotton may be worth between the first of March and the first of June, 1871. No risk of fire, no freight, storage or insurance, loss of weight, &c. Sales of the past week 628 bales.
